PREFACE TO THE REVISED AND ENLARGED EDITION.

The work of revising and enlarging the Magnificat has resulted in so many and such important corrections in the words, tunes and indexes, and such extensive additions of desirable material, both in hymns and music, as to make the present edition practically a new book, and one which can hardly be used in connection with the former edition without great inconvenience. The plan of retaining as strict a similarity as possible to the old book would have hindered the freedom of selection and addition for the new, and so would have defeated in part the object in view in making the new book; at the same time the endeavor has been to retain all the essential features of the old book and to arrive at the utmost accuracy possible in giving these their best and most authentic literary and musical form. In all only about thirty old hymns have been altogether omitted as hardly used by anyone in the Church, and about sixty entirely new hymns have been added. The number of changes, in the bringing together of hymns and tunes originally associated, but in some way separated in the first edition, in the provision of new and better tunes, in the revision of words, harmonies and indexes, have been too numerous to record. Entirely new and valuable features are, the Scripture texts provided for each hymn, the Metrical Index which it is hoped will make the book's contents more accessible to our church organists, and the Topical Index, a feature of all modern hymnbooks, which will be of special interest to the ministers and all who have a coherent service at heart.

In the addition of new hymns, the Committee have had in mind the wide variety of uses the Church's hymnal may subserve, not only in the formal public worship but in the home circle and in the informal and social religious meetings. Some of the most modern and popular of the songs used in the large "revival" and missionary meetings have been obtained, at considerable copyright expense, with a view to two results:—(1) the extension of the Church's influence through its service of song as widely as possible, and (2) the prevention of the introduction into our church circles of hymnals containing undesirable words and music for the sake of these really valuable selections otherwise unobtainable. Another and a substantial reason for embodying these popular religious songs is that they seem to be the utterance of a new affection in the religious world directed to the Lord Jesus in Person, in recognition of his Divinity, of his redeeming Love, and of his constant presence as Saviour and Comforter.

It has been the careful endeavor of the Committee to eliminate from these and from all the hymns introduced every expression of false doctrine or unworthy sentiment. Expressions in the language of the holy letter of the Word, even when imperfectly understood heretofore, have been retained when, in the Church's truer understanding, they acquire new beauty and force; and in making changes in old and well-known hymns, the effort has been wherever possible to return to the author's original version, subject always to the requirements of strict doctrinal purity of expression. In revising the indexes, resort has been had by thorough research to the highest and most critical hymnological sources both in England and in this country.

While the work doubtless contains many imperfections, the Committee nevertheless hope that the Church may find in the new Magnificat a hymnal that in both literary and musical scholarship will bear comparison with any that are in use.

The Committee desire to acknowledge with gratitude the free use of copyrights accorded by the Rev. Louis F. Benson of the Presbyterian Board of Publication of Philadelphia; Mr. George Schirmer of New York; Mr. Philip Goepp and Dr. Gilchrist of Philadelphia; the valuable assistance rendered by Messrs. W. T. Brooks and Charles Higham of London; and especially the continuous, exacting work of Miss Maud G. Sewall in tracing hymns to their original sources and other textual, musical and indexical revision and correction.

THE MAGNIFICAT.

Magnificat anima mea Dominum.

S. LUKE I: 46.

PREFACE TO THE FIRST EDITION.

This volume of sacred song takes its title "Magnificat" from the opening words of the Song of Mary:—"My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour."

These words declare the distinctive doctrine of the New Church, that Jesus Christ in His Divine Humanity is the one Lord, God, and Saviour of mankind; and this volume is designed for the use of those who in this faith desire to magnify and rejoice in Him.

The collection has been made by a Committee of the General Convention whose names appear below. Their object has been to obtain a very liberal supply, both of words and of music, to meet a wide range of wants and tastes, not only in public worship, but in smaller religious gatherings, in homes, and in the social circle. In making the collection, entire unanimity in taste and judgment has not been insisted upon.

While a large proportion of the material here offered is that which has happily passed into general use by Christians of all denominations, and constitutes in so far a common confession of faith and worship, there are nevertheless a considerable number of original contributions which may, in turn, it is hoped, prove to be not unworthy additions to the common treasury of Christian song.

To the collection of Hymns and Tunes in the present New-Church "Book of Worship" and those of the "Christian Hymnal" and a large number of the "Hymns of the English Conference Collection," the Committee have added selections from the best of the hymnals recently published both in this country and in England; and the many kind favors which the Committee have received both from publishers and from authors and composers are hereby gratefully acknowledged. Especially do the Committee desire to express their indebtedness to the Rev. Charles L. Hutchins, Mr. George C. Stebbins, the Century Company, the Chautauqua Circle, Messrs. Roberts Brothers, Mr. O. B. Brown, and Mr. Wm. W. Gilchrist, for the free use of valuable hymns and tunes; and to Messrs. Oliver Ditson & Company and the Biglow & Main Company for the use of tunes of which they own the copyrights; all of which will be found indicated in the indexes.

Part X, including music for the Responses, Sanctus, Doxologies and Canticles, has been added in response to a strongly-felt need of a larger musical provision for these parts of our stated liturgical service.

MORNING.

(FIRST TUNE.)

- 1 I will bless the Lord at all times ; his praise shall continually be in my mouth. Ps. xxxiv: 1.
- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 When morning gilds the skies.
 My heart awaking cries,
 May Jesus Christ be praised !
 Alike at work and prayer
 To Him do I repair ;
 ::May Jesus Christ be praised !:  2 When sleep her balm denies,
 My silent spirit sighs,
 May Jesus Christ be praised !
 When evil thoughts molest,
 With this I shield my breast,
 ::May Jesus Christ be praised !:  3 Does sadness fill my mind ?
 A solace here I find,
 May Jesus Christ be praised ! | Or fades my earthly bliss ?
 My comfort still is this,
 ::May Jesus Christ be praised !:  4 The night becomes as day,
 When from the heart we say,
 May Jesus Christ be praised !
 The powers of darkness fear,
 When this sweet chant they hear,
 ::May Jesus Christ be praised !:  5 In heaven's eternal bliss,
 The loveliest strain is this,
 May Jesus Christ be praised !
 Let earth, and sea, and sky,
 From depth to height reply,
 ::May Jesus Christ be praised !:  |

I myself will awake early. Ps. cviii: 2.

- 1 Awake, my soul, and with the sun
Thy daily stage of duty run ;
Shake off dull sloth, and joyful rise
To pay thy morning sacrifice.
- 2 Let all thy converse be sincere,
Thy conscience as the noon-day clear ;
Think how the all-seeing God, thy ways
And all thy secret thoughts surveys.
- 3 Glory to Thee, who safe hast kept,
And hast refresh'd me while I slept ;
Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake,
I may of endless light partake.
- 4 Lord, I my vows to Thee renew ;
Scatter my sins as morning dew ;
Guard my first spring of thought and will,
And with Thyself my spirit fill.
- 5 Direct, control, suggest this day
All I design, or do, or say ;
That all my pow'rs, with all their might,
In Thy sole glory may unite. Dox. X.

As thy days, so shall thy strength be. Deut. xxxiii: 25.

- 1 New every morning is the love
Our wakening and uprising prove ;
Through sleep and darkness safely brought,
Restored to life, and power, and thought.
- 2 New mercies, each returning day,
Hover around us while we pray ;
New perils past, new sins forgiven,
New thoughts of God, new hopes of heaven.
- 3 If on our daily course our mind
Be set to hallow all we find,
New treasures still, of countless price
God will provide for sacrifice.
- 4 The trivial round, the common task,
Will furnish all we need to ask,
Room to deny ourselves, a road
To bring us daily nearer God.
- 5 Old friends, old scenes, will lovelier be,
As more of heav'n in each we see ;
Some soft'ning gleam of love and prayer,
Shall dawn on every cross and care.
- 6 Only, O Lord, in Thy dear love
Fit us for perfect rest above ;
And help us, this and every day,
To live more nearly as we pray.

4 My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O Lord; in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up. Ps. v: 3.

- 1 O Lord, each morn again to Thee
Our grateful songs of praise we sing;
Thy mercy and Thy loving care
Are over every living thing.
- 2 Throughout the night in safety kept
Oh, through the day we pray Thee, guide
Our footsteps in the heavenly way;
May we not wander from Thy side.
- 3 And for each deed of kindness done
Our prayers and songs to Thee we'll raise,
Each gift received, each victory won,
To Thee alone belongs the praise. Dox. I.

Lift up the light of thy countenance upon us. Ps. iv : 6.

- 1 O God, before Thy sun's bright beams
All night's dark shadows fly;
So on the soul Thy mercy gleams;
And doubts and terrors die.
- 2 So freshly falls Thy heaven-sent grace
As morning's gladdening breath;
Gives light to all to seek Thy face
And guides in life and death.
- 3 O holy light! O light of God!
O light unseen below,
Which fills the courts of Thine abode,
Which there the blest shall know!
- 4 Swift comes the hour when none can toil,
Short is the rugged way:
Teach us our lamps to fill with oil,
Whilst it is called to-day.
- 5 Then we shall see that glorious light
Which to the saints is given,
So sweet, so fair, so passing bright,
The eternal morn of heaven.

Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile. Ps. xxxiv: 13.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 Now that the daylight fills the sky,
We lift our hearts to God on high:
That He, in all we do or say
Would keep us free from harm
to-day. | 3 Would keep our inmost conscience
pure,
Our souls from folly would secure;
Would bid us check the pride of sense
With due and holy abstinence. |
| 2 Would guard our hearts and tongues
from strife,
From anger's din would hide our life:
From all ill sights would turn our eyes:
Would close our ears from vanities. | 4 So we, when this new day is gone,
And night, in turn, is drawing on,
With conscience by the world un-
stain'd,
Shall praise His Name for vict'ry
gain'd. Dox. X. |

The Lord's mercies are new every morning. Lam. iii : 23.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 Every morning mercies new
Fall as fresh as early dew;
Every morning let us pay
Tribute with the early day;
For Thy mercies, Lord, are sure:
Thy compassion doth endure. | 3 Let our prayers each morn prevail,
That these gifts may never fail;
And, as we confess the sin
And the tempter's power within,
Feed us with the Bread of Life;
Fit us for our daily strife. |
| 2 Still the greatness of Thy love
Daily would our sins remove;
Daily, far as east to west,
Lift the burden from the breast;
Give unbought to those who pray
Strength to stand in evil day. | 4 As the morning light returns,
As the sun with splendor burns,
May we lift our hearts to Thee,
Sun of heaven's radiancy!
That beneath Thy blessed light
We may live to serve Thee right. |

Dox XV.

S Awake up, my glory ; awake psaltery and harp ; I myself will awake early. Ps. lviii : 8.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 Come, my soul, thou must be waking,
Now is breaking
O'er the earth another day :
Come to Him who made this splendor,
See thou render
All thy feeble strength can pay. | 3 Think that He thy ways beholdeth ;
He unfoldeth
Every fault that lurks within ;
He the hidden shame glossed over
Can discover,
And discern each deed of sin. |
| 2 Pray that He may prosper ever
Each endeavor,
When thine aim is good and true ;
But that He may ever thwart thee,
And convert thee,
When thou evil would'st pursue. | 4 Only God's free gifts abuse not,
Light refuse not,
But His Spirit's voice obey ;
Thou with Him shalt dwell, beholding
Light enfolding
All things in unclouded day. |

I will sing aloud of thy mercy in the morning. Ps. lix: 16.

- 1 Lord, in the morning Thou shalt hear
My voice ascending high;
To Thee will I direct my prayer,
To Thee lift up mine eye.
- 2 Unto Thy house will I resort
To taste Thy mercies there;
I will frequent Thine holy court,
And worship in Thy fear.
- 3 O, may Thy Spirit guide my feet
In ways of righteousness!
Make every path of duty straight,
And plain before my face.
- 4 The men that love and fear Thy Name
Shall see their hopes fulfill'd.
Th' Almighty God will compass them
With favor as a shield. Dox. IV.

[Tune "Dawn," Copyright, 1909, by E. F. ULRICH.]

10 Then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noonday. Isa. lviii : 10.

- 1 My opening eyes with rapture see
The dawn of Thy returning day;
My thoughts, O God, ascend to Thee,
While thus my early vows I pay.
- 2 I yield my heart to Thee alone
Nor would receive another guest;
Eternal King! erect Thy throne,
And reign sole monarch in my breast.
- 3 O bid this trifling world retire,
And drive each carnal thought away;
Nor let me feel one vain desire,
One sinful thought, through all the day.
- 4 Then, to Thy courts when I repair,
My soul shall rise on joyful wing,
The wonders of Thy love declare,
And join the strains which angels sing.

Dox. I.

11 In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun, which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race. Ps. xix : 4, 5.

- 1 God of the morning, at whose voice
The cheerful sun makes haste to rise,
And like a giant doth rejoice
To run his journey through the skies.
- 2 From the fair chambers of the east
The circuit of his race begins;
And, without weariness or rest,
Round the whole earth he flies and shines.
- 3 O, like the sun, may I fulfil
Th' appointed duties of the day,
With ready mind and active will
March on, and keep my heavenly way!
- 4 But I shall rove and lose the race,
If God, my Sun, shall disappear,
And leave me in the world's wide maze
To follow every wandering star.
- 5 Lord ! Thy commands are clean and pure,
Enlightening our beclouded eyes;
Thy warnings just, Thy promise sure,
Thy Gospel makes the simple wise.
- 6 Give me Thy counsel for my guide,
And then receive me to Thy bliss:
All my desires and hopes beside
Are faint and cold, compared with this!

12

The dayspring from on high hath visited us, to give light to them that sit in darkness. Luke 1: 78, 79.

- 1 Lord, whose glory fills the skies,
Thou, the true, the only Light,
Sun of Righteousness, arise,
Triumph o'er the shades of night;
Dayspring from on high, be near;
Daystar, in my heart appear.
- 2 Dark and cheerless is the morn
Unaccompanied by Thee;
Joyless is the day's return
Till Thy mercy's beams I see,
Till they inward light impart,
Glad my eyes, and warm my heart.
- 3 Visit then this soul of mine;
Pierce the gloom of sin and grief;
Fill me, Radiancy Divine;
Scatter all my unbelief;
More and more Thyself display,
Shining to the perfect day. Dox. XV.

13

Unto the upright there ariseth light in darkness. Ps. cxii: 4.

I. MORNING.

- 1 Shine forth, O Sun of boundless love,
The night within our souls remove;
Be Thou our Light, be Thou our Guide,
O'er every thought and step preside.
- 2 The light of truth to us display,
That we may know and choose Thy way;
Plant holy fear within each heart,
That we may ne'er from Thee depart. Dox. III.

II. NOONDAY.

- 1 O God of truth, O Lord of might,
Who orderest time and change aright,
Dost send the early morning ray,
And light the glow of perfect day.
- 2 Extinguish Thou each sinful fire,
And banish every ill desire;
And while Thou keep'st the body whole,
Shed forth Thy peace upon the soul. Dox. III.

III. EVENING.

- 1 O Thou true Life of all that live,
Who dost unmoved all motion sway;
Who dost the morn and evening give,
And through its changes guide the day,
- 2 Thy light upon our evening pour.
So may our souls no sunset see;
And death to us an open door,
To an eternal morning be. Dox. III.

14 Where two or three are gathered together in my name; there am I in the midst of them.
Matt. xviii: 20.

- 1 Jesus, where'er Thy people meet,
There they behold Thy mercy-seat;
Where'er they seek Thee, thou art found,
And every place is hallowed ground.
- 2 For Thou, within no walls confined,
Inhabitest the humble mind;
Such ever bring Thee where they come,
And going, take Thee to their home.
- 3 Dear Shepherd of Thy chosen few,
Thy former mercies here renew;
Here to our waiting hearts proclaim
The sweetness of Thy saving name.
- 4 Here may we prove the power of prayer,
To strengthen faith and sweeten care;
To teach our faint desires to rise,
And bring all heaven before our eyes.
- 5 Lord, we are few, but Thou art near;
Nor short Thine arm, nor deaf Thine ear;
O rend the heavens, come quickly down,
And make a thousand hearts Thine own!

Unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul. Ps. xxv: 2.

- 1 Jesus, Thou Shepherd of us all,
Behold Thy flock assembled here!
On Thy great Name alone we call,
In humble love and holy fear.
- 2 O Light of life, Thy truth display,
And shed around Thy beams of love!
O turn our darkness into day,
And raise our hearts to things above!
- 3 Here may our fervent praise and prayers
Like grateful incense, rise on high!
Here may we lose our worldly cares,
And find Thy soothing presence nigh!
- 4 Here may we learn, with lowly mind,
The truths that lead to endless peace!
Here may we feel affections kind,
And love and charity increase! Dox. I.

God be merciful unto us and bless us. Ps. lxxvii: 1.

1 God of mercy, God of grace,
Show the brightness of Thy face:
Shine upon us, Saviour, shine,
Fill Thy Church with light divine;
And Thy saving health extend
Unto earth's remotest end.

2 Let the people praise Thee, Lord;
Be by all that live adored:
Let the nations shout and sing,

Glory to their Saviour King;
At Thy feet their tributes pay,
And Thy holy will obey.

3 Let the people praise Thee, Lord;
Earth shall then her fruits afford;
God to man His blessings give,
Man to God devoted live;
Ail below, and all above,
One in joy, and light, and love.

17

Follow me. John xxi: 19.

- 1 Jesus calls us! — o'er the tumult
Of our life's wild, restless sea
Day by day His sweet voice soundeth,
Saying, "Christian, follow Me":
- 2 Jesus calls us from the worship
Of the vain world's golden store,
From each idol that would keep us,
Saying, "Christian, love Me more."
- 3 In our joys and in our sorrows,
Days of toil and hours of ease,
Still He calls, in cares and pleasures,
"Christian, love Me more than these."
- 4 Jesus calls us! — by Thy mercies,
Saviour, may we hear Thy call,
Give our hearts to Thy obedience,
Serve and love Thee best of all.

Lord, increase our faith. Luke xvii: 5.

Stronger faith, O Lord, we seek;
Here we bring each earthly care,
Thou the strengthening message speak.
In our greatest trials we,
Calm, through Thee, the way have trod:
In the smallest may we feel
Thou art still our Helper-God!
- 2 Of Thy presence and Thy love
We more steadfast feeling need,
Till the high and holy thought
Hallow every simplest deed.
In our work and in our homes
Christian men we fain would be;
Learn how daily life affords
Noblest place for serving Thee.

Dox. XX.

19 The Lord is in his holy temple, let all the earth keep silence before him. Habak. ii: 20.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 God is in His temple,
 Let us fall before Him,
 And with reverence adore Him.
 Lo! our God is present,
 Hushed all earthly feeling,
 Every heart to Him be kneeling.
 To His own He is known:
 Gaze with eye adoring,
 Self to God restoring. | Lo! I fall, in wonder gazing,
 I in Thee, Thou in me:
 Let me thus but find Thee,
 Leaving earth behind me. |
| 2 Lo! our God is present,
 To Whom, morn and even,
 Sing the cherubim in heaven.
 Holy, holy, holy!
 Angel-choirs are singing,
 Where the censers bright are swinging.
 Lord, give ear: deign to hear
 Humbler voices praising,
 Songs on earth upraising. | 4 Make me simple-hearted,
 Patient, and enduring,
 Safe at rest 'mid earth's alluring.
 Lord, renew my spirit,
 That in truth's uprightness
 I may see Thy glory's brightness.
 So let me, up to Thee
 As the eagle soaring,
 Live but in adoring. |
| 3 Spirit ever present,
 In whom all are living,
 To all things their substance giving!
 Sea unfathomed, boundless,
 Mystery amazing! | 5 Lord, come, rest within me,
 All my sins dispelling;
 Make my soul Thy hallowed dwelling.
 There Thy glorious presence
 O do not deny me,
 That I, too, may glorify Thee.
 Go or rest, I am blest;
 Seeing and believing,
 Thy good gifts receiving. |

I am the way, the truth and the life. John xiv : 6.

1 Holy Saviour, Truth divine !
Dawn upon this soul of mine ;
Word of God, and inward light !
Wake my spirit, clear my sight.
Holy Saviour, Love divine !
Glow within this heart of mine ;
Kindle every high desire ;
Perish self in Thy pure fire.

2 Holy Saviour, Power divine !
Fill and nerve this will of mine ;
By Thee may I strongly live,
Bravely bear and nobly strive.

Holy Saviour, Right divine !
Reign within this soul of mine ;
Be my law, and I shall be Firmly bound, for ever free.

3 Holy Saviour, Peace divine !
Still this restless heart of mine ;
Speak, to calm this tossing sea,
Stayed in Thy tranquillity.
Holy Saviour, Joy divine !
Gladden Thou this heart of mine ;
In the desert ways I sing,
Spring, O Well ; for ever spring !

They serve him day and night in his temple. Rev. vii : 15.

1 Love divine, all loves excelling,
 Joy of heaven, to earth come down,
 Fix in us Thy humble dwelling,
 All Thy faithful mercies crown.
 Jesus, Thou art all compassion,
 Pure, unbounded love Thou art ;
 Visit us with Thy salvation,
 Enter every trembling heart.

2 Breathe, O breathe Thy holy spirit
 Into every troubled breast ;
 Let us all Thy grace inherit,
 Let us find Thy promised rest.
 Lead us from the paths of sinning,
 Take our load of guilt away ;
 End the work of Thy beginning,
 Bring us to eternal day.

3 Come, almighty to deliver,
 Let us all Thy life receive;
 Come to us, dear Lord, and never,
 Never more Thy temples leave.
 Thee we would be alway blessing;
 Serve Thee as Thy hosts above;
 Pray, and praise Thee without ceasing;
 Glory in Thy perfect love.

4 Finish then Thy new creation,
 Pure and spotless let us be:
 Let us see our whole salvation,
 Perfectly secured in Thee:
 Changed from glory into glory,
 Till in heaven we take our place:
 Till we cast our crowns before
 Thee,
 Lost in wonder, love, and praise.

22 Unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul. O my God, I trust in thee. Ps. xxv: 1, 2.

1 To God I lift my eyes;
 My trust is in His name;
 And they whose hope on Him relies
 Shall never suffer shame.
 2 From the first dawning light,
 Till the dark evening shade,
 For Thy salvation, Lord, I wait,
 And ask Thy heavenly aid.
 3 Through all Thy ways, O Lord,
 Thy truth and mercy shine,

To those that with a heart sincere
 To Thy blest will incline.
 4 Thou dost them safely guide
 Who Thy direction seek;
 And in Thy sacred paths wilt lead
 The humble and the meek.
 5 So may I still abide,
 Nor from my hope remove;
 Till Thou my patient spirit guide,
 Into Thy perfect love. Dox. V.

We humbly bow before Thee,
Thou glorious Lord of all;
In mercy now draw near us,
In Thy compassion hear us,
As on Thy name we call. | 3 Thy sun doth shine above us,
We know that Thou dost love us,
Thou Light of life Divine;
May Thy good Spirit cheer us,
Thy angels e'er be near us,
May we be wholly Thine. |

And ask Thy kind protection,
From error, sin and harm;
Of all good gifts the Giver,

By Thine Almighty arm. | 4 In all our tribulation,
In trial and temptation,
Our hope is but in Thee;
We do confess in meekness,

And the bow shall be in the cloud, that I may remember the everlasting covenant.

Gen. ix: 16.

- 1 Lord of all being! throned afar,
Thy glory flames from sun and star;
Center and soul of every sphere,
Yet to each loving heart how near!
- 2 Sun of our life! Thy quickening ray
Sheds on our path the glow of day;
Star of our hope! Thy softened light
Cheers the long watches of the night.
- 3 Our midnight is Thy smile withdrawn;
Our noontide is Thy gracious dawn;
Our rainbow arch Thy mercy's sign;
All save the clouds of sin are Thine.
- 4 Lord of all life! below, above,
Whose light is truth, whose warmth is love,
Before Thy ever-blazing throne
We ask no luster of our own.
- 5 Grant us Thy truth to make us free,
And kindling hearts that burn for Thee,
Till all Thy living altars claim
One holy light, one heavenly flame.

Dox. II.

25 Although the fig tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines, and the fields shall yield no meat, yet I will rejoice in the Lord. Habak. iii: 17, 18.

1 Sometimes a light surprises
The Christian while he sings:
It is the Lord, Who rises
With healing on His wings.
When comforts are declining,
He grants the soul again
A season of clear shining,
To cheer it after rain.

2 In holy contemplation,
We sweetly then pursue
The theme of God's salvation,
And find it ever new:
Set free from present sorrow,
We cheerfully can say,
"E'en let the unknown morrow
Bring with it what it may!

3 "It can bring with it nothing
But He will bear us through;
Who gives the lilies clothing
Will clothe His people too;
Beneath the spreading heavens
No creature but is fed;
And He Who feeds the ravens
Will give His children bread."

4 Though vine nor fig-tree neither,
Their wonted fruit shall bear,
Though all the field should wither,
Nor flocks nor herds be there;
Yet God the same abiding
His praise shall tune my voice,
For, while in Him confiding,
I cannot but rejoice. Dox. XIII

26

Pray to thy Father which is in secret. Matt. vi: 6.

1 Go when the morning shineth,
Go when the noon is bright,
Go when the eve declineth,
Go in the hush of night;
Go with pure mind and feeling,
Fling earthly thought away,
And, in thy closet kneeling,
Do thou in secret pray.

2 Or, if 'tis e'er denied thee
In solitude to pray,
Should holy thoughts come o'er thee
When friends are round thy way,

E'en then the silent pleading
Thy spirit sends above,
Will reach His throne of glory,
Where dwells eternal love.

3 Oh, not a joy or blessing
With this can we compare, —
The power that He has given us
To pour our souls in prayer:
Whene'er thou pin'st in sadness,
Before His footstool fall;
Remember in thy gladness,
His grace, Who gives thee all.

Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me. Ps. li: 10.

1 Cleanse my heart, O Father! cleanse it; 2 Father, make me pure and lowly,
Purge and make it all Thine own; Fond of peace and far from strife,
Let Thy Spirit melt and break it — Turning from the paths unholy
This proud heart of sin and stone. Of a vain and sinful life.

28 I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it ; that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them. John xvii: 26.

- 1 In boundless mercy, gracious Lord, appear,
Darkness dispel, the humble mourner cheer ;
Vain thoughts remove, melt down the flinty heart,
Draw every soul to choose the better part.
- 2 Thy presence fills the universal space,
Thy grace appears to all the human race,
Oh! visit us with light and life divine,
Fill every soul, — for every soul is Thine.
- 3 The blessed Jesus is my Lord, my Love:
He is my King: from Him I would not move.
Hence earthly charms, far, far, from me depart,
Nor seek to draw from my dear Lord my heart.

Dispel the gloomy shades of night—

- 2 To mine illumined eyes, display
The glorious truths Thy Word reveals;
Cause me to run the heavenly way,

- 3 Thine inward teachings make me know,
The truth of Thy redeeming love,
The vanity of things below,
And excellence of things above.
- 4 While through this devious maze I stray,
Spread, like the sun, Thy beams abroad,
To show the dangers of the way,

30 That was the true light that lighteth every man that cometh into the world. John i : 4.

 Illumine those who sit in night ;
 Let those afar now hear Thy voice,
 And in Thy fold with us rejoice.

- 2 Seek those, O Lord, who stray from Thee,
 Let them Thy loving guidance see ;
 Thy peace to contrite hearts be given,
 That they be drawn to Thee and heaven.

- 3 Shine on the darkened and the cold,
 Recall the wanderers from Thy fold ;
 Unite those now who walk apart,
 Confirm the weak and doubting heart.

- 4 So they, with us, may evermore
 Such grace with wondering thanks adore,
 And endless praise to Thee be given,
 By all Thy Church in earth and heaven.

Deut. xxxiii : 27.

- 2 O everlasting Health!
Flow through life's inmost springs;
The heart's best bliss, the soul's best wealth,—
What life Thy presence brings!
- 3 O everlasting Truth!
The soul of all that's true,
Sure guide alike of age and youth,
Lead me and teach me too.
- 4 O everlasting Might!
My broken life repair;
Nerve Thou my will, and clear my sight,
Give strength to do and bear.
- 5 O everlasting Love!
Wellspring of grace and peace;
Pour down Thy fulness from above,
Bid doubt and trouble cease! Dox. V.

Hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place. I Kings viii : 43.

1 When the weary seeking rest,
 To Thy goodness flee;
 When the heavy laden cast
 All their load on Thee;
 When the troubled, seeking peace,
 On Thy Name shall call;
 When the sinner, seeking life,
 At Thy feet shall fall:
 Hear then, in love, O Lord, the cry,
 In heav'n, Thy dwelling-place on high!

- 2 When the worldling, sick at heart,
Lifts his soul above;
When the prodigal looks back
To his Father's love;
When the proud man from his pride
Stoops to seek Thy face;
When the burdened brings his guilt
To Thy throne of grace:
Hear then, in love, O Lord, the cry,
In heav'n, Thy dwelling-place on high!
- 3 When the stranger asks a home,
All his toils to end;
When the hungry craveth food,
And the poor a friend;
When the sailor on the wave
Bows the humble knee;
When the soldier on the field
Lifts his heart to Thee:
Hear then, in love, O Lord, the cry,
In heav'n, Thy dwelling-place on high!
- 4 When the man of toil and care,
In the city crowd;
When the shepherd on the moor
Names the Name of God;
When the learned and the high,
Tired of earthly fame,
Upon higher joys intent,
Name the blessed Name;
Hear then, in love, O Lord, the cry
In heav'n, Thy dwelling-place on high!
- 5 When the child, with guileless lip,
Youth, or maiden fair;
When the aged, weak and gray,
Seek Thy face in prayer;
When Thy waiting, longing church,
Looking for a home,
Sendeth up her silent sigh,
Come, Lord Jesus, come!
Hear then, in love, O Lord, the cry,
In heav'n, Thy dwelling-place on high!

5 Sinners, whose love can ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall,
Go spread your trophies at His feet,
And crown Him Lord of all.

6 Let every tribe and every tongue
To Him their hearts enthrall,
Lift high the universal song,
And crown Him Lord of all.

7 Our heavenly Father, Jesus, Lord,
Whom King of kings we call,
We worship Thee, Incarnate Word
And crown Thee Lord of all.

50 There is none like unto the God of Jeshurun, who rideth in the heaven in thy help, and in his excellency on the sky. Deut. xxxiii : 26.

- | | |

| 1 None is like Jeshurun's God,
So great, so strong, so high;
Lo, He spreads His wings abroad,
He rides upon the sky !
Israel is His chosen son ;
God, the mighty God, is thine :
See Him to thy help come down,
The Excellence Divine. | 3 In a land of corn and wine
Thy lot shall be below ;
Comforts shall with blessings join,
And milk and honey flow.
Jacob's well shall ne'er be dry :
Gracious dew shall heaven distil ;
Joy descending from on high
Each humble heart shall fill. |
| 2 Thee the great Jehovah deigns
To succour and defend :
Thee the eternal God sustains,
Thy Maker and thy Friend.
Israel what hast thou to dread,
Safe from all impending harms ?
Round thee and beneath are spread
The everlasting arms. | 4 Blest, O Israel, blest art thou !
What people is like thee ?
Saved and kept by Jesus now
Thou art and still shalt be.

Jesus is thy flaming sword :
Earth, and hell, and sin shall yield
To His almighty Word. |

I will sing praise to the Lord and God of Israel. Jud. v: 3.

- 1 Father, throned on high,
Yet to mortals nigh!
While the hosts of heav'n adore Thee,
We on earth fall down before Thee,
And with rapture raise
Songs of love and praise.
- 2 O Eternal Word,
O Incarnate Lord!
We to Thee thanksgiving render,
Thee, Thy Church's strong defender,
And as monarch own
None but Thee alone.
- 3 Blessed be Thy Name,
Jesus Christ! — the same
Yesterday, to-day, forever,
What from Thee our souls shall sever,
While we hear Thy voice,
And in Thee rejoice?
- 4 Lord, Thy Word is light;
Led by it aright;
When as pilgrims, like our fathers,
Life's last shadow round us gathers,
May its brightening ray
Shine to perfect day.

52

To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Rev. 1: 6.

- 1 To Jesus Christ be glory given
By all on earth, by all in heaven!
Let His dominion wide extend,
His glorious kingdom have no end!
- 2 For He of all that's good and true
Is Alpha and Omega too;
The Fount of Life, the Source of Light,
The Spring of every true delight.
- 3 Beginning, Ending — God and Man!
His inmost Being none can scan;
But in His human form Divine
The First and Last united shine.
- 4 Who is, who was, who is to come —
Th' Eternal, Infinite, I Am!
The Lord Almighty — God most high!
Amen! let heaven and earth reply.

Dox. X.

And as Thy glory fills the sky,

2 Thy praises, Lord, we will resound
To all the listening nations round;
Thy mercy highest heaven transcends,
Thy truth beyond the clouds extends.

The Lord will lighten my darkness. 2 Sam. xxii: 29.

- 1 O Lord of life, the Truth, the Way,
 Whose nature is essential love:
 O turn our darkness into day,
 And raise our hearts to things above.
- 2 Here may our praise to Thee ascend,
 As incense from a thankful mind:
 And may each hallowed feeling blend,
 And truth with love in union bind.
- 3 Here may our selfish thoughts and cares,
 Our worldly loves and anxious fears
 Give place to heavenly songs and prayers,
 And gladness take the place of tears.
- 4 So may our hearts and minds be one,
 Conjoined with Thee in love Divine:
 So may Thy will on earth be done,
 And all our life be ruled by Thine.

Are but reflections, Lord, from Thee :
Where'er we turn, Thy glories shine,
And all things fair and bright are Thine.

So soft, so radiant, Lord, are Thine.

82 The same day at evening, being the first day of the week, came Jesus and stood in the midst and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. John xx: 19.

1 O day of rest and gladness,
O day of joy and light,
O balm of care and sadness,
Most beautiful, most bright!
On thee the high and lowly,
Before the eternal throne
Sing Holy, holy, holy!
To Jesus, Lord alone.

2 On thee at the creation,
The light had first its birth;
On thee for our salvation
Christ rose from depths of earth;

On thee our Lord victorious
The Spirit sent from heaven;
And thus on thee most glorious
A triple light was given.

3 Thou art a cooling fountain
In life's dry dreary sand;
From thee, like Pisgah's mountain,
We view our promised land;
A day of sweet reflection,
A day of holy love,
A day of resurrection
From earth to things above.

4 To-day on weary nations
 The heavenly manna falls,
 To holy convocations
 The silver trumpet calls,
 Where gospel-light is glowing
 With pure and radiant beams,
 And living water flowing
 With soul-refreshing streams.

5 New graces ever gaining
 From this our day of rest,
 We reach the rest remaining
 To spirits of the blest.
 To Thee, O Lord! be praises,
 For every good begun;
 The church her voice upraises
 To Thee, blest Lord! alone.

83 This is the day which the Lord hath made ; we will rejoice and be glad in it. Ps. cxviii: 24.

- 1 This is the day of light :
 Let there be light to-day ;
 O Day-spring, rise upon our night,
 And chase its gloom away.
- 2 This is the day of rest :
 Our failing strength renew ;
 On weary brain and troubled breast
 Shed Thou Thy freshening dew.
- 3 This is the day of peace :
 Thy peace our spirits fill ;
 Bid Thou the blasts of discord cease,
 The waves of strife be still.
- 4 This is the day of prayer :
 Let earth to heaven draw near,
 Lift up our hearts to seek Thee there,
 Come down to meet us here.
- 5 This is the first of days :
 Send forth Thy quickening breath,
 And wake dead souls to love and praise,
 O Vanquisher of death! Dox. V.

Lord, I have loved the habitation of thy house; and the place where thine honor dwelleth. Ps. xxvi: 8.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 We love the place, O God !
Wherein Thine honor dwells ;
The joy of Thine abode
All earthly joy excels. | 4 We love the Word of life,
The Word that tells of peace,
Of comfort in the strife,
And joys that never cease. |
| 2 It is the house of prayer,
Wherein Thy servants meet ;
And Thou, O Lord, art there,
Thy waiting flock to greet. | 5 We love to sing below
For mercies freely given ;
But O! we long to know
The triumph-song of heaven. |
| 3 We love Thy feast, O Lord !
Where Thou, the living Bread,
By faithful hearts adored,
Our fainting souls dost feed. | 6 Lord Jesus ! give us grace
On earth to love Thee more ;
In heaven to see Thy Face,
And with Thy saints adore. |

Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee.

Ps. lxxxiv: 4.

- 1 How lovely are Thy dwellings, Lord!
From strife and trouble free!
How beautiful the sweet accord
Of souls that praise to Thee!
- 2 Lord God of hosts, that reign'st on high!
They are the truly blest,
Who will on Thee alone rely,
In Thee alone will rest.
- 3 They pass refreshed the thirsty vale,
The dry and barren ground,
As through a fruitful, watery dale,
Where springs and showers abound.
- 4 They journey on from strength to strength
With joy and gladsome cheer,
Till all before our God at length
In Zion's gates appear.
- 5 For God the Lord, both sun and shield,
Gives grace and glory bright:
No good from them shall be withheld
Whose ways are just and right.

The rest of the holy Sabbath. Exod. xvi: 23.

- 1 Hail, sacred day of earthly rest,
From toil and trouble free;
Hail, quiet spirit, bringing peace
And joy to me.
- 2 A holy stillness, breathing calm
On all the world around,
Uplifts my soul, O God! to Thee,
Where rest is found.
- 3 No sound of jarring strife is heard,
As weekly labors cease;
No voice, but those that sweetly sing
Sweet songs of peace.
- 4 For those who sing with saints below
Glad songs of heavenly love,
Shall sing, when songs on earth have ceased,
With saints above.
- 5 Accept, O Lord! my hymn of praise
That Thou this day hast given,
Sweet foretaste of that endless day
Of rest in heaven.

87

I am the light of the world ; he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life. John viii: 12.

- 1 Light of light ! enlighten me.
 Now anew the day is dawning ;
 Sun of grace ! the shadows flee,
 Brighten Thou my Sabbath morning ;
 With Thy joyous sunshine blest,
 Happy be my day of rest.
- 2 Fount of all our joy and peace !
 To Thy living waters lead me ;
 Thou from earth my soul release,
 And with grace and mercy feed me ;
 Bless Thy Word, that it may prove Rich in fruits that Thou dost love.
- 3 Kindle Thou the sacrifice
 That upon my lips is lying ;
 Clear the shadows from mine eyes,
 That, from every error flying,
 No strange fire in me may glow,
 Which Thine altar doth not know.

- 4 Let me with my heart to-day,
 Holy, holy, holy! singing,
 Rapt awhile from earth away,
 All my soul to Thee upspringing,
 Have a foretaste, inly given,
 Of the Sabbath joys of heaven.

- 5 Hence all care, all vanity,
 For the day to God is holy;
 Come, Thou glorious Majesty!
 Deign to fill this temple lowly;
 Nought to-day my soul shall move,
 Simply resting in Thy love.

88

I will come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercy. Ps. v: 1.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 To Thy temple I repair,
 Lord, I love to worship there,
 When within the veil I meet
 Thee before Thy mercy-seat. | 3 While I hearken to Thy law,
 Fill my soul with humble awe;
 Let Thy gospel bring to me
 Life and immortality. |
| 2 While Thy glorious praise is sung,
 Touch my lips, unloose my tongue:
 That my joyful soul may bless
 Thee, the Lord, my righteousness. | 4 From Thy house when I return,
 May my heart within me burn;
 And at evening let me say,
 I have been with Thee to-day. |

89

Thy testimonies have I taken as a heritage forever. Ps. cxix: 111.

- 1 Blessed Jesus, at Thy Word,
We are gathered all to hear Thee;
Let our hearts and souls be stirr'd
Now to seek and love and fear Thee;
By Thy teachings sweet and holy,
Drawn from earth, to love Thee solely.
- 2 All our knowledge, sense, and sight
Lie in deepest darkness shrouded,
Till Thy Spirit breaks outright
With the beams of truth unclouded;
Thou alone, O Lord, canst win us,
Thou must work all good within us.
- 3 Glorious Lord, Thyself impart!
Truth from Love divine proceeding,
Open Thou our eyes and heart,
Let us hear Thy still voice pleading;
Till our answering cry it raises:
Hear, and bless our prayers and praises.

Breaks o'er the earth again,
As some sweet summer morning
Succeeds a night of pain.
It comes as cooling showers
To some exhausted land,
As shade of clustered palm-trees
'Mid weary waste of sand. | When want is turned to fulness,
And weariness to rest,
And pain to wondrous rapture,
Upon the Saviour's breast! |
| 2 O day, when earthly sorrow
Is merged in heavenly joy,
And trial changed to blessing
That foes may not destroy ; | 3 Grant, Lord, our gracious Saviour !

In Thy most holy presence,
Thy sacred Name adore !
O bless this peaceful Sabbath,

Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord. Ps. cl : 6.

- 1 Oh, come, and let us all, with one accord,
Lift up our cheerful voice, and praise the Lord !
His goodness let our grateful hearts proclaim,
Yea, let us laud and magnify His Name.
- 2 Let universal nature ever raise
A cheerful voice to give Him thanks and praise ;
Let us and all His saints His glory sing,
Who is our blessed Saviour, Lord, and King.
- 3 For by His word the heavens and earth were made,
The earth's foundation also firmly laid ;
All things were done at His divine command,
And shall throughout all ages surely stand.
- 4 Therefore let all in heaven and earth agree
To sing His praise in perfect unity ;
Yea, let His servants all, with one accord,
With joyful hallelujahs praise the Lord.

Call the Sabbath a delight, the holy of the Lord, honorable. Isa. lviii: 13.

- 1 Welcome, sweet day of rest,
That saw the Lord arise;
Welcome to this reviving breast,
And these rejoicing eyes.
- 2 The King Himself comes near
And feasts His saints to-day;
Here may we sit, and see Him here,
And love, and praise, and pray.
- 3 One day of prayer and praise
His sacred courts within,
Is sweeter than ten thousand days
Spent in the ways of sin.
- 4 My willing soul would stay
In such a frame as this,
And serve Him in eternal day,
And everlasting bliss. Dox. V.

93

Blessed is the man . . . that keepeth the Sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil. Isa. lvi: 2.

- 1 Within Thy tabernacle, Lord,
Be with us through this day:
Oh, help us all to hear Thy Word,
Its precepts to obey.
- 2 As we draw near Thy mercy-seat,
In confidence and prayer:
And lay our burdens at Thy feet,
O Lord, receive us here.
- 3 With humble trust and thankfulness,
We come before Thy face:
Thy love, O Lord, make known to us,
And Thy redeeming grace.
- 4 Help us our sins to put away,
And earnest heed to give
To all Thy Word of truth shall say,
That we may do and live. Dox. IV.

The Lord bless thee and keep thee. Num. vi: 24.

- 1 Suppliant, lo ! Thy children bend,
 Father, for Thy blessing now ;
 Thou canst teach us, guide, defend ;
 We are weak, almighty Thou !

- 2 With the peace Thy Word imparts
 Be the taught and teacher blessed ;
 In our lives and in our hearts,
 Father, be Thy laws impressed.

- 3 Pour into each longing mind
 Light and knowledge from above,
 Charity for all mankind,
 Trusting faith, enduring love.

95 Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces! For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will now say, Peace be within thee. Ps. cxii: 7, 8.

- 1 Peace be to this congregation!
Peace to every heart therein!
Peace, the earnest of salvation;
Peace, the fruit of conquered sin;
- 2 Peace, that speaks the heavenly Giver;
Peace, to worldly minds unknown;
Peace, that floweth, as a river,
From the eternal Source alone.
- 3 O thou God of Peace, be near us,
Fix within our hearts Thy home;
With Thy bright appearing cheer us,
In Thy blessed freedom come.
- 4 Come with all Thy revelations,
Truth which we so long have sought;
Come with Thy deep consolations,
Peace of God which passeth thought!

96 Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee. Isa. xxvi: 3.

1 Lord, dismiss us with Thy blessing;
 Fill our hearts with joy and peace;
 Let us each, Thy love possessing,
 Triumph in redeeming grace:
 O refresh us,
 O refresh us,
 Traveling through this wilderness.

2 Thanks we give, and adoration
 For Thy Gospel's joyful sound;
 May the fruits of Thy salvation
 In our hearts and lives abound:
 May Thy presence,
 May Thy presence,
 With us evermore be found.

97

Peace from him who is, and who was, and who is to come. Rev. i: 4.

- 1 Saviour, again to Thy dear Name we raise
With one accord our parting hymn of praise;
We stand to bless Thee ere our worship cease,
Then, lowly kneeling, wait Thy word of peace.
- 2 Grant us Thy peace upon our homeward way;
With Thee began, with Thee shall end the day;
Guard Thou the lips from sin, the hearts from shame,
That in this house have called upon Thy Name.
- 3 Grant us Thy peace, Lord, through the coming night,
Turn Thou for us its darkness into light;
From harm and danger keep Thy children free,
For dark and light are both alike to Thee.
- 4 Grant us Thy peace throughout our earthly life,
Our balm in sorrow, and our stay in strife;
Then, when Thy voice shall bid our conflict cease,
Call us, O Lord, to Thine eternal peace.

Take therefore no thought for the morrow. Matt. vi : 34.

How kind His precepts are ;
Come, cast your burdens on the Lord,
And trust His constant care.
- 2 His bounty will provide,
His people safely dwell ;
The hand which bears creation up
Shall guard His children well
- 3 Why should this anxious load
Press down your weary mind ?
O seek your heavenly Father's throne
And peace and comfort find.
- 4 His goodness stands approved,
Unchanged from day to day ;
I'll drop my burden at His feet,
And bear a song away. Dox. V.

 And make our luke-warm hearts to glow
 With lowly love and fervent will ;
 Throughout life's day and death's brief night,
 O blessèd Jesus, be our Light.
- 2 The day is gone, its hours have run,
 And Thou hast taken count of all,

 O blessèd Jesus, be our Light.

 True absolution and release ;
 And bless us, more than in past days,

 Throughout life's day and death's brief night,
 O blessèd Jesus, be our Light.

 Throughout life's day and death's brief night,

 From evil fears and phantasis ;

 Blest fulness of the Trinity,

True absolution and release;
And bless us, more than in past days,
With purity and inward peace.
- 4 Do more than pardon; give us joy,
Sweet fear, and sober liberty,
And simple hearts without alloy
That only long to be like Thee.
- 5 Labor is sweet, for Thou hast toiled;
And care is light, for Thou hast cared;
Ah! never let our works be soiled
With strife, or by deceit ensnared.

King of kings, and Lord of lords. Rev. xix: 16.

- 1 Jesus, Thou source of life, and light, and love,
 Thou King of kings, and Lord of lords above,
 Eternal, self-existent, and divine,
 In Thee, ineffable perfections shine:
 On Thy unchanging love our souls depend,
 Almighty Father and Eternal Friend!

- 2 From Thee, great Spring of uncreated might,
The vast resplendent orbs of glowing light,
And all created beings take their rise,
That walk the earth, or dwell above the skies.
Profusely wide unnumber'd blessings flow;
Heaven they enrich and gladden earth below.
- 3 In Thy wide grasp, and comprehensive eye,
Worlds upon worlds, and suns unnumber'd lie;
Systems enclosed in Thy perception roll,
Whose all-informing mind directs the whole:
Led by Thy hand, their certain ways they know,
Placed in that sight from whence they cannot go.
- 4 Around Thy throne the flaming seraphs stand,
And touch the golden lyre with trembling hand,
Transported with the ardors of Thy praise,
The holy, holy, holy anthem raise.
To them, responsive, let creation sing
The omnipresent and almighty King!

Even the night shall be light about me. Ps. cxxxix: 11.

- 1 Hail! gladdening Light, of that pure glory poured
Which is the Love eternal, heavenly blest,
Holiest of holies, Jesus Christ our Lord!
Now are we come to the sun's hour of rest,
All times are ordered by Thy word alone,
Therefore the day and night Thy glories own.
- 2 The lights of evening now around us shine;
We hymn the blest Humanity Divine.
Worthiest art Thou at all times to be sung,
By grateful hearts, with undefiled tongue.
Thou art the Lord: Giver of life, alone,
Therefore shall all the worlds Thy glories own.

110 At even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils. Mark i: 32.

- 1 At even ere the sun was set,
The sick, O Lord, around Thee lay:
Oh, in what divers pains they met!
Oh, with what joy they went away!
- 2 Once more 'tis eventide, and we,
Oppressed with various ills, draw near:
What if Thy form we cannot see?
We know and feel that Thou art here.
- 3 O Saviour Lord, our woes dispel:
For some are sick, and some are sad,
And some have never loved Thee well,
And some have lost the love they had;
- 4 And some have found the world is vain
Yet from the world they break not free;
And some have friends who give them pain,
Yet have not sought a friend in Thee;
- 5 And none, O Lord, have perfect rest,
For none are wholly free from sin;
And they, who fain would love Thee best,
Are conscious most of wrong within.

- 6 O Saviour Lord, Thou too art Man,
 Thou hast been troubled, tempted, tried;
 Thy kind but searching glance can scan
 The very wounds that shame would hide.
- 7 Thy touch has still its quick'ning power;
 No word from Thee can fruitless fall;
 Hear in this solemn evening hour,
 And in Thy mercy heal us all. Dox. I.

He that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. Ps. cxxi : 4.

- 1 The day is past and over;
 All thanks, O Lord, to Thee;
 I pray Thee that offenceless
 The hours of dark may be:
 O Jesus, keep me in Thy sight,
 And guard me through the coming night.
- 2 The joys of day are over;
 I lift my heart to Thee,
 And call on Thee that sinless
 The hours of dark may be:
 O Jesus, make their darkness light,
 And guard me through the coming night.

Thy sun shall no more go down ; for the Lord shall be thine everlasting light.

Isa. lx : 20.

- 1 Sun of my soul! Thou Saviour dear,
It is not night if Thou be near;
Oh! may no earth-born cloud arise,
To hide Thee from Thy servant's eyes.
- 2 When the soft dews of kindly sleep
My wearied eyelids gently steep,
Be my last thought, how sweet to rest
With Thy divine protection blest.
- 3 Abide with me from morn till eve,
For without Thee I cannot live;
Abide with me when night is nigh,
For without Thee I dare not die.
- 4 If some poor wandering child of Thine,
Have spurned, to-day, the voice divine,
Now, Lord, the gracious work begin,
Let him no more lie down in sin.
- 5 Come near, and bless us when we wake,
Ere through the world our way we take;
Till in the radiance of Thy love
We joyful wake in heaven above.

Dox. III.

113 Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. Luke xxiv : 29.

- 1 Abide with me! fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide!
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, oh, abide with me!
- 2 Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see;
O Thou, who changest not, abide with me!
- 3 I need Thy presence every passing hour;
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who like Thyself my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, oh, abide with me!
- 4 I fear no foe with Thee at hand to bless;
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness.
Where is Death's sting? Where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still if Thou abide with me.
- 5 Hold Thou Thy Word before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies.
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee!
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me! Dox. XI.

 Each flower and tree reposeth,
 Shade creeps o'er wild and wood:
 Let us, as night is falling,
 On God our Maker calling,
 Give thanks to Him, the Giver good. | 2 Now all the heavenly splendor
 Breaks forth in starlight tender
 From myriad worlds unknown;
 And man, the marvel seeing,

 For joy of beauty not his own. |

 May miss God's loving kindness,
 And grope in faithless strife:
 But when life's day is over

 The fields of everlasting life.

 Though the arrows past us fly,
 Angel guards from Thee surround us,
 We are safe, if Thou art nigh.
- 3 Though the night be dark and dreary,
 Darkness cannot hide from Thee;
 Thou art He Who, never weary,
 Watchest where Thy people be. Dox. IX.

116 It is a good thing to sing praises unto thy name, O most High, and to show forth thy faithfulness every night. Ps. xcii : 1, 2.

- 1 The shadows of the evening hours
 Fall from the darkening sky,
 Upon the fragrance of the flowers
 The dews of evening lie;
 Before Thy throne, O Lord of heaven!
 We kneel at close of day;
 Look on Thy children from on high,
 And hear us while we pray.

- 2 The sorrows of Thy servants, Lord,
 Oh, do not Thou despise,
 But let the incense of our prayers
 Before Thy mercy rise;
 The brightness of the coming night
 Upon the darkness rolls;
 With hopes of future glory chase
 The shadows of our souls.

- 3 Slowly the rays of daylight fade;
 So fade within our heart
 The hopes in earthly love and joy,
 That one by one depart;
 Slowly the bright stars, one by one,
 Within the heavens shine: —
 Give us, O Lord, fresh hopes in heaven,
 And trust in things divine.

117

I flee unto thee to hide me. Ps. cxliii : 9.

- 1 Now, Lord, be with us, for the night is closing;
 The light and darkness are of Thy disposing;
 And 'neath Thy shadow here to rest we yield us;
 For Thou wilt shield us.
- 2 Let evil thoughts and spirits flee before us,
 Till morning cometh, watch, O Father! o'er us;
 In soul and body Thou from harm defend us,
 Thine angels send us.
- 3 Let holy thoughts be ours when sleep o'ertakes us;
 Our earliest thoughts be Thine when morning wakes us.
 All sick and mourners, we to Thee commend them,
 Do Thou befriend them.
- 4 We have no refuge, none on earth to aid us,
 But Thee, O Father! who Thine own hast made us;
 But Thy blest presence will not leave them lonely
 Who seek Thee only.

(FIRST TUNE.)

118

We shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy temple.

Ps. lxxv: 4.

- 1 Again as evening's shadow falls,
We gather in these hallowed walls;
And evening hymn and evening prayer
Rise mingling on the holy air.
- 2 May struggling hearts that seek release,
Here find the rest of God's own peace;
And, strengthened here by hymn and prayer,
Lay down their burden and their care.
- 3 O God our Light! to Thee we bow;
Within all shadows standest Thou;
Give deeper calm than night can bring;
Give sweeter songs than life can sing.
- 4 Life's tumult we must meet again,
We cannot at the shrine remain;
But in the spirit's secret cell
May hymn and prayer for ever dwell.

A-MEN.

It shall come to pass, that at evening time it shall be light. Zech. xiv: 7.

1 Holy Father, cheer our way
With Thy love's perpetual ray:
Grant us every closing day
Light at evening-time.

3 Holy Father, be Thou nigh,
When in mortal pains we lie:
Grant us as we come to die,
Light at evening-time.

2 Holy Father, calm our fears,
When earth's brightness disappears:
Grant us in our latter years
Light at evening-time.

4 Holy Father, with us be!
Darkness is not dark with Thee:
Those Thou keepest always see
Light at evening-time.

120 He appointed the moon for seasons : the sun knoweth his going down. Ps. civ : 19.

- 1 The day is gently sinking to a close,
Fainter and yet more faint the sunlight glows ;
O Brightness of the Father's Glory, Thou,
Eternal Light of Light, be with us now ;
Where Thou art present, darkness cannot be :
Midnight is glorious noon, O Lord, with Thee.

- 2 Thou, Who in darkness walking didst appear
 Upon the waves, and Thy disciples cheer,
 Come, Lord, in lonesome days, when storms assail,
 And earthly hopes and human succors fail :
 When all is dark, may we behold Thee nigh,
 And hear Thy voice, "Fear not, for it is I."
- 3 Our earthly life draws daily to its close,
 Labor and care await their sweet repose.
 O Conqu'ror of the grave, be Thou our Guide,
 Be Thou our Light in death's brief eventide;
 Then in our mortal home will be no gloom,
 No sting in death, no terror of the tomb.

 Open fault and secret sin. | 2 Soon the light of this world's day

ADVENT.

126

Behold, the Bridegroom cometh ; go ye out to meet him. Matt. xxv : 6.

Sleepers, wake, a voice is calling,
 It is the watchman's voice upon thy walls,
 O city of Jerusalem !
 Lo! he cries the hour of midnight,
 The voice is gone out into all the world,—
 Where are ye, servants of the Lord!
 For lo! the Bridegroom comes;
 Arise and take your lamps! Alleluia!
 Awake, His kingdom is at hand;
 Go forth, go forth to meet your Lord!

EASTER.

127

All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Matt. xxviii : 18.

Up, ye Christians, join in singing,
 And praises to our Saviour bringing,
 For risen is the Conqueror.
 Lo! His march is now undoubted,
 And all the powers of death are routed;

Lo! open lies the sepulchre.
 O fair and glorious beam!
 O joy in fullest stream! Alleluia!
 With hero-might He wins the fight,
 And scatters all the hosts of night.

ASCENSION.

128

Thou hast ascended high: thou hast led captivity captive. Ps. lxxviii: 18.

Jesus, Lord, our Captain glorious!
 O'er sin, and death, and hell victorious,
 Wisdom and might to Thee belong.
 We confess, proclaim, adore Thee,
 We bow the knee, we fall before Thee;
 Thy love henceforth shall be our song.
 The cross meanwhile we bear,
 The crown ere long to wear. Alleluia!
 Thy reign extend, world without end,
 Let praise from all to Thee ascend!

And bowed the heavens most high;
And underneath His feet He cast
The darkness of the sky.
- 2 On Cherub and on Cherubin.
Full royally He rode;
And on the wings of all the winds
Came flying all abroad.

Their fury to restrain;

For evermore shall reign.
- 4 The Lord will give His people strength
Thereby they shall increase;
And He will bless his chosen flock
With everlasting peace.
- 5 Give glory to His blessed Name,

Upon His holy Throne. Dox. IV.

Behold I stand at the door and knock. Rev. iii : 20.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 O how shall I receive Thee,
How greet Thee, Lord, aright!
All nations long to see Thee,
My hope, my heart's delight!
O, kindle, Lord, most holy,
Thy lamp within my breast,
To do, in spirit lowly,
All that may please Thee best. | 3 Love caused Thy incarnation,
Love brought Thee down to me;
Thy thirst for my salvation
Procured my liberty:
O, love beyond all telling!
That led Thee to embrace
In love all love excelling,
Our lost and fallen race! |
| 2 Thy Zion palms is strewing,
And branches fresh and fair:
My heart, its powers renewing,
An anthem shall prepare:
My soul puts off her sadness
Thy glories to proclaim;
With all her strength and gladness
She fain would serve Thy name. | 4 O, this blest truth remember
All ye who sit in gloom;
Within your hearts' best chamber
For this dear guest make room.
He only who can cheer you,
Is standing at the door;
He brings His pity near you,
And bids you weep no more. |

all nations shall call him blessed. Ps. lxxii: 17.

- 1 Hail to the Lord's anointed,
King David's Lord and Son!
Hail, in the time appointed,
His reign on earth begun!
He comes to break oppression,
To set the captive free;
To take away transgression,
And rule in equity.
- 2 He shall come down like showers
Upon the fruitful earth;
And love, joy, hope, like flowers,
Spring in His path to birth:
Before Him on the mountains
Shall peace, the herald, go;
And righteousness, in fountains,
From hill to valley flow.
- 3 Kings shall fall down before Him,
And gold and incense bring;
All nations shall adore Him,
His praise all people sing;
With offerings of devotion,
Ships from the isles shall meet
To pour the wealth of ocean
In tribute at His feet.

 A seed in weakness sown,
 Whose fruit shall spread and flourish
 And shake like Lebanon.
- 5 O'er every foe victorious

133 Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in. Ps. xxiv: 7.

i Lift up your heads, ye mighty gates,
Behold! the King of Glory waits!
The King of kings is drawing near,
The Saviour of the world is here;
'Tis life and healing He doth bring,
Wherefore rejoice and gladly sing
Praise, O my God, to Thee!
How wise is Thy decree!

- 2 The Lord is just, a helper tried,
Mercy is ever at His side;
His kingly crown is holiness;
His sceptre, help in our distress;
The end of all our woe He brings;
Wherefore the earth is glad and sings
Praise, O my God, to Thee!
How great Thy victory!
- 3 O, blest the land, the city blest,
Where Christ the ruler is confessed!
O, happy hearts and happy homes
To whom this King in triumph comes!
The cloudless Sun of joy He is,
Who bringeth pure delight and bliss;
Praise, O my God, to Thee!
My comfort Thou shalt be.
- 4 Fling wide the portals of your heart;
Make it a temple set apart
From earthly use, for heaven's employ,
Adorned with prayer, and love, and joy;
So shall your Sovereign enter in,
And new and nobler life begin.
Praise, O my God, be Thine,
For word and deed divine.
- 5 Redeemer, come: I open wide
My heart to Thee; here, Lord, abide:
Let me Thine inner presence feel,
Thy grace and love in me reveal;
Thy Holy Spirit guide us on Until our glorious goal is won.
Eternal praise and fame,
O Saviour, to Thy Name!

134 And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots. Isa. xi: 1.

- 1 How bright appears the morning-star
 With mercy beaming from afar.
 The host of heaven rejoices!
 O righteous Branch! O Jesse's Rod!
 Thou Son of Man, and Son of God!
 We, too, will lift our voices.
 Jesu! Jesu!
 Holy, holy! thrice most holy!
 Draw Thou near us:
 Great Emanuel! stoop and hear us.
- 2 Though circled by the hosts on high,
 He deigned to cast a pitying eye
 Upon His helpless creature:
 The whole creation's Head and Lord,
 By highest seraphim adored,
 Assumed our very nature:
 Jesu! grant us,
 By Thy Spirit to inherit
 Thy salvation:
 Hear, O hear our supplication.

- 3 Rejoice, ye heavens! thou earth, reply!
 With praise, ye mortals, fill the sky!
 For this His incarnation!
 Incarnate God, put forth Thy power,
 Ride on, ride on, great Conqueror,
 Till all know Thy salvation!
 Amen, amen!
 Alleluia, Alleluia!
 Praise be given
 Evermore, by earth and heaven.

 In Satan's bondage held;
 The gates of brass before Him burst,
 The iron fetters yield.

 To bless the humble poor.

Joyful and triumphant,

Sing in exultation,
Sing, all ye citizens of heaven above;
Glory to God

Poor and in the manger,

Who would not love Thee,
Loving us so dearly?

On earth peace, good will to men. Luke ii: 14.

- 1 Hail, Thou long-expected Jesus,
Born to set Thy people free;
From our fears and sins release us,
Let us find our rest in Thee!
- 2 Israel's strength and consolation,
Hope of all the saints Thou art;
Dear desire of every nation,
Joy of every longing heart.

Born a child,—and yet a King;
Born to reign in us forever,—

144 Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men. Luke ii: 14.

1 Hark! the herald angels sing
 Glory to the new-born King;
 Peace on earth, and mercy mild,
 God and sinners reconciled!
 Joyful, all ye nations, rise,
 Join the triumph of the skies;
 With th' angelic host proclaim,
 Christ is born in Bethlehem!
 Hark! the herald angels sing
 Glory to the new-born King.

2 Christ, by highest heaven adored,
 Christ, the everlasting Lord,
 Late in time behold him come
 Offspring of a virgin's womb!
 Veiled in flesh the Godhead see,
 Hail the incarnate Deity!
 Pleased as man with man to dwell,
 Jesus, our Emmanuel.
 Hark! the herald angels sing
 Glory to the new-born King.

3 Hail! the heav'n-born Prince of peace!
 Hail! the Sun of Righteousness!
 Light and life to all He brings,
 Risen with healing in His wings.
 Mild He lays His glory by,
 Born that man no more may die:
 Born to raise the sons of earth,
 Born to give them second birth.
 Hark! The herald angels sing
 Glory to the new-born King.

Suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest. Luke ii : 13, 14.

- 1 Hark ! what mean those holy voices,
 Sweetly sounding through the skies ?
 Lo ! the angelic host rejoices,
 Heavenly alleluias rise.
 Listen to the wond'rous story,
 Which they chant in hymns of joy :—
 Glory in the highest, glory,
 Glory be to God on high !
- 2 Peace on earth, good-will from heav'n,
 Thus they sing with harps of gold ;
 Christ is born, the Son is given,
 Of the prophets long foretold.
 Haste, ye mortals, to adore Him,
 Heaven and earth His praises bring ;
 Men and angels fall before Him,
 Hail your Saviour, Lord, and King.

147 Unto you is born this day in the city of David, a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord.
 Luke ii: 11.

- 1 Christians! awake, salute the happy morn,
 Whereon the Saviour of mankind was born;
 Rise to adore the mystery of love,
 Which hosts of angels chanted from above;
 With them the joyful tidings first begun
 Of God Incarnate and the Virgin's Son.

- 2 Then to the watchful shepherds it was told,
 Who heard th' angelic herald's voice: Behold,
 I bring good tidings of a Saviour's birth,
 To you and all the nations upon earth!
 This day hath God fulfilled His promised word;
 This day is born a Saviour, Christ the Lord.

- 3 He spake: and straightway the celestial choir
 In hymns of joy, unknown before, conspire;
 The praises of redeeming love they sang,
 And heaven's whole orb with hallelujah's rang;
 God's highest glory was their anthem still,
 Peace upon earth, and unto men good will!

- 4 To Bethlehem straight th' enlightened shepherds ran,
 To see the wonder God had wrought for man;
 Then to their flocks, still praising God, return.
 While their glad hearts with holy rapture burn;
 To all, the joyful tidings they proclaim,
 The first apostles of the Saviour's Name.

- 5 O may we keep and ponder in our mind
 God's wondrous love in saving lost mankind!
 Trace we the Babe, who hath retrieved our loss,
 From the poor manger to the bitter cross;
 Tread in His steps, assisted by His grace,
 Till man's first heavenly state again takes place.

Shout the glad tidings, exultingly sing,

How His people with joy everlasting are crowned.
Shout the glad tidings, exultingly sing;

He hath raised up an horn of salvation for us, as he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets. Luke ii: 69, 70.

1 O Wonder amazing!
At earth's midnight hour
The ages are gazing
In awe at its power;
The great secret telling,
How anguish is stilled,
The evil dispelling:
The Word is fulfilled.

2 O hearts that have carried
Your sorrows untold,
The Helper that tarried
Come here and behold!

What Prophets have spoken,
The trial ensures,
By tortures unbroken,
'Tis Love that endures.

3 O love, ceasing never,
From Thee what can part?
What height or depth sever
From Thy bleeding heart?
Now opens the portal,
O blest Jesu mine!
Of mansions immortal,
Of mercy divine.

And the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us. John i: 14.

- 1 All praise to Thee, eternal Lord,
Clothed in garb of flesh and blood ;
Choosing a manger for Thy throne,
While worlds on worlds are Thine alone.
Alleluia.
- 2 Once did the skies before Thee bow ;
Mother-arms contain Thee now ;
Angels who did in Thee rejoice
Now listen for Thine Infant voice.
Alleluia.
- 3 A little Child, Thou art our guest,
Yet by angels God confessed ;
Forlorn and lowly is Thy birth,
That we may rise to heaven from earth.
Alleluia.
- 4 Thou comest in the darksome night
That we may be sons of light,
To make us, in the realms divine,
Like all Thine angels, round Thee shine.
Alleluia.
- 5 All this for us Thy love hath done ;
Thus to Thee our love is won ;
For this we tune our cheerful lays,
And shout our thanks in ceaseless praise.

Thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.

Matt. i: 21.

- 1 How sweet the Name of Jesus sounds!
The Christian's soul it cheers;
It soothes his sorrows, heals his wounds,
And drives away his fears.
- 2 It makes the wounded spirit whole,
And calms the troubled breast:
'Tis manna to the hungry soul,
And to the weary, rest.
- 3 Dear Name! the rock on which I build,
My shield and hiding place,
My never-failing treasury, filled
With boundless stores of grace.
- 4 Though weak the effort of my heart,
And cold my warmest thought,
Yet, when I see Thee as Thou art,
I'll praise Thee as I ought.
- 5 Till then I would Thy love proclaim
With every fleeting breath;
And may the music of Thy Name
Refresh my soul in death.

My Prophet, Priest, and King,
My Lord, my Life, my Way, my End!

The star which they saw in the East went before them. Matt. ii: 9.

1 Lo, the pilgrim Magi
 Leave their royal halls,
 And with eager footsteps
 Speed to Bethlehem's walls;
 As they onward journey,
 Faith, which firmly rests
 Upon hope unswerving,
 Triumphs in their breasts.

2 Oh, what joys ecstatic
 Thrilled each heart, from far,
 When, to guide their footsteps
 Gleamed that beacon star;
 O'er that home so holy,
 Pouring down its ray,
 Where the cradled Infant
 With His mother lay.

3 Costly pomp and pageant
 Earthly kings array;
 He, a mightier Monarch,
 Hath a nobler sway;

Straw may be His pallet,
 Mean His garb may be,
 Yet with power transcendent
 He all hearts can free.

4 At His crib they worship,
 Prostrate on the floor;
 And their God, there present,
 In that Babe adore:
 Let us to that Infant,
 As their followers true,
 Hearts with faith o'erflowing
 Give, our tribute due;—

5 Holiest Love presenting,
 Gold unto our King;
 To the Man pure bodies,
 Myrrh-like, chastely bring;
 Unto Him, as incense,
 Vow and prayer address;
 So, with meetest off'rings
 Him our God confess.

157 The glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together. Isa. xl 5.

1 All ye Gentile lands, awake !

 Heralding a morn divine ;
 Telling God hath called to mind
 Those who long in darkness pined.

2 Lo ! the glory of the Lord
 Hath aris'n on us to-day ;
 We have seen the light outpoured
 That must surely drive away
 All things that to night belong,
 All the sad earth's woe and wrong.

3 Thy arising, Lord, shall fill
 All my thoughts in sorrow's hour ;
 Thy arising, Lord, shall still
 All my dread of death's dark
 pow'r ;
 Through my smiles and through my tears,
 Still Thy light, O Lord, appears.

4 Let me, Lord, in peace depart
 From all evil unto Thee ;
 Where Thyself sole brightness art,
 Thou hast kept a place for me ;
 In the shining city there,
 Crowns of light Thy saints shall

1 O Love, how deep! how broad! how high!

It fills the heart with ecstasy,
That God, th' eternal Word, should take
Our mortal form for mortals' sake.

2 He sent no angel of our race
Of higher or of lower place,
But wore the robe of human frame
Himself, and to this lost world came.

3 For us He was baptized, and bore
His holy fast, and hungered sore;
For us temptation sharp He knew;
For us the tempter overthrew.

4 For us He prayed, for us He taught,
For us His daily works He wrought,
By words, and signs, and actions, thus
Still seeking not Himself, but us.

5 For us to wicked men betrayed,
Scourged, mocked, in purple robe arrayed,
He bore the shameful cross and death,
For us at length gave up His breath.

6 For us He rose from death again,
For us He went on high to reign,
For us He sends His spirit here
To guide, to strengthen, and to cheer.

On Thy higher help relying
May we now their burden share,
Bringing all our offerings meet
Suppliants at Thy mercy-seat. | 4 | So may sickness, sin, and sadness
To Thy healing virtue yield,
Till the sick and sad, in gladness,
Rescued, ransomed, cleansed, healed,
One in Thee together meet;
Grateful at Thy mercy-seat. |

The musical score is written for two staves, Treble and Bass, in 4/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The melody is primarily in the Treble staff, while the Bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment. The piece concludes with the text 'A- MEN.' written below the final measure of the Treble staff.

Father, forgive them, they know not what they do. Luke xxiii : 34.

- 1 What grace, O Lord, and beauty shone
Around Thy steps below ;
What patient love was seen in all
Thy life and death of woe.
- 2 For ever on Thy burdened heart
A weight of sorrow hung ;
Yet no ungentle, murmuring word
Escaped Thy silent tongue.
- 3 Thy foes might hate, despise, revile,
Thy friends unfaithful prove ;
Unwearied in forgiveness still,
Thy heart could only love.
- 4 Oh, give us hearts to love like Thee !
Like Thee, O Lord, to grieve
Far more for others than for all
The wrongs that we receive.
- 5 One with Thyself, may every eye,
In us, Thy children, see
The gentleness and grace that spring
From union, Lord ! with Thee. Dox. IV.

Look down in wonder now to see

O Saviour meek, pursue Thy road

Bow Thy meek head to mortal

Then take, O Lord, Thy power and

He is despised and rejected of men ; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief. Isa. liii : 3.

- 1 O sacred Head sore wounded,
 With grief and shame weighed down,
 By sinful men surrounded
 With thorns, their only crown ;
 Can sorrow mar thy grandeur,
 Can death thy bloom deflower,
 O Face divine, whose splendor
 The hosts of heaven adore ?
- 2 Acknowledge me, my Keeper,
 My Shepherd, own me Thine,
 Thou Fount of blessings deeper
 Than deepest want of mine !
 Thy love full oft hath fed me
 With milk and angels' food,
 Thy spirit still hath led me
 The way of heavenly good.

- 3 What language shall I borrow
 To thank Thee, dearest Friend,
 For this divinest sorrow
 And pity without end!
 O grant that I may ever
 Abide, dear Lord, in Thee,
 Nor let e'en death e'er sever
 Thine arms of love from me.

Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.
 John xv: 13.

- 1 When I survey the wondrous cross
 On which the Prince of glory died,
 My richest gain I count but loss,
 And pour contempt on all my pride.
- 2 See, from His head, His hands, His feet,
 Sorrow and love flow mingled down;
 Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
 Or thorns compose so rich a crown?
- 3 Were the whole realm of nature mine,
 That were a present far too small;
 Love so amazing, so divine,
 Demands my soul, my life, my all.

 Unto John her care commending,
 Naming him henceforth her son.
 Bidding him: "Behold thy mother";
 Bidding men "Love one another;
 Prove your love; as I have done." 3 To his home the mother leading,
 Still her tears to us are pleading,
 Lest we should forget her care: | She the faith that needs protecting,
 Ours the love that needs perfecting
 That we may true succour bear. 4 O blest Saviour, now in glory,
 While I sing Thy passion's story
 May the sword pierce my dull heart.
 May Thy love all foes forgiving,
 And Thy Word of endless living
 Give me in Thy death a part. 5 Let me never hear Thee saying
 "Thou, too, art thy Lord betraying
 With the traitor's murderous kiss."
 Let me heed Thy voice from heaven:—
 "Be thy life for others given;
 Greater love hath none than this." |

I will sing unto the Lord, for he hath triumphed gloriously. Exod. xv: 1.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 Come, ye faithful, raise the strain
Of triumphant gladness;
God hath brought His Israel
Into joy from sadness;
Loosed from Pharaoh's bitter yoke
Jacob's sons and daughters;
Led them with unmoistened foot
Through the Red Sea waters. | 3 Now the Queen of seasons, bright
With the Day of splendor,
With the royal Feast of Feasts,
Comes its joy to render;
Comes to glad Jerusalem,
Which with true affection
Welcomes in unwearied strains
Jesus' resurrection. |
| 2 'Tis the spring of souls to-day;
Christ hath burst His prison,
And from three days' sleep in death
As a sun hath risen:
All the winter of our sins,
Long and dark, is flying
From His Light, to Whom we give
Laud and praise undying. | 4 Neither might the gates of death
Nor the tomb's dark portal,
Nor the watchers, nor the seal,
Hold Thee as a mortal:
But to-day amidst the Twelve
Thou didst stand, bestowing
That Thy peace, which evermore
Passeth human knowing. |

I will sing unto the Lord, for he hath triumphed gloriously. Exod. xv: 1.

- 1 Lift up, lift up your voices now !
The whole wide world rejoices now ;
The Lord hath triumphed gloriously,
The Lord shall reign victoriously !
- 2 In vain with stone the cave they barred ;
In vain the watch kept ward and guard
Majestic from the spoilt tomb,
In pomp of triumph Christ is come !
- 3 He binds in chains the ancient foe ;
A countless host He frees from woe,
And heav'n's high portal open flies,
For Christ has risen, and man shall rise.
- 4 And all He did, and all He bare,
He gives us as our own to share ;
And hope and joy and peace begin,
For Christ has won, and man shall win.

And lead through death to realms of light ;
We safely pass where Thou hast trod ;
Through death we rise to Thee our God.

Awake and sing, all ye that dwell in the dust. Is. xxvi: 19.

1 Arise, all souls, arise!

The watch is past;

A glory breaks above

The cloud at last.

There comes a rushing, mighty wind again!

The breath of God is still the life of men;

The day ascending fills the waiting skies,

All souls, arise!

2 It comes — the breath of God —

Through all the skies!

To live — to breathe with Him,

All souls, arise!

Open the windows toward the shining East;

Call in the guests, and spread a wider feast,

The Lord pours forth as sacramental wine

His breath divine!

- 3 It comes — a larger life,
A deeper breath;
Arise, all souls, arise,
And conquer death!

Spread forth the feast — the dew and manna fall
And angels whisper, "Drink ye of it, all; —
Drink of His truth, and feed upon His love,
With saints above!"

- 4 Arise, all souls, arise
To meet your Guest!
His light flames from the East
Unto the West.

The Lord of earth and heaven is at the door,
He comes to break His bread to all His poor;
Arise and serve with Him, — His moment flies;
All souls, arise!

The hearts that Him adore. | O flame celestial, cleansing all

Join, O man, the deathless voices,
Child of God, lift up thy head!
Patriarchs from the distant ages,
Saints all longing for their heaven,
Prophets, psalmists, seers and sages,

When it breaks upon the shore.
- Cho.* Alleluia! for the Lord
God omnipotent shall reign:
Alleluia! let the word
Echo round the earth and main.

From the depths unto the skies:
Wakes above, beneath, around,
All creation's harmonies.
Alleluia! etc.

For the wondrous work is done:
Raise the song of glory high,
To the Lord, the Mighty One.

202 They fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and they sang a new song. Rev. v: 8, 9.

1 Golden harps are sounding,
 Angel voices ring,
 Pearly gates are opened,
 Opened for the King.
 Christ, the King of Glory,
 Jesus, King of Love,
 Is gone up in triumph
 To His throne above.

Cho. All His work is ended,
 Joyfully we sing;
 Jesus hath ascended!
 Glory to our King!

2 He who came to save us,
 He who lived and died,
 Over all triumphant,
 Now is glorified;

Never more to suffer,
 Never more to die,
 Jesus, King of Glory,
 Is gone up on high.
 All His work is ended, etc.

3 Caring for His children
 In that blessed place,
 Calling them to glory,
 Sending them His grace;
 His bright home preparing,
 Faithful ones, for you;
 Jesus ever liveth,
 Ever loveth too.
 All His work is ended, etc.

Thou hast ascended on high; thou hast led captivity captive. Ps. lxxviii: 18.

- 1 Ye Christians, tune your noblest strains,
Your Lord, to heaven ascended, sing;
And echo to the heavenly plains
The triumphs of your God and King.
- 2 In hymns of grateful rapture tell
How He subdued your mightiest foes,
Disarmed the powers of death and hell,
And led them captive when He rose.
- 3 His Human Nature now Divine,
From Him the springs of blessing flow:
Transcendent glories round Him shine,
And beam through heaven on men below.
- 4 Then let your praises mount above,
Jesus your God and Saviour own,
Adore His vast, redeeming love,
Proclaim Him God, and God alone.

204 After the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven. Mark xvi: 19.

1 Rise, glorious Conqueror, rise,
 Into Thy native skies;
 Assume Thy right;
 And where in many a fold
 The clouds are backward rolled
 Pass through those gates of gold,
 And reign in light!

2 Enter, incarnate God!
 No feet but Thine have trod
 The serpent down:
 Blow the full trumpets, blow!
 Wider your portals throw!
 Saviour triumphant, go
 And take Thy crown!

3 Lion of Judah! Hail!
 And let Thy Name prevail
 From age to age;
 Lord of the rolling years,
 Claim for Thine own the spheres,
 For Thou hast bought with tears
 Thy heritage! Dox. XVI.

I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you forever. John xiv: 16.

His tender last farewell,
A Guide, a Comforter, bequeathed
With us to dwell.
- 2 He came in semblance of a Dove
With sheltering wings outspread,
The holy balm of peace and love
On earth to shed.

A gracious, willing guest,
While He can find one humble heart
Wherein to rest.

Soft as the breath of even,
That checks each thought, that calms each fear,

If ye, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him. Luke xi : 13.

With all Thy quickening powers,
Kindle a flame of sacred love
In these cold hearts of ours.
- 2 See how we grovel here below,
Fond of these earthly toys;
Our souls, how heavily they go
To reach eternal joys!
- 3 In vain we tune our formal songs,
In vain we strive to rise;
Hosannas languish on our tongues,
And our devotion dies.
- 4 Blest Lord, and shall we ever live

213 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. Acts ii : 2.

1 Blow on, Thou mighty Wind,
The cloven tongues descending,
Fanned by Thy dewy breath, shall blaze and burn,
A sacred flame unending.
Soon shall that fire behold
Vile earth transformed to fine wrought gold,
And gloom of shad'wy night
That flame shall kindle into light.
||:Therefore, Thou mighty Wind, blow on.:||

2 Blow on, Thou mighty Wind,
And waft to realms unbounded
The notes of Faith and Hope, and tender Love,
The Gospel trump hath sounded.
Those sweetly piercing tones,
That charm all woes and tears and groans,
Through earth and sea and sky,
Upon Thy rushing wings shall fly
||:Therefore, Thou mighty Wind, blow on.:||

3 Blow on, Thou mighty Wind,
For tempest tossed and lonely
The Church upon the rolling billows rides,
And trusts in Thy breath only.
She spreads her swelling sails
For Thee to fill with favoring gales
Till, through the stormy sea,
Thou bring her home where she would be :
||:Therefore, Thou mighty Wind, blow on.:||

4 Blow on, Thou mighty Wind,
On hearts contrite and broken,
And bring in quick'ning pow'r Thy gracious words
That once on earth were spoken.
Lo! then, from death and sleep,
The list'ning soul to life shall leap,
Then love shall reign below
And joy the whole wide world o'er-flow :

- 2 See a long race thy spacious courts adorn,
See future sons and daughters yet unborn,
In crowding ranks on every side arise,
Imploping life, impatient for the skies.
- 3 See barbarous nations at thy gates attend,
Walk in thy light and in thy temple bend.
See thy bright altars thronged with prostrate kings,
While every land its joyous tribute brings.

Rocks fall to dust, and mountains melt away;
But fixed His word, His saving power remains;
Thy realm shall last, thy own Messiah reigns.

219 And he showed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, having the glory of God.
Rev. xxi : 10, 11.

- 1 Light's abode, celestial Salem,

Brighter than the heart can fancy,
Mansion of the highest King,
O how glorious are the praises
Which of Thee the prophets sing.

Decorated gloriously ;
And with pearls thy portals glitter,

The Lamb is the light thereof. Rev. xxi: 23.

- 1 The light! the light! the heav'nly light!
 The holy light I see!
 Revealing Jesus to my sight,
 And heav'nly charity.

Cho. Oh, the light! transforming light!
 That Jesus sheds on me;
 He makes my path of service bright,

- 2 The heav'nly Bride, with light Divine,
 Descends from God to men;
 Her robes with holy splendor shine,—
 The Church revives again. Cho.

- 3 No need of lamp, nor sun, nor moon,
 Within this city bright;
 The Lamb gives light above the noon,
 In Him there is no night. Cho.

- 4 Like unto jasper stone most bright,
 The City's walls appear;
 And all her gates of pearl invite
 To enter without fear. Cho.

- 5 How blessèd is the marriage feast!
 The supper of the Lamb!
 'Tis union with my King and Priest,
 The New Jerusalem! Cho.

And the wall of the city had twelve foundations. Rev. xxi: 14.

1 Rich in mercy, Jesus reigns.
 Angels own no other King;
 Crown Him, mortals, in your strains,
 While His matchless grace you sing!

Angels wake their lofty lays,
 Kindled from celestial fires;
 Humbler spirits bid His praise
 Sweetly flow from silver lyres.

2 Catch, O catch the pleasing strain!
 Gratitude demands the song:
 Jesus builds His Church again;
 Lay her deep foundations strong.

Truth divine her walls supports:
 Love has paved her streets of gold:
 See her jasper towers and courts!
 Gates of pearl that never fold!

3 Pilgrims, enter and rejoice!
 Here your Saviour holds His throne:

'Tis the city of His choice:
 'Tis the Church He calls His own.
 Precious gems, of various hue,
 Brightly shine on every side;
 Come, the splendid glories view!
 Come, and in His courts abide!

223 And they shall call thee, The city of the Lord, the Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

Isa. lx: 14.

- 1 Triumphant Zion, lift thy head
From dust, and darkness, and the dead;
Though humbled long, awake at length,
And gird thee with thy Saviour's strength.
- 2 Put all thy beauteous garments on,
And let thine excellence be known;
Decked in the robes of righteousness,
Thy glories shall the world confess.
- 3 No more shall foes unclean invade,
And fill thy hallowed walls with dread;
No more shall sin's insulting host
Their victory and thy sorrows boast.

His hand thy ruin shall repair;
Nor will thy watchful monarch cease
To guard thee in eternal peace.

 Make her watchmen strong and bold,
 Fence her round — Thy peaceful fold:

 The marriage-day
 Has come ; Lift up thy head,
 Put on thy bridal-robe,
 The feast is spread.
- 2 Shake off earth's dust,
 And wash thy weary feet ;
 Arise, make haste, go forth,
 The Bridegroom greet.
 Sing the new song !
 Thy triumph has begun ;
 Thy tears are wiped away,
 Thy night is done !

- 1 Arise, O Lord, and shine
In all Thy saving might,
And prosper each design
To spread Thy glorious light:
Let healing streams of mercy flow,
That all the earth Thy truth may know.
- 2 Oh, bring the nations near,
That they may sing Thy praise;
Let all the people hear
And learn Thy holy ways:
Reign, mighty God, assert Thy cause,
And govern by Thy righteous laws.
- 3 Put forth Thy glorious power:
The nations then shall see,
And earth present her store,
In converts born to Thee:
God, our own God, His Church shall bless,
And earth be filled with righteousness.

229

The Lord shall be King over all the earth: in that day shall there be one Lord, and his name one. Zech. xiv: 9.

- 1 From Greenland's icy mountains,
From India's coral strand,
Where Afric's sunny fountains
Roll down their golden sand;
From many an ancient river,
From many a palmy plain,
They call us to deliver
Their land from error's chain.

- 2 What though the spicy breezes
Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle;
Though every prospect pleases,
And only man is vile:
In vain with lavish kindness
The gifts of God are strewn;
For him who in his blindness
Bows down to wood and stone.
- 3 Shall we whose souls are lighted
With wisdom from on high;
Shall we to men benighted
The lamp of life deny?
Salvation, O salvation,
The joyful sound proclaim,
Till each remotest nation
Has learnt Messiah's name.
- 2 Lift up thy voice, O watchman!
And shout, from Zion's towers,
Thy hallelujah chorus,—
"The victory shall be ours!"
The Lord shall build up Zion
In glory and renown,
And Jesus, Judah's Lion,
Shall wear His rightful crown.
- 3 Break forth in hymns of gladness;
O waste Jerusalem!
Let songs, instead of sadness,
Thy jubilee proclaim;
The Lord, in strength victorious,
Upon thy foes hath trod;
Behold, O earth! the glorious
Salvation of our God!

Dox. XIII.

- 4 Waft, waft, ye winds, His story,
And you, ye waters, roll,
Till, like a sea of glory,
It spreads from pole to pole:
Until the ransomed nations
Unite in joyous strain
To sing of God, their Saviour,
The everlasting reign!
- 231 Speak every man truth to his neighbor.
Zech. viii: 16.
- 1 The light pours down from heaven,
And enters where it may;
The eyes of all earth's children
Arecheered with one bright day.
So let the mind's true sunshine
Be spread o'er earth as free,
And fill men's waiting spirits,
As waters fill the sea.

Dox. XIII.

230 How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace. Isa. lii: 7.

- 1 How beauteous on the mountains,
The feet of him that brings,
Like streams from living fountains,
Good tidings of good things;
That publisheth salvation,
And jubilee release,
To every tribe and nation,
God's reign of joy and peace!
- 2 Then let each human spirit
Enjoy the vision bright;
The truth which comes from heaven
Shall spread like heaven's own light;
Till earth becomes God's temple;
And every human heart
Shall join in one great service,
Each happy in his part.

Dox. XIII.

232

How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth! Isa. lii: 7.

- 1 How beauteous are their feet
Who stand on Zion's hill,—
Who bring salvation on their tongues
And words of peace reveal!
- 2 How charming is their voice,—
So sweet the tidings are;
Zion, behold thy Saviour King;
He reigns and triumphs here.
- 3 How happy are our ears,
That hear the joyful sound,
Which kings and prophets waited for,
And sought, but never found.
- 4 How blessèd are our eyes,
That see this heavenly light;]
Prophets and priests desired it long,
But died without the sight.
- 5 The watchmen join their voice,

Jerusalem breaks forth in songs,
And deserts learn the joy.
- 6 The Lord makes bare His arm
Through all the earth abroad:
Let every nation now behold
Their Saviour and their God.

Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. Matt. xxv: 40.

- 1 We give Thee but Thine own,
Whate'er the gift may be;
All that we have is Thine alone,
A trust, O Lord, from Thee.
- 2 May we Thy bounties thus
As stewards true receive,
And gladly, as Thou blessest us,
To Thee our first-fruits give.
- 3 O! hearts are bruised and dead,
And homes are bare and cold,
And lambs, for whom the Shepherd bled,
Are straying from the fold.
- 4 To comfort and to bless,
To find a balm for woe,
To tend the lone and fatherless
Is angels' work below.
- 5 The captive to release,
To God the lost to bring,
To teach the way of life and peace,
It is a Christ-like thing.

Whate'er for Thine we do, O Lord,

And in thy last departing hour,
Angels shall visit thine abode,

Because thou hast been my help, therefore in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.

Ps. lxxiii : 7.

- 1 O King of kings, beneath Thy wings
My soul would still repose;
My refuge sure, my strength secure,
Against surrounding foes!
- 2 Thy wondrous ways to grateful praise,
Shall move my heart and tongue;
By hosts above Thy deeds of love
In joyful notes are sung.
- 3 May I proclaim Thy sacred name,
By living, Lord, to Thee!
Then shall I rise above the skies,
And Thy perfections see.
- 4 O who can tell what glories dwell
Around the eternal throne!
There joys divine, that ne'er decline,
Are by the righteous known. Dox. IV.

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Ps. xlii: 1.

- 1 God is the refuge of His saints
When storms of sharp distress invade;
Ere we can offer our complaints,
Behold Him present with His aid.
- 2 There is a stream, whose gentle flow
Supplies the city of our God:
Life, love, and joy still gliding through,
And watering our divine abode.
- 3 That sacred stream, Thy holy Word,
Supports our faith, our fear controls:
Sweet peace Thy promises afford,
And give new strength to fainting souls.
- 4 Zion enjoys her Saviour's love,
Secure against a threatening hour;
Nor can her firm foundation move,
Built on His truth, and armed with power. Dox. II.

270

Lord, thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations. Ps. xc: 1.

- 1 O Lord, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home:
- 2 Beneath the shadow of Thy throne
Thy people dwell secure;
Sufficient is Thine arm alone,
And our defence is sure.
- 3 Before the earth in order stood,
Or men had learned Thy name,
From everlasting Thou art God,
To endless years the same.
- 4 O Lord, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come;
Be Thou our guard while troubles last.
And our eternal home! Dox. IV.

He hath done all things well. Mark vii: 37.

- 1 Whate'er my God ordains is right;
 His will is ever just;
 Howe'er He order now my cause,
 I will be still, and trust.
 He is my God,
 Though dark my road;
 He holds me that I shall not fall,
 Wherefore to Him I leave it all.
- 2 Whate'er my God ordains is right;
 He never will deceive:
 He leads me by the proper path,
 And so to Him I cleave,
 And take content
 What He hath sent:
 His hand can turn my griefs away,
 And patiently I wait His day.

- 3 Whate'er my God ordains is right ;
 Though I the cup must drink
 That bitter seems to my faint heart,
 I will not fear nor shrink :
 Tears pass away
 With dawn of day :
 Sweet comfort yet shall fill my heart,
 And pain and sorrow shall depart.
- 4 Whate'er my God ordains is right ;
 Here will I take my stand :
 Though sorrow, need, or death make earth
 For me a desert land :
 My Father's care
 Is round me there :
 He holds me that I shall not fall,
 And so to Him I leave it all.

Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon the earth that I desire beside thee. Ps. lxxiii: 25.

- 1 Whom have we, Lord, in heaven Ne'er may our souls an object know, but Thee, So precious as Thy love.
 And whom on earth beside?
 Where else for succor can we flee,
 Or in whose strength confide?
- 2 Thou art our portion here below,
 Our promised rest above ;
- 3 Thou, Lord, wilt be our guide
 through life,
 And help and strength supply ;
 Sustain us in earth's final strife,
 And welcome us on high.

273

My soul is even as a weaned child. Ps. cxxxi: 2.

- 1 Quiet, Lord, my froward heart ;
 Make me teachable and mild,
 Upright, simple, free from art,—
 Make me as a little child :
 From distrust and envy free ;
 Pleased with all that pleases Thee.
- 2 What Thou shalt to-day provide,
 Let me as a child receive ;
 What to-morrow may betide,
 Calmly to Thy wisdom leave.
 'Tis enough that Thou wilt care :
 Why should I the burden bear?
- 3 As a little child relies
 On a care beyond his own ;
 Knows he's neither strong nor wise,
 Fears to stir a step alone,—
 Let me thus with Thee abide,
 As my Father, Guard, and Guide.

274 Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.
Ps. cxxxix: 3.

- 1 In all my vast concerns with Thee,
In vain my soul would try
To shun Thy presence, Lord, or flee
The notice of Thine eye.
Thine all-surrounding sight surveys
My rising and my rest:
My public walks, my private ways,
The secrets of my breast.
- 2 My thoughts lie open to the Lord,
Before they're formed within:
And ere my lips pronounce the word,
He knows the sense I mean.
Oh, wondrous knowledge, deep and high!
Where can a creature hide?
Within Thy circling arms I lie,
Enclosed on every side.

275

Make you a new heart and a new spirit. Ezek. xviii: 31.

- 1 Lord! when we bend before Thy throne,
And our confessions make,
Teach us to feel the sins we own,
And hate them and forsake.
- 2 Our broken spirits pitying see,
True penitence impart;
And let a healing ray from Thee
Beam peace into each heart.
- 3 When we disclose our wants in prayer,
May we our wills resign,
And not a thought our bosom share
Which is not wholly Thine.
- 4 May faith each weak petition fill,
And waft it to the skies,
And teach our hearts 'tis goodness still
That grants it or denies.

276

Search me, O God, and know my heart ; try me, and know my thoughts ; and see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting. Ps. cxxxix : 23, 24.

- 1 Thou, Lord, by strictest search hast known
My rising up and lying down ;
My secret thoughts are known to Thee,
Known long before conceived by me.
- 2 From Thy all-seeing Spirit, Lord,
What hiding-place does earth afford ?
Or where can I Thy influence shun,
Or whither from Thy presence run ?
- 3 The veil of night is no disguise,
No screen from Thy all-searching eyes ;
Through midnight shades Thou find'st Thy way,
As in the blazing noon of day.
- 4 Search, try, O God, my thoughts and heart,
If mischief lurk in any part ;
Correct me where I go astray
And guide me in Thy perfect way.

277 Let us search, and try our ways, and turn again to the Lord. Lam. iii: 40.

1 My God! permit me not to be
A stranger to myself and Thee:
Amidst ten thousand thoughts I rove
Forgetful of my highest love.

2 Vouchsafe to me Thy guiding light,
To read my heart and mind aright;
My every secret thought explore,
And call my words and actions o'er.

3 Why should my soul be bound to earth,
And thus degrade her heavenly birth?
Why should I cleave to things below,
And from my God and Saviour go?

4 Search, gracious Lord! and try my heart,
And hope and healing peace impart;
From guilt and error set me free,
And guide me safe to heaven and
Thee.

278 O Israel, return unto the Lord thy God;
for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity.
Hos. xiv: 1.

1 Return, my roving heart, return,
And chase earth's shadowy forms
no more,
O seek thy better needs to learn,
For higher good thy God implore.

2 O holy Lord, whose piercing eye
Distinctly marks each deep recess,
In these sequestered hours draw
nigh,
And with Thy presence fill the place.

3 Through all the windings of my heart,
My search let heavenly wisdom
guide,
And still its radiant beams impart,
Till all be searched and purified.

4 Then, with the visits of Thy love,
Vouchsafe my inmost soul to cheer,
Till every grace shall join to prove
That God has fixed His dwelling there.

279 I will cry unto thee when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I. Ps. lxi: 2.

- 1 When, overwhelmed with grief,
My heart within me dies,
Helpless, and far from all relief,
To heaven I lift mine eyes.
- 2 O lead me to the Rock
That's higher than my head;
And make the covert of Thy wings
My shelter and my shade.
- 3 Within Thy presence, Lord,
Forever I'll abide:
Thou art the tower of my defence,
The refuge where I hide. Dox. V.

280 Arise ye and depart for this is not your rest. Micah ii: 10.

- 1 O where shall rest be found,
Rest for the weary soul?
'Twere vain the ocean's depths to sound,
Or pierce to either pole.
- 2 The world can never give
The bliss for which we sigh;

'Tis not the whole of life to live,
Nor all of death to die.

- 3 Beyond this vale of tears
There is a life above,
Unmeasured by the flight of years,
And all that life is love. Dox. V.

281 The mercy-seat upon the ark.
Ex. xxvi: 34.

- 1 O cease, my wandering soul,
On restless wing to roam;
All this wide world, to either pole,
Has not for thee a home.
- 2 Behold the ark of God,
Behold the open door;
O haste to gain that dear abode,
And rove, my soul, no more.
- 3 There safe thou shalt abide,
There sweet shall be thy rest,
And every longing satisfied,
With full salvation blest.

I am the Almighty God ! walk before me, and be thou perfect. Gen. xvii : 1.

- 1 O for a closer walk with God,
A calm and heavenly frame;
A light to shine upon the road
That leads me to the Lamb.
- 2 Where is the blessedness I knew
When first I saw the Lord ?
Where is the soul-refreshing view
Of Jesus and His Word ?
- 3 What peaceful hours I once enjoyed !
How sweet their memory still !
But they have left an aching void
The world can never fill.
- 4 Return, O holy Dove ; return, ●
Sweet messenger of rest ;
I hate the sins that made Thee mourn,
And drove Thee from my breast.
- 5 The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from Thy throne,
And worship only Thee.
- 6 So shall my walk be close with God,
Calm and serene my frame ;
So purer light shall mark the road

284 Heal me, O Lord, and I shall be

Heal me as I suppliant kneel;
Heal me, and my pardon seal.
- 2 Fresh the wounds that sin hath made;
Hear the prayers I oft have prayed,
And in mercy send me aid.
- 3 Thou the true Physician art;
Thou, O Lord, canst health impart,
Binding up the bleeding heart.
- 4 Other comforters are gone;
Thou canst heal, and Thou alone,
Since on me Thy light hath shone.
- 5 Heal me, then, my Saviour, heal;
Heal me, as I suppliant kneel;
To Thy mercy I appeal.

285 Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy loving kindness. Ps. li: 1.

- 1 Lord, in this Thy mercy's day,
Ere we let it pass away,
On our knees we fall and pray.

- 2 Holy Jesus, grant us tears,
Fill us with heart-searching fears,
Light wherein our guilt appears.
- 3 Lord, on us Thy Spirit pour,
Kneeling lowly at the door,
Ere it close for evermore.
- 4 By Thy night of agony,
By Thy supplicating cry,
By Thy willingness to die,
- 5 By Thy tears of bitter woe
For Jerusalem below,
Let us not Thy grace forego.
- 6 Judge and Saviour of our race,
Grant us, when we see Thy face,
With Thy ransomed ones a place.

From the hardening power of sin,
From all malice and unkindness,
From the pride that lurks within:

Deign, O Father, to receive them! | 3 Vows and longings, hopes and fears,
Broken-hearted sighs and tears,

Love of self and human praise,
Pride of life and lust of eye,

In Thy mercy, Lord, forgive them! |

Repent and turn yourselves from all your transgressions. Ezek. xviii : 30.

- 1 Weary of earth and laden with my sin,
I look at heaven and long to enter in,
But there no evil thing may find a home:
And yet I hear a voice that bids me "Come."
- 2 So vile I am, how dare I hope to stand
In the pure glory of that holy land?
Before the whiteness of that throne appear?
Yet there are hands stretched out to draw me near.
- 3 The while I fain would tread the heavenly way,
Evil is ever with me day by day;
Yet on mine ears the gracious tidings fall,
"Confess, repent, thou shalt be loosed from all."
- 4 It is the voice of Jesus that I hear,
His are the hands stretched out to draw me near,
'Tis He that fighteth for me, He alone
Will guard the way that leadeth to His throne.
- 5 'Twas He who found me on the deathly wild,
And made me heir of heaven, the Father's child,
And day by day, whereby my soul may live,
Gives me the bread of heaven, and will give.
- 6 Naught can I bring, dear Lord, for all I owe,
Yet let my full heart what it can bestow;
Like Mary's gift let my devotion prove,
Forgiven greatly, how I greatly love. Dox. XI.

His name and sign we bear,
O shame, thrice shame upon us,
To keep Him standing there.

2 O Jesus, Thou art knocking ;
And lo, that hand is scarred,
And thorns Thy brow encircle,
And tears Thy face have marred,

O love that passeth knowledge,
So patiently to wait !
O sin that hath no equal,
So fast to bar the gate !

3 O Jesus, Thou art pleading
In accents meek and low,
" I died for you, my children,
And will ye treat me so ? "
O Lord, with shame and sorrow
We open now the door ;

And leave us nevermore !

In our Heavenly Father's breast!
Like the wandering dove, that found
No repose on earth around,
They can to their ark repair,
And enjoy it ever there.

- 3 Happy souls! their praises flow
 Even in the vale of woe;
 Waters in the desert rise,
 Manna feeds them from the skies;
 On they go from strength to strength,
 Till they reach Thy throne at length,
 At Thy feet adoring fall,
 Who hast led them safe through all.
- 4 Lord, be mine this prize to win!
 Guide me through a world of sin:
 Keep me by Thy saving grace;
 Give me at Thy side a place;
 Sun and shield alike Thou art;
 Guide and guard my erring heart!
 Grace and glory flow from Thee;
 Shower, oh, shower them, Lord, on me.

In my distress I called upon the Lord. Ps. xviii: 6.

- 1 Great refuge of the weary soul,
On Thee, when sorrows rise :
On Thee, when waves of trouble roll,
My fainting hope relies.
- 2 To Thee I tell each rising grief,
For Thou alone canst heal :
Thy Word can bring a sure relief,
For every pain I feel.
- 3 O gracious God, where shall I flee ?
Thou art my only trust ;
And still my soul would cleave to Thee,
Though prostrate in the dust.
- 4 Thy mercy seat is open still.
There let my soul retreat :
With humble hope attend Thy will,
And wait before Thy feet. Dox. IV.

303 As the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee. Ps. xlii: 1.

- 1 As pants the hart for cooling streams,
When heated in the chase,
So longs my soul, O God, for Thee,
And Thy refreshing grace.
- 2 For Thee my God — the living God,
My thirsty soul doth pine;
O! when shall I behold Thy face,
Thou Majesty divine!
- 3 I sigh to think of happier days,
When Thou, O Lord, wast nigh;
When every heart was turned to praise,
And none more blest than I.
- 4 Why restless, why cast down, my soul?
Hope still, and thou shalt sing
The praise of Him who is thy God,
Thy Saviour, and thy King. Dox. IV.

304

With thee is the fountain of life. Ps. xxxvi: 9.

- 1 Laboring and heavy-laden,
Wanting help in time of need,
Fainting by the way from hunger,
Bread of Life ! on Thee we feed.
- 2 Thirsting for the springs of water,
That, by love's eternal law,
From the stricken rocks are flowing,
Well of Life ! from Thee we draw.
- 3 In the land of cloud and shadow,
Where no human eye can see,
Light to those who sit in darkness,
Light of Life ! we walk in Thee.
- 4 Strangers upon earth, and pilgrims,
Wearied with the world, and weak ;
By life's many ways bewildered,
Path of Life ! for Thee we seek.
- 5 Vexed with passion's hateful bondage,
Longing, struggling to be free ;
Where Thy loving banner leads us,
Prince of Life ! we follow Thee.
- 6 Thou the grace of life supplying,
Thou the crown of life wilt give ;
Dead to sin, and daily dying,
Life of Life ! in Thee we live.

Dox. IX.

He is my help and shield. Ps. xxxiii: 20.

- 1 While Thou, O my God! art my help and defender,
No cares can o'erwhelm me, no terrors appal;
The wiles and the snares of this world will but render
More lively my hope in my God and my All.
- 2 Yes, Thou art my refuge in sorrow and danger;
My strength when I suffer; my hope when I fall;
My comfort and joy in this land of the stranger;
My treasure, my glory, my God and my All.
- 3 To Thee, blessed Lord! will I turn without ceasing,
Though grief may oppress me, or sorrow befall;
And love Thee till death, my blest spirit releasing,
Unites me to Thee, Lord! my God and my All.
- 4 And when Thou demandest the life Thou hast given,
With joy will I answer Thy merciful call;
And quit Thee on earth, but to find Thee in heaven,
My portion for ever, my God and my All!

 Who reigns enthroned above,
 Ancient of everlasting days,
 And God of love :
 Who was, and is, the same,
 And evermore shall be :
 Eternal Father, great I AM,
 We worship Thee. | The watery deep I pass ;
 My heavenly way pursue ;
 And through the lonely wilderness
 I Jesus view. |
| 2 Though all my foes combine,
 Their power I shall withstand ;
 My race I run, through strength
 Divine,
 At God's command. | 3 To Him my voice I raise ;
 He all-sufficient is :
 He'll guide me safely all my days,
 To worlds of bliss.
 In Him secure I stand :
 Almighty is His power :
 My Rock through all the desert
 land,
 My Shield and Tower. |

 Where peace and goodness reign:
 O let us strive at His command,
 That land to gain.
 In yon bright world above

 Through Jesus' grace and wondrous love,
 That land is mine. | 5 He, great Eternal King,

 Angelic hosts His praises sing
 In sweetest strains:
 His servants there shall live,
 In peace before His throne:
 And all the joys their God can give
 Shall be their own. |

Take my yoke upon you. Matt. xi : 29.

- 1 Jesus, the weary wanderer's rest,
 Give me Thy easy yoke to bear;
 With resignation arm my breast,
 With humble love and lowly fear.
- 2 Thankful I take the cup from Thee,
 Mingled according to Thy will,
 Though bitter to the taste it be,
 'Tis full of heavenly mercy still.
- 3 Be Thou, O Rock of Ages, nigh!
 So shall each murmuring thought be gone,
 And grief, and fear, and care shall fly,
 As clouds before the mid-day sun.
- 4 O Thou, who bad'st the tempest cease,
 And lo! the waves obeyed Thy will,
 Speak to my warring passions, peace!
 Say to my trembling heart, "Be still." Dox. I.

My spirit hath rejoiced in God, my Saviour. Luke i: 47.

1 Rest of the weary,
Joy of the sad,
Hope of the dreary,
Light of the glad ;
Home of the stranger,
Strength to the end,
Refuge from danger,
Saviour and Friend !

2 Pillow where lying
Love rests its head,
Peace of the dying,
Life of the dead :
Path of the lowly,
Prize at the end,
Breath of the holy,
Saviour and Friend !

3 When my feet stumble,
To Thee I'll cry,
Crown of the humble,
Cross of the high ;
When my steps wander,
Over me bend
Truer and fonder,
Saviour and Friend !

4 Ever confessing
Thee, I will raise
Unto Thee blessing,
Glory and praise :
All my endeavor,
World without end,
Thine to be ever,
Saviour and Friend !

309 A man shall be as a hiding place from the wind and a covert from the tempest ; as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land. Isa. xxxii : 2.

 To the haven of Thy breast ;
 When destruction draweth nigh,
 There may I in safety rest ;
 Till the storm is overpast,
 Thou wilt my protection be ;
 From the flood and furious blast,
 Refuge I shall find in Thee. | 3 Be my shelter from the storm ;
 Be my shadow from the sun ;
 Day by day the work perform
 Which Thou hast in me begun :
 Weary, parch'd with thirst, and faint,
 What, but Thy almighty breath,
 Can supply my every want,
 Can redeem my soul from death? |
| 2 Welcome as the water-springs,
 In a dry and desert place,
 Is Thy Spirit, for it brings Plenteous streams of truth and grace ;
 As a great rock spreads its shade
 O'er a parched and weary land,
 So shall my defenceless head
 Find the shadow of Thy hand. | 4 Glory to Thy holy Name!
 Jesus! life and light Thou art,
 Love, immutably the same,
 Thou canst never thence depart ;
 Love Thy very essence is,
 All Thy doings spring from love :
 'Tis the source of all our bliss,

That the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them and I in them.

John xvii: 26.

- 1 Thou hidden love of God, whose height,
Whose depth unfathom'd no man knows;
I see from far Thy beauteous light,
Inly I sigh for Thy repose:
My heart is pained nor can it be
At rest till it find rest in Thee.
- 2 Is there a thing beneath the sun
That strives with Thee my heart to share?
Ah! tear it thence, and reign alone,
The Lord of every motion there.
Then shall my heart from earth be free,
When it hath found repose in Thee.

3 O hide this self from me, that I
 No more, but Thou in me, may live ;
 My vile affections crucify,
 Nor let one darling lust survive ;
 In all things nothing may I see,
 Nothing desire, or seek, but Thee.

4 Each moment draw from earth away
 My heart, that lowly waits Thy call ;
 Speak to my inmost soul, and say,
 I am thy Love, thy God, thy All :
 To feel Thy power, to hear Thy voice,
 To taste Thy love, be all my choice.

In the shadow of thy wings will I make my refuge, until these calamities be overpast. Ps. lvii: 1.

- 1 Jesus, lover of my soul!
Let me to Thy bosom fly,
While the nearer waters roll,
While the tempest still is high;
Hide me, O my Saviour! hide,
Till the storm of life is past;
Safe into the haven guide;
O receive my soul at last!
- 2 Other refuge have I none;
Hangs my helpless soul on Thee;
Leave, ah! leave me not alone;
Still support and comfort me;
All my trust on Thee is stayed;
All my help from Thee I bring:
Cover my defenceless head,
With the shadow of Thy wing.

Make and keep me pure within.

Remember me, O Lord, with the favor that thou bearest unto thy people. Ps. cvi: 4.

- 1 O Thou from whom all goodness flows,
I lift my soul to Thee ;
In all my sorrows, conflicts, woes,
Good Lord, remember me.
If trials sore obstruct my way
And ills I cannot flee,
Then let my strength be as my day,
Good Lord, remember me!
- 2 Whene'er distressed by pain or grief
Thine eye my frame shall see,
Grant patience, rest, and kind relief,
In love remember me.
When on my restless, burdened heart
My sins lie heavily,
Let Thy salvation peace impart,
Good Lord, remember me!
- 3 If on my face, for Thy dear Name,
Shame and reproaches be,
All hail reproach, and welcome shame,
If Thou remember me !
And when Thy love shall call me hence
Thy brighter world to see,
Be Thou my haven and defense,
Good Lord, remember me!

314 Show me thy ways, O Lord; teach me thy paths. Ps. xxv: 4.

- 1 Thy way, not mine, O Lord,
However dark it be !
Lead me by Thine own hand,
Choose out the path for me.
- 2 Smooth let it be or rough,
It will be still the best ;
Winding or straight, it leads
Right onward to Thy rest.
- 3 The kingdom that I seek
Is Thine ; so let the way
That leads to it be Thine ;
Else I must surely stray.
- 4 Take Thou my cup, and it
With joy or sorrow fill,
As best to Thee may seem ;
Choose Thou my good and ill.
- 5 Not mine, not mine the choice,
In things or great or small ;

Be Thou my guide, my strength,
My wisdom, and my all !

315 Thy will be done. Matt. vi : 10.

- 1 My Saviour, as Thou wilt,
O, may Thy will be mine !
Into Thy hand of love
I would my all resign.
- 2 Through sorrow, as through joy,
Conduct me as Thine own ;
And help me still to say,
Thy will, O Lord, be done.
- 3 My Saviour, as Thou wilt !
All shall be well for me ;
Each changing future scene
I gladly trust with Thee.
- 4 Straight to my home above
I'd travel firmly on,
And sing, in life or death,
Thy will, O Lord, be done.

316 They shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. John x: 28.

- 1 Keep me, Saviour, near Thy side,
Let Thy counsel be my guide;
Never let me from Thee rove,
Sweetly draw me by Thy love.
- 2 Earnest Thou of heavenly rest,
Comfort of the troubled breast;
Life and joy to me impart,
Take to Thee my wandering heart.
- 3 Thou, blest Shepherd of the sheep,
Wilt Thine own in safety keep;
All my doubts and fears control,
Till Thy love shall make me whole.
- 4 Thou, O Lord, in death's dark night,
Be my hope, my strength, my light;
Thou my rock, my anchor fast,
Thou my blessed haven at last.

I will wait for the God of my salvation. Mic. vii: 7.

- 1 Commit thou all thy griefs
And ways into His hands;
To His sure truth and tender care
Who earth and heaven commands.
- 2 He everywhere has sway,
And all things serve His might:
His every act pure blessing is,
His path unsullied light.
- 3 Still heavy is thine heart?
Still sink thy spirits down?
Cast off the weight, let fear depart,
And every care be gone.
- 4 Leave to His sovereign sway
To choose and to command;
So shalt thou wond'ring own, His way
How wise, how strong His hand!
- 5 Blest is the man, O God,
That stays himself on Thee!
Who waits for Thy salvation, Lord,
Shall Thy salvation see! Dox. IV.

He will rest in his love: he will joy over thee with singing. Zeph. iii. 17.

- 1 My heart is resting, O my God!
I will give thanks and sing;
My heart is at the secret Source
Of every precious thing.
- 2 I thirst for springs of heavenly life,
And here all day they rise;
I seek the treasure of Thy love,
And close at hand it lies.
- 3 Glory to Thee for strength withheld,
For want and weakness known,
The fear that sends me to Thy breast
For what is most mine own.
- 4 Mine be the reverent, listening love
That waits all day on Thee;
The service of a watchful heart
Which no one else can see.
- 5 The faith that, in a hidden way
No other eye may know,
Finds all its daily work prepared,
And loves to have it so.

 But onward, with the angels blest,
 Seek the haven of thy rest.
- 2 What has life to do with thee,
 Its lingering griefs, its transient bliss?
 Time changes to eternity
 O pilgrim, ponder this!
 And onward, with the angels blest,
 Seek the haven of thy rest!
- 3 Pilgrim, swerve not in thy faith,
 Though thorns and briars strew the way;
 O heed not what the worldling saith;
 Death soon will close life's day,
 But onward, with the angels blest,
 Seek the haven of thy rest!

- 4 Seek it as the one thing worth :
 Turn to thy God in faith and love ;
 The peace thou canst not find on earth
 O seek in Heaven above !
 And onward, with the angels blest,
 Find thine everlasting rest.

Ps. xxxiii: 18.

 And for that love obey.
- 2 O Thou, our soul's chief hope!

 In death we live, as well as life,

Then first awakes a living soul in thee.
- 2 When thou canst say, O Lord, Thy will be done,
Then shalt thy arm grow strong for truth and right ;
When thou despairest, thou hast first begun
To learn from whence the feeble heart hath might.

- 3 When thou hast gained a victory o'er a foe,
Hast prayed in fear for storms to break away,
Then first the peace of angels shalt thou know,
Shalt feel how sweet is heaven's unclouded day.
- 4 When thou with cheerful zeal for virtue's part,
Enchanting pleasure's rose-path shalt forsake,
Then first true joy shall warm and bless thy heart,
And heavenly blossoms by thy side awake.
- 5 When with unfaltering courage thou hast sought,
On duty's battle-field thy prize to win,
And, in thy self-forgetfulness hast thought,
The world too little to be gained by sin ;
- 6 Then hast thou first grown master of thyself,
Thy meaner self hast conquered ; and shalt find,
That thou hast well disdained the slavish pelf

A-MEN.

- 1 God is our strength and refuge high;
 A sure and present help is He,
 When dark and troublous days are nigh;
 Hence free from fear our hearts shall be.
 Though earthquakes move the world,
 And hills 'midst seas be hurled,
 Though waters of the deep
 In turmoil roar and leap,
 And swelling shake the mountains steep.

- 2 A river flows, whose waters clear
 The city of our God make glad;
 The holy tabernacle, where
 The Highest One His dwelling made.
 In midst of her hath God
 Established his abode;
 No trouble can her move,
 For God her help will prove,
 When morning light dawns from above.

- 3 The nations rage, the kingdoms shake,
 His voice goes forth, earth melts away,
 The Lord of Hosts our part doth take,
 And Jacob's God is shield and stay.
 Come then, let all draw near,
 And view with holy fear,
 The works surpassing thought
 Jehovah's arm hath wrought,
 What ruins He on earth hath brought.

- 4 To earth's remotest bounds He turns
 Wars into peace; He breaks the bow;
 He cuts the spear, the chariot burns;
 "That I am God, be still and know,
 Among the heathen I
 Will be exalted high;"
 On earth supreme, the Lord
 Of hosts doth aid afford,
 And Jacob's God is shield and sword.

325

The Lord is a man of war : the Lord is his name. Ex. xv : 3.

1 A mighty fortress is our God :

A bulwark never failing :

Our refuge He amid the flood,

Of mortal ills prevailing :

For still our ancient foe

Doth seek to work us woe :

His craft and power are great

And armed with cruel hate,

On earth is not his equal.

2 By our own might we naught can do :

To trust it were sure losing,

For us must fight the Right and True,

The Man of God's own choosing.

Dost ask us for His Name?

Christ Jesus is the same :

The Lord, the God of Hosts :

The only God : vain boasts

Of others fall before Him.

3 God's Word above all earthly powers,

No thanks to them—abideth.

The Spirit and the gifts are ours
Through Him who with us sideth.

Let goods and kindred go :

This mortal life also :

The body they may kill :

God's truth abideth still :

His kingdom is forever.

329 Ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. John xvi: 20.

We know not where to look for aid;
When days and nights of anxious thought
Nor help nor counsel yet have brought;
- 2 Then this our comfort is alone,
That we may meet before Thy throne,
And cry, O faithful God, to Thee,
For rescue from our misery.
- 3 We lift to heaven our heart and eye
With true contrition's sorest sigh;
To all our sins be pity sent,
And soften all our chastisement;
- 4 That so, with all our hearts, may we
Once more with joy give thanks to Thee,
And walk obedient to Thy Word,
And now and ever praise the Lord. Dox. II.

Here bring your wounded hearts, here tell your anguish:
Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal.

Hope of the penitent, fadeless and pure:
Here speaks the Comforter, tenderly saying:
Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot cure.
- 3 Here see the Bread of Life: see waters flowing
Forth from the throne of God, pure from above:
Come to the feast of love: come, ever knowing
Earth has no sorrow but Heaven can remove.

A well of water springing up into everlasting life. John iv: 14.

- 1 Lord, on Thee alone I stay me,
 Safely hide beneath Thy wing;
 Death can neither hurt nor slay me,
 Thou dost take away its sting,
 That I may in Thee have part,
 Comfort, strengthen, heal my heart,
 Light, and life, and love bestowing,
 All from Thy free mercy flowing.
- 2 Well of life, if Thou art with me,
 Springing deep within my heart,
 Then whatever hour shall try me,
 I can feel no deadly smart:
 If I hide myself in Thee,
 Not a foe can injure me.
 He shall overcome who hideth

When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then thou knewest my path.

Ps. cxlii : 3.

- 1 My God, whose gracious pity I may claim,
Thee, Father, calling! sweet, endearing name!
The sufferings of this weak and weary frame,
All, all are known, O Lord, to Thee.
- 2 From human eye 'tis better to conceal
Much that I suffer, much I often feel;
But still the thought doth tranquillize and heal,
All, all is known, O Lord, to Thee.
- 3 Each secret conflict with indwelling sin,
Each sickening fear I ne'er the prize shall win,
Each pang from irritation, turmoil, din,
All, all are known, O Lord, to Thee.
- 4 Nay, all by Thee is ordered, chosen, planned;
Each drop that fills my daily cup, Thy hand
Prescribes for ills none else can understand:
All, all is known, O Lord, to Thee.
- 5 And welcome, precious, can Thy Spirit make
My little drop of suffering for Thy sake!
Father, the cup I drink, the path I take,
All, all are known, O Lord, to Thee.

My soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee, in a dry and thirsty land where no water is. Ps. lxxiii : 1.

1 Far from my heav'nly home,
Far from my Father's breast,
Fainting I cry, blest Spirit, come,
And speed me to my rest.

3 To thee, to thee I press,
A dark and toilsome road ;
When shall I pass the wilderness
And reach the saints' abode.

2 My spirit homeward turns,
And fain would thither flee ;
My heart, O Sion, droops and yearns,
When I remember thee.

4 God of my life, be near :
On Thee my hopes I cast :
O guide me through the desert here,
And bring me home at last !

Come unto me, all ye that labour. Matt. xi: 28.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 "Come unto Me, ye weary,
And I will give you rest."
Oh, blessed voice of Jesus,
Which comes to hearts oppress'd!
It tells of benediction,
Of mercy, grace, and peace,
Of joy that hath no ending,
Of love which cannot cease. | 3 "Come unto Me, ye fainting,
And I will give you life."
Oh, peaceful voice of Jesus,
Which comes to end our strife!
The foe is stern and eager,
The fight is fierce and long;
But Thou hast made us mighty,
And stronger than the strong. |
| 2 "Come unto Me, dear children,
And I will give you light."
Oh, loving voice of Jesus,
Which comes to cheer the night!
Our hearts were fill'd with sadness,
And we had lost our way,
But morning brings us gladness,
And songs the break of day. | 4 "And whosoever cometh,
I will not cast him out."
Oh, patient voice of Jesus,
Which drives away our doubt!
Which calls us, very sinners,
Unworthy though we be
Of love so free and boundless,
To come dear Lord, to Thee. |

TEMPTATION.

- 1 Thou knowest, Lord, the weariness and sorrow
Of the sad heart that comes to Thee for rest ;
Cares of to-day, and burdens of to-morrow,
Blessings implored, and sins to be confessed ;
We come before Thee at Thy gracious word,
And lay them at Thy feet: Thou knowest, Lord.

- 2 Thou knowest all the past: how long and blindly
On the dark mountains the lost wanderer strayed ;
How the good Shepherd followed, and how kindly
He bore it home, upon His shoulder laid ;
And healed the bleeding wounds, and soothed the pain,
And brought back life, and hope, and strength again.

- 3 Thou knowest all the present; each temptation,
Each toilsome duty, each foreboding fear ;
All to each one assigned of tribulation,
Or to belovèd ones, than self more dear ;
All pensive memories, as we journey on,
Longings for vanished smiles and voices gone.

- 4 Thou knowest, not alone as God, all-knowing ;
As man, our mortal weakness Thou hast proved :
On earth, with purest sympathies o'erflowing,
O Saviour, Thou hast wept, and Thou hast loved ;
And love and sorrow still to Thee may come,
And find a hiding-place, a rest, a home.

- 5 Therefore we come, Thy gentle call obeying,
And lay our sins and sorrows at Thy feet ;
On everlasting strength our weakness staying,
We hear Thy Word, we feel its light and heat ;
Then rising and refreshed, we go our way
And follow on unto eternal day.

Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. John xiv : 27.

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1 Yes, He knows the way is dreary, | 2 Look to Him, the Lord of Glory, |
| Knows the weakness of our frame, | Tasting death to win thy life; |
| Knows that hand and heart are weary, | Gazing on that wondrous story, |
| He in all points felt the same. | Canst thou falter in the strife? |
| He is near to help and bless; | Is it not new life to know |
| Be not weary, onward press. | That the Lord hath loved thee so? |

- 3 Look to Him, and faith shall brighten,
 Hope shall soar, and love shall burn,
 Peace once more thy heart shall lighten;
 Rise, He calleth thee, return!
 Be not weary on thy way;
 Jesus is thy strength and stay.

344

The darkness and the light are both alike to thee. Ps. cxxxix: 12.

- 1 O Thou, to whose all-searching sight
The darkness shineth as the light,
Search, prove my heart ; it pants for Thee.
O burst these bonds, and set it free.
- 2 While in this darksome wild I stray,
Be Thou my light, be Thou my way ;
No foes, no violence I fear,
No harm, if Thou, O Lord, art near.
- 3 When rising floods my soul o'erflow,
When sinks my heart in waves of woe,
O Lord, Thy timely aid impart,
And raise my head, and cheer my heart.
- 4 If rough and thorny be the way,
My strength proportion to my day ;
Till toil, and grief, and pain shall cease,
Where all is calm, and joy, and peace. Dox. II.

Serve him with all your heart and with all your soul. Josh. xxii: 5.

- 1 Dismiss me not Thy service, Lord,
But train me for Thy will;
For even I, in fields so broad,
Some duties may fulfil;
And I will ask for no reward,
Except to serve Thee still.
- 2 How many serve, how many more
May to the service come!
To tend the vines, the grapes to store,
Thou dost appoint for some:
Thou hast Thy young men at the war,
Thy little ones at home.
- 3 All works are good, and each is best
As most it pleases Thee;
Each worker pleases when the rest
He serves in charity;
And neither man nor work unblest,
Wilt Thou permit to be.

346

If any man serve me, let him follow me, and where I am, there shall also my servant be. John xii: 26.

- 1 A charge to keep I have,
A God to glorify,
A never-dying soul to save,
And fit it for the sky;
- 2 To serve the present age,
My calling to fulfil:
Oh, may it all my powers engage
To do my Master's will.
- 3 Arm me with jealous care,
As in thy sight to live;
And, oh, thy servant, Lord, prepare
A strict account to give!

347

Teach me, O Lord, the way of Thy statutes, and I shall keep it unto the end.

Ps. cxix: 39.

- 1 Teach me, my God and King,
In all things Thee to see;
And what I do in anything
To do it as for Thee!
- 2 To scorn the senses' sway,
While still to Thee I tend;
In all I do be Thou the way,
In all be Thou the end.
- 3 All may of Thee partake;
Nothing can be so mean,
Which with this legend "For Thy sake,"
Will not grow bright and clean
- 4 A servant with this clause
Makes drudgery divine;
Who sweeps a room, as for Thy laws,
Makes that and the action fine.
- 5 This is the famous stone
That turneth all to gold;
For that which God doth touch and own
Cannot for less be told.

348

I will go in the strength of the Lord God. Ps. lxxi : 16.

- 1 Forth in Thy Name, O Lord! I go,
My daily labor to pursue;
Thee, only Thee, resolved to know,
In all I think, or speak, or do.
- 2 The task Thy wisdom has assigned,
O let me cheerfully fulfil;
In all my works Thy presence find,
And still regard Thy righteous will.
- 3 Thee may I set at my right hand,
Whose eyes mine inmost substance see;
And labor on at Thy command,
And offer all my works to Thee.
- 4 Give me to bear Thine easy yoke,
And every moment watch and pray;
And still to things eternal look,
And hasten to Thy glorious day.
- 5 For Thee, O let me still employ
Whate'er Thy bounteous hand has given;
And run my course with even joy,
And closely walk with Thee in heaven.

349

Whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. John xiv: 4.

- 1 "Come," said Jesus' sacred voice,
"Come, and make my paths your choice;
I will guide you to your home,
Weary pilgrims, hither come.
- 2 "Thou who, houseless, sole, forlorn,
Long hast borne the proud world's scorn,
Long hast roamed the barren waste,
Weary pilgrim, hither haste.
- 3 "Ye who, tossed on beds of pain,
Seek for ease, but seek in vain;
Ye, by fiercer anguish torn,
In remorse for guilt who mourn;
- 4 "Hither come, for here is found
Balm that flows for every wound,
Peace that ever shall endure
Rest eternal, sacred, sure."

For thy name's sake lead me and guide me. Ps. xxxi: 3.

- 1 Jesus, guide our way
To eternal day!
So shall we, no more delaying,
Follow Thee, Thy voice obeying;
Lead us by Thy hand
To our Father's land!
- 2 When we danger meet,
Steadfast make our feet!
Lord, preserve us uncomplaining
'Mid the darkness round us reigning!
Through adversity
Lies our way to Thee.
- 3 Order all our way
Through this mortal day;
In our toil with aid be near us;
In our need with succor cheer us;
When life's course is o'er,
Open Thou the door!

These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. Rev. xiv: 4.

- 1 Through good report and evil, Lord,
Still guided by Thy faithful Word,
Our staff, our buckler, and our sword,
We follow Thee.
- 2 In silence of the lonely night,
In the full glow of day's clear light,
Through life's strange wanderings, dark or bright,
We follow Thee.
- 3 Strengthened by Thee we forward go
'Mid smile or scoff of friend or foe,
Through pain or ease, through joy or woe,
We follow Thee.
- 4 O Master, point Thou out the way,
Nor suffer Thou our steps to stray;
Then in the path that leads to day
We follow Thee.
- 5 Thou hast passed on before our face;
Thy footsteps on the way we trace;
Oh, keep us, aid us by Thy grace:
We follow Thee.

352

Faint, yet pursuing. Jud. viii: 4.

- 1 Though faint, yet pursuing, we go on our way ;
The Lord is our Leader, His Word is our stay ;
Though suffering, and sorrow, and trial be near,
The Lord is our Refuge, and whom can we fear ?
- 2 He raiseth the fallen, He cheereth the faint ;
The weak, and oppressed — He will hear their complaint ;
The way may be weary, and thorny the road,
But how can we falter ? — our help is in God !
- 3 And to His green pastures our footsteps He leads ;
His flock in the desert how kindly he feeds !
The lambs in His bosom He tenderly bears,
And brings back the wanderers safe from the snares.
- 4 Though clouds may surround us, our God is our light ;
Though storms rage around us, our God is our might ;
So, faint yet pursuing, still onward we come ;
The Lord is our Leader, and heaven is our home !

353 Ye shall find rest unto your souls.
Matt. xi: 29.

1 Art thou weary, art thou languid,
Art thou sore distress'd ?

"Come to Me," saith One, "and coming,
Be at rest."

2 If I find Him, if I follow,
What His guerdon here ?

"Many a sorrow, many a labor,
Many a tear."

3 If I still hold closely to Him,
What hath He at last ?

"Sorrow vanquished, labor ended,
Jordan passed."

4 If I ask Him to receive me,
Will He say me nay ?

"Not till earth, and not till heaven Pass away."

5 Finding, following, keeping, struggling,

Is He sure to bless ?

"Angels, martyrs, prophets, vir-gins,

Answer, yes."

354

1 Art thou weary, heavy laden ;
Art thou sore distressed ?

"Come to Me," He saith, "and
coming,

2 Is thy spirit vexed with darkness ;
Art thou doubt-oppressed ?

Jesus is of light the Giver ;
Come and rest !

3 Doth the sting of disappointment
Rankle in thy breast ?

Jesus is the Good Physician ;
Come and rest !

4 Art thou shrinking from the battle,
Impotent confessed ?

Jesus is the only Helper ;
Come and rest !

5 Hath the fear of death appalled thee
Hope and joy repressed ?

Jesus is of death the Victor ;
Come and rest !

6 Art thou weeping, broken-hearted,
Friends no more possessed ?

Jesus ever lives to love us ;
Come and rest !

7 O ye weary, heavy laden,
Howsoever distressed,

Jesus bids you to His bosom ;
Come and rest !

355 If any man serve me, let him follow me, and where I am, there shall also my servant be.
John xii : 26.

1 Lord Jesus, I have promised
To serve Thee to the end;
Be Thou forever near me,
My Master and my Friend!
I shall not fear the battle,
If Thou art by my side,
Nor wander from the pathway,
If Thou wilt be my Guide.

3 Lord Jesus, Thou hast promised
To all who follow Thee,
That where Thou art in glory
There shall Thy servant be;
And I to Thee have promised
To serve Thee to the end;
O, give me grace to follow,
My Master and my Friend!

2 O! let me feel Thee near me—
The world is ever near;
I see the sights that dazzle,
The tempting sounds I hear.
My foes are ever near me,
Around me and within;
But, Jesus, draw Thou nearer,
And shield my soul from sin.

4 O let me see Thy foot-prints,
And in them plant mine own;
My hope to follow duly
Is in Thy strength alone.
O guide me, call me, draw me,
Uphold me to the end;
And then in heaven receive me,
My Saviour and my Friend.

The musical score is written for two staves, Treble and Bass, in 4/4 time. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The melody is primarily composed of eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together. The accompaniment consists of chords, mostly dyads, with some triplets. The piece concludes with a double bar line and a fermata over the final chord. The text 'A - MEN.' is written below the final measure of the bass staff.

I wholly followed the Lord my God. Josh. xiv : 8.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 Saviour! I follow on !

 Seeing not yet the hand
 That leadeth me;
 Hushed be my heart and still,
 Fear I no further ill;
 Only to meet Thy will
 My will shall be. | 3 Often to Marah's brink

 Quickly relief hast sent,
 Sweetening the draught. |
| 2 Riven the rock for me
 Thirst to relieve,
 Manna from heaven falls
 Fresh every eve;
 Never a want severe
 Causeth my eye a tear,
 But Thou dost whisper near,
 "Only believe!" | 4 Saviour! I long to walk
 Closer with Thee;
 Led by Thy guiding hand,
 Ever to be;
 Constantly near Thy side,
 Quickened and purified,
 Living for Him who died
 Freely for me! |

357 I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine. John x: 14.

1 Jesus is our Shepherd,
Wiping every tear,
Folded in His bosom,
What have we to fear?
Only let us follow
Whither He doth lead,
To the thirsty desert,
Or the dewy mead.

2 Jesus is our Shepherd:
Well we know His voice,
How its gentlest whisper
Makes our heart rejoice;
Even when it chideth,
Tender is its tone;
Only He shall guide us,
We are His alone.

3 Jesus is our Shepherd:
Guarded by His arm,
Though the wolves may raven,
None can do us harm;
Even death's dark valley,
Now has lost its gloom,
We will fear no evil,
Victors o'er the tomb.

4 Jesus is our Shepherd;
With His goodness now,
And His tender mercy,
He doth us endow;
Let us sing His praises
With a gladsome heart,
Till in heaven we meet Him,
Never more to part.

358

He that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

John viii : 12.

- 1 Lead, kindly Light ! amid the encircling gloom,
 Lead Thou me on;
 The night is dark, and I am far from home,
 Lead Thou me on;
 Keep Thou my feet; I do not ask to see
 The distant scene; one step enough for me.
- 2 I was not ever thus, nor prayed that Thou
 Shouldst lead me on;
 I loved to choose and see my path; but now
 Lead Thou me on;
 I loved the garish day, and spite of fears,
 Pride ruled my will: remember not past years.
- 3 So long Thy power hath blessed me, sure it still Will lead me on
 O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till
 The night is gone;
 And with the morn those angel faces smile
 Which I have loved long since, and lost awhile.

The Lord thy God will turn thy captivity, and have compassion upon thee.

Deut. xxx : 3.

- 1 O Thou great Friend to all the sons of men,
 Who once appeared in humblest guise below,
 Sin to rebuke, to break the captive's chain,
 And call Thy children forth from want and woe!
- 2 We look to Thee : Thy Spirit gives the light
 Which guides the nations groping on their way,
 Stumbling and falling in disastrous night,
 Yet hoping ever for the perfect day.
- 3 Yes : Thou art still the Life ; Thou art the Way
 The holiest know,—Light, Life, and Way of heaven ;
 And they who dearest hope, and deepest pray,
 Toil by the light, life, way, which Thou hast given.

Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

Matt. xi : 28.

1 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
 "Come unto Me and rest ;
 Lay down, thou weary one, lay down
 Thy head upon My breast !"

I came to Jesus as I was,
 Weary, and worn, and sad ;
 I found in Him a resting-place,
 And He has made me glad.

2 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
 "Behold, I freely give
 The living water ; thirsty one,
 Stoop down, and drink, and live !"

I came to Jesus, and I drank
 Of that life-giving stream ;
 My thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
 And now I live in Him.

3 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
 "I am this dark world's light ;
 Look unto Me, thy morn shall rise,
 And all thy day be bright !"
 I looked to Jesus, and I found
 In Him my Star, my Sun ;
 And in that Light of life I'll walk
 Till travelling days are done.

E'en now it breathes o'er life's dark, troubled sea;
His gracious truth like heavenly dew is falling;
Hark, hark, my soul! thy Father calls for thee!
Father of mercy, Father of love!
Thee would we follow to our blest home above.
- 2 Hark, hark, my soul! from heaven that voice is pleading

While angel bands, our daily path surrounding,
Lead God's dear children on forevermore.

Blessed be the Lord my strength, who teacheth my hands to war, and my fingers to fight. Ps. cxliv : 1.

- 1 Oft in danger, oft in woe,
Onward, Christians ! onward go ;
Fight the fight, maintain the strife,
Strengthened with the Bread of Life.
- 2 Onward, Christians ! onward go ;
Join the war, and face the foe ;
Faint not : much doth yet remain ;
Dreary is the long campaign.
- 3 Shrink not, Christians ! will ye yield ?
Will ye quit the painful field ?
Will ye flee in danger's hour ?
Know ye not your Captain's power ?
- 4 Let your drooping hearts be glad ;
March, in heavenly armour clad :
Fight, nor think the battle long,
Victory soon shall tune your song.
- 5 Let not sorrow dim your eye,
Soon shall every tear be dry ;
Let not fears your course impede,
Great your strength, if great your need.
- 6 Onward then to battle move,
More than conquerors ye shall prove :
Though opposed by many a foe,
Christian soldiers ! onward go.

In God we boast all the day long, and praise thy name forever. Ps. xlv: 8.

- 1 Thou art the mighty King of kings,
The Lord of lords most high :
Israel is safe beneath Thy wings ;
Thy servants shall not die.
Through Thee we shall the victory gain,
Though hosts of hell oppose :
Thou art our God ; and Thou wilt reign,
And conquer all our foes.

For weakness is our power :
In Thee we trust, Almighty Lord,
Through every dangerous hour.
To Thee we look, Thou God of love,

Oh, may we rise to heaven above,
To love and praise Thee more.

When wake the birds, and all the shadows flee ;
Fairer than morning, lovelier than the daylight,
Dawns the sweet consciousness, I am with Thee !
- 2 When sinks the soul, subdued by toil to slumber ;

Sweet the repose, beneath Thy wings o'ershading,
But sweeter still to wake and feel Thee there.

The Lord is my shepherd. Ps. xxiii: 1.

Whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am His
And He is mine forever.
- 2 Where streams of living water flow
My ransomed soul He leadeth,
And, where the verdant pastures grow,
With food celestial feedeth.
- 3 Perverse and foolish oft I strayed,
But yet in love He sought me,
And on His shoulder gently laid,
And home, rejoicing, brought me.
- 4 In death's dark vale I fear no ill
With Thee, dear Lord, beside me;
Thy rod and staff my comfort still,
Thy Cross before to guide me.
- 5 Thou spread'st a table in my sight;
Thy unction grace bestoweth;
And oh, what transport of delight
From Thy pure chalice floweth!

Thy goodness faileth never:
Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise
Within Thy house forever.

Blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed. John xx : 29.

- 1 Jesus, these eyes have never seen
That radiant form of Thine:
The veil of sense hangs dark between
Thy blessèd face and mine.
- 2 I see Thee not, I hear Thee not,
Yet art Thou oft with me;
And earth hath ne'er so dear a spot,
As where I meet with Thee.
- 3 Like some bright dream that comes unsought,
When slumbers o'er me roll;
Thine image ever fills my thought,
And charms my ravished soul.
- 4 Yet, though I have not seen, and still Must rest in faith alone,
I love Thee, dearest Lord, and will,
Unseen, but not unknown.

And still this throbbing heart,
The rending veil shall Thee reveal

 But sweeter far Thy face to see,

 Nor can the memory find
 A sweeter sound than Thy blest Name,

- 3 O Hope of every contrite heart,
 O Joy of all the meek :

 How good to those who seek !
- 4 But what to those who find ? Ah ! this
 Nor tongue nor pen can show :

Who drink of Thee still feel a void,
Which naught but Thou can fill.
- 3 O most sweet Jesus, hear the sighs
Which unto Thee we send;
To Thee our inmost spirit cries,
To Thee our prayers ascend.
- 4 Abide with us, and let the light
Shine, Lord, on every heart;
Dispel the darkness of our night,
And joy to all impart.

- 2 When hosts of foes beset me round,
And threatened to destroy,
In Him the wished relief I found;
My heart revived with joy.
- 3 The pains of hell, and fears of death,
Encompassed me around:
To Him I cried with faltering breath,
And full deliverance found.
- 4 Long as I live, I'll bless His Name,
And triumph in His Word;
By Him alone salvation came,
Who is the mighty Lord.
- 5 Trust ye the Lord, nor yield to fear;
On His rich love depend:
He will preserve you while you're here,

Continue ye in my love. John xv : 9.

 None like Him 'mongst mortals born ;
 And shall I whom He defends,
 Join the world, His goodness scorn ?
 Nought shall raise a parting line
 To hold me from His tenderest love ;
 One shall be His will and mine—
 Lifelong here, for aye above.
- 2 Once He suffered death for me ;
 In that death He conquered sin,
 Him redeeming still I see ;
 Wondrous strength from Him I win.

* In 1st verse, 6th line, begin with this note.

Who could sullen, sit complaining,
 Knowing Christ has sealed his bliss ?
 Who, the ransom gift disdaining,
 E'er could fly such love as His ?

- 3 In that well-proved love I bide ;
 Nought from Him this heart shall sever.
 Angel glory, mortal pride,
 Wealth or want shall part us never.
 Depth below nor height above
 E'er shall hold my soul enticed,
 Luring from a Father's love
 Mine henceforth in Jesus Christ.

Beauty and light ;
So many glorious things are here,

We have enough, yet not too much,
To long for more ;
A yearning for a deeper peace
Not known before. |

Though amply blest,
Can never find, although they seek,
A perfect rest ;
Nor ever shall, until they lean
Upon Thy breast. | |

 Anon the clouds depart,
 The winds and waters cease,
 While sweetly o'er my gladden'd
 heart
 Expands the bow of peace.

4 I hear at morn and even,
 At noon and midnight hour,
 The choral harmonies of heaven
 Earth's Babel-tongues o'erpower.
 That resurrection word,
 That shout of victory,
 Once more, For ever with the Lord;
 Amen, so let it be.

For all the land which thou seest to thee will I give it. Gen. xiii: 15.

- 1 On Jordan's stormy banks I stand,
 And cast a wishful eye
 To Canaan's fair and happy land,
 Where my possessions lie.
- 2 O the transporting, rapturous scene,
 That rises to my sight!
 Sweet fields arrayed in living green,
 And rivers of delight.
- 3 No chilling winds, nor poisonous breath,
 Can reach that healthful shore:
 Sickness and sorrow, pain and death,
 Are felt and feared no more.
- 4 When shall I reach that happy place,
 And be forever blest?
 When shall I see my Father's face,
 And in His mansions rest? Dox. IV.

We have an house not made with hands eternal in the heavens. 2 Cor. v: 1.

1 I'm but a pilgrim here,
 Heaven is my Home;
 After earth's desert drear,
 Heaven is my Home.
 Danger and sorrow stand
 Round me on every hand,
 Heaven is my Fatherland,
 Heaven is my Home.

2 What though the tempests rage?
 Heaven is my Home.
 Short is my pilgrimage,
 Heaven is my Home.
 And Time's wild wintry blast
 Shall soon be overpast,
 I shall reach Home at last;
 Heaven is my Home.

3 There at my Saviour's side,
 Heaven is my Home;
 May I be glorified;
 Heaven is my Home:
 There are the good and blest,
 Those I love most and best,
 Grant me with them to rest;
 Heaven is my Home.

4 Grant me to murmur not,
 Heaven is my Home.
 Whate'er my earthly lot,
 Heaven is my Home.
 There shall the promise stand
 Pleasures at Thy right hand,
 Jesu, in Fatherland:
 Heaven is my Home!

To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life which is in the midst of the Paradise of God. Rev. ii: 7.

1 O Paradise, O Paradise!

Who doth not crave for rest?
Who would not seek the happy
land,

Where they that loved are blest?
Where loyal hearts and true
Stand ever in the light,
All rapture through and through
In God's most holy sight.

3 O Paradise, O Paradise!

O let me sin no more;
O let me be as pure on earth,
As on thy spotless shore;
Where loyal hearts and true
Stand ever in the light,
All rapture through and through,
In God's most holy sight.

2 O Paradise, O Paradise!

The world is growing old;
Who would not be at rest and free
Where love is never cold?
Where loyal hearts and true,
Stand ever in the light,
All rapture through and through,
In God's most holy sight.

4 O Paradise, O Paradise!

Fain would I worthy be
To serve thee in the place, O Lord,
Thou wilt prepare for me,
Where loyal hearts and true,
Stand ever in the light,
All rapture through and through,
In God's most holy sight.

395 And I John saw the holy city new Jerusalem coming down from God out of heaven.

Rev. xxi: 2.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 O Mother dear, Jerusalem!
 What joy to come to thee!
 To find my sorrows at an end,
 In thy tranquility!
 O happy harbor of God's saints!
 O sweet and pleasant soil!
 In thee no sorrow can be found,
 Nor grief, nor care, nor toil. | Where grow such sweet and pleasant flowers
 As nowhere else are seen.
 Right through thy streets, with pleasing sound,
 The living waters flow,
 And on the banks on either side,
 The tree of life doth grow. |
| 2 No murky cloud o'ershadows thee,
 Nor gloom, nor darksome night;
 But every soul shines as the sun:
 For God Himself gives light.
 O my sweet home, Jerusalem!
 What joy thy gates to see,
 The King that sitteth on the throne
 In His felicity. | 4 That tree each month yields ripened fruit,
 For ever more it springs;
 And every nation of the earth
 To thee its honor brings.
 O Mother dear, Jerusalem!
 What joy to come to thee!
 In thee to find my sorrows end,
 And Love's eternity. |

The city was pure gold, like unto clear glass. Rev. xxi: 18.

- 1 Jerusalem, the golden ! O city of the blest !
O heavenly land of promise ! the weary pilgrim's rest ;
Safe through the thorny journey ; freed from the strife of sin ;
Within the walls of jasper ; the pearly gates within.
- 2 What peace beyond all telling ; what joy, for them whose feet
Stand by the crystal river, and walk the golden street !
With boughs of palms, like victors, arrayed in robes of white,
With hymns of glad thanksgiving they throng the halls of light.
- 3 They thirst not, neither hunger, who gain that bright abode,
With oil of love anointed ; as kings and priests to God.
O dear and blessed vision ; the Seer of Patmos tells !
What glad and hopeful tidings, the prophet's voice reveals.

- 4 Behold the Tabernacle of God is now with men :
 And He will dwell among them and heal their grief and pain,
 And he that overcometh shall be the Father's heir,
 Within the glorious city ! and dwell forever there.

398 We have a strong city ; salvation will God appoint for walls and bulwarks. Isa. xxvi: 1

- 1 Thou City of the angels, thou City of the Lord,
 Whose everlasting music is e'er in sweet accord ;
 Jerusalem, exulting on that securest shore,
 I hope thee, wish thee, sing thee, and love thee evermore.
- 2 O fields that know no sorrow ! O state that fears no strife !
 O princely bowers, O land of flowers, O realm and home of life !
 There, through the sacred lilies, and flowers on every side,
 The happy ransomed people go wandering far and wide.
- 3 O one, O heavenly mansion ! O Paradise of joy !
 Where tears are ever banished and smiles have no alloy :
 With jasper glow thy bulwarks, thy streets with emeralds blaze,
 The sardius and the topaz unite in thee their rays.
- 4 Thou hast no night, fair heaven ; thou hast no time, bright day !
 Dear fountain of refreshment to pilgrims far away !
 Upon the Rock of Ages they raise thy holy tower ;
 Thine is the victor's laurel, and thine the golden dower.
- 5 O sweet and blessed country, the home of God's elect !
 O sweet and blessed country that eager hearts expect !
 In mercy, Saviour, bring us to that dear land of rest,
 Who art our heavenly Father and Saviour ever blest.

399 The land whither ye go to possess it is a land which the Lord thy God careth for.
Deut. xi: 11, 12.

1 For thee, O dear, dear country,

There, too, the emeralds blaze;
The sardius and the topaz
Unite in thee their rays.

God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes. Rev. xxi: 4.

- 1 Safe home, safe home in port!
 Rent cordage, shattered deck,
 Torn sails, provisions short,
 And only not a wreck:
 But O the joy upon the shore,
 To tell our voyage perils o'er!
- 2 The prize, the prize secure!
 The athlete nearly fell;
 Bare all he could endure,
 And bare not always well:
 But he may smile at troubles gone
 Who sets the victor-garland on!
- 3 No more the foe can harm:
 No more of leagur'd camp,
 And cry of night alarm,
 And need of ready lamp:
 And yet how nearly had he fail'd,
 How nearly had that foe prevailed!
- 4 The exile is at home!
 O nights and days of tears,
 O longings not to roam,
 O sins, and doubts, and fears;
 What matter now this bitter fray?
 The King has wiped those tears away.

Ye in me, and I in you. John xiv: 20.

- 1 Long did I toil, and knew no earthly rest,
 Far did I rove, and found no certain home ;
 At last I sought them in His sheltering breast,
 Who opes His arms, and bids the weary come :
 With Him I found a home, a rest divine,
 And I since then am His, and He is mine.

- 2 The good I have is from His stores supplied,
 The ill is only what He deems the best ;
 He for my Friend, I'm rich with nought beside,
 And poor without Him, though of all possessed :
 Changes may come, I take, or I resign,
 Content, while I am His, while He is mine.

408 The Lord God giveth them light, and they shall reign for evermore.
Rev. xxii: 5.

1 High in yonder realms of light
Dwell the raptured saints above,
Far beyond our feeble sight,
Happy in Immanuel's love.
Pilgrims in this vale of tears,
Once they knew, like us below,
Gloomy doubts, distressing fears,
Torturing pain, and heavy woe.

Happy spirits, ye are fled
Where no grief can entrance find;
Lulled to rest the aching head,
Soothed the anguish of the mind.
Every tear is wiped away,
Sighs no more shall heave the breast,
Night is lost in endless day,
Sorrow in eternal rest. Dox. VI.

409 The Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall lead them unto living fountains of water. Rev. vii: 17.

1 Who are these in bright array
This innumerable throng,
Round the altar night and day
Tuning their triumphant song?
Worthy is the Lamb once slain,
Blessing, honor, glory, power,
Wisdom, riches to obtain,
New dominion every hour.

2 These through fiery trials trod,
These from great affliction came;
Now before the throne of God,
Sealed with His almighty name;
Clad in raiment pure and white,
Victor palms in every hand —
Through their dear Redeemer's might,
More than conquerors they stand.

- 3 Hunger, thirst, disease unknown, Joy and gladness banish sighs,
 On immortal fruits they feed; Perfect love dispels all fears,
 Them the Lamb amid the throne, And forever from their eyes
 Shall to living fountains lead; God shall wipe away the tears.

Dox. IV.

 ||: Alleluia. :||
- 2 Thou wast their rock, their fortress, and their might;
 Thou, Lord, their Captain in the well-fought fight;
 Thou, in the darkness drear, their one true light.
 ||: Alleluia. :||
- 3 O may Thy soldiers, faithful, true and bold,
 Fight as the saints who nobly fought of old,
 And win, with them, the victor's crown of gold.
 ||: Alleluia. :||
- 4 Ana when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
 Steals on the ear the distant triumph-song,
 And hearts are brave again, and arms are strong.

 Soon, soon to faithful warriors comes the rest;
 Sweet is the calm of Paradise the blest.

411 These are they which came out of great tribulation and have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Rev. vii : 14.

- 1 Who are these like stars appearing,
These before God's throne who stand ?
Each a golden crown is wearing ;
Who are all this glorious band ?
Alleluia! hark, they sing,
Praising loud their heavenly King.
- 2 Who are these of dazzling brightness,
These in God's own truth arrayed,
Clad in robes of purest whiteness,
Robes whose lustre ne'er shall fade,
Ne'er be touched by time's rude hand ?
Whence come all this glorious band ?
- 3 These are they who have contended
For their Saviour's honor long,
Wrestling on till life was ended,
Following not the sinful throng ;
These, who well the fight sustained,
Triumph through the Lamb have gained.

- 4 These are they whose hearts were riven,
Sore with woe and anguish tried,
Who in prayer full oft have striven
With the God they glorified;
Now, their painful conflict o'er,
God has bid them weep no more.
- 5 These like priests have watched and waited,
Offering up to Christ their will;
Soul and body consecrated,
Day and night they serve Him still:
Now in God's most holy place
Blest they stand before His face.
- 6 Lo, the Lamb Himself now feeds them
On Mount Zion's pastures fair;
From His central throne He leads them
By the living fountains there;
Lamb and Shepherd, Good Supreme,
Free He gives the cooling stream.

Though he were dead, yet shall he live. John xi : 25.

- 1 Gone! yes, but for a little while, 2 Gone! no, they dwell with us unseen,
 The parting and the pain, They share our hopes and fears,
 Heaven shall restore the near and dear In our rejoicing they rejoice,
 To those they love again. And sorrow in our tears.
 Gone, whither we shall follow soon, Unseen, God sets His angels watch,
 With them the joys to share, With constant care to keep
 Which for His servants here below, The ways His children walk by day,
 The Lord hath treasured there. And guard their nightly sleep.

- 3 Departed, but not dead; yea, more
 Alive than when they dwelt
 With us on earth in mortal flesh,
 And all its weakness felt.
 They only lose their earthly part,
 They gain immortal youth,
 Who in the fear of God have lived,
 And kept His Word of truth.

This is glad food and drink which ne'er shall lack,

Glory for evermore; to Thee we bring
An endless Alleluia.

Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven. Matt. xix: 14.

And folds them in His arms.
- 2 "Suffer the little ones," He says,
"Forbid them not to come:

And yield them up to Thee:
Joyful that we ourselves are Thine,
Thine let our offspring be. Dox. IV.

He shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young. Isa. xl : 11.

- 1 Saviour, who Thy flock art feeding
With the Shepherd's kindest care,
And the feeble gently leading,
While the lambs Thy bosom share.
- 2 Now, these little ones receiving,
Fold them in Thy gracious arm;
There we know, Thy Word believing,
Only there secure from harm!
- 3 Never, from Thy pasture roving,
Let them be the lion's prey;
Let Thy tenderness, so loving,
Keep them through life's dangerous way.
- 4 Then, within Thy fold eternal,
Let them find a resting-place;
Feed in pastures ever vernal,
Drink the rivers of Thy grace! Dox. IX.

2 Open, Lord, the crystal fountain
Whence the healing streams do flow;
Let the fiery, cloudy pillar
Guide me all my journey through:
Strong Deliverer, strong Deliverer,
Be Thou still my Strength and Shield.

3 When I tread the verge of Jordan,
Bid my anxious fears subside;
Bear me through the swelling current,
Land me safe on Canaan's side:
Songs of praises, songs of praises
I will ever give to Thee.

418 I will bring him, that he may appear before the Lord, and there abide for ever.
1 Sam. i: 22.

- 1 To Thee, O God in heaven,
This little one we bring;
Giving to Thee what Thou hast given,—
Our dearest offering.
- 2 Into a world of toil
These little feet will roam,
Where sin its purity may soil,
Where care and grief may come.
- 3 Oh, let Thy Word of love,
With influence serene,
Come down, like water, from above,

419 He took them up in his arms and blessed them. Mark x: 16.

To Him who took them to His breast
We bring these children home.
- 2 To Thee, O God, whose face
Their spirits still behold,
We bring them, praying that Thy grace

Thy Holy Spirit grant, O Lord,
To keep them pure as now! Dox. V.

Conscious of weakness, ign'rance, sin, and shame,
Give such a force of holy thought and feeling,
That we may live to glorify Thy name ;
- 2 That we may conquer base desire and passion,
That we may rise from selfish thought and will,

Walk humbly, gently, leaning on Thee still.

Whosoever doth not bear his cross and come after me, cannot be my disciple.

Luke xiv : 27.

- 1 Jesus, I my cross have taken,
 All to leave and follow Thee :
 Destitute, despised, forsaken,
 Thou from hence my all shalt be ;
 Perish, every fond ambition,
 All I've sought or hoped or known,
 Yet how rich is my condition !
 God and heaven are still my own !
- 2 Let the world despise and leave me,
 They have left my Saviour, too ;
 Human hearts and looks deceive me ;
 Thou art not, like man, untrue ;
 And while Thou shalt smile upon me,
 God of wisdom, love, and might,
 Foes may hate, and friends may shun me,
 Show Thy face and all is bright.

(SECOND TUNE.)

- 3 Man may trouble and distress me,
 'Twill but drive me to Thy breast ;
 Life with trials hard may press me,
 Heaven will bring me sweeter rest.
 O 'tis not in grief to harm me
 While Thy love is left to me ;
 O 'twere not in joy to charm me,
 Were that joy unmixed with Thee.

- 4 Take, my soul, thy full salvation,
 Rise o'er sin and fear and care ;
 Joy to find in every station
 Something still to do or bear.
 Soon shall close thy earthly mission,
 Swift shall pass thy pilgrim days,
 Hope soon change to glad fruition,
 Faith to sight and prayer to praise. Dox. VIII.

Deut. xxvi : 15.

Look down on those who bear Thy sacred name,
And with Thy glorious deeds their hearts inflame !
- 2 Restore their ways ! renew them, by Thy grace,
Thy laws to follow, and Thy steps to trace ;
Thy bright example to Thy doctrine join,
And by their conduct prove their faith divine !
- 3 O be Thy Providence their constant friend !
Through life still guard them, and in death attend !
With everlasting arms their cause embrace,
And crown the paths of piety with peace !
- 4 And O ! when called before their Judge divine,
May they in Zion's wedding-garments shine ;

They who find in Thee their rest !
Saviour, Guardian, heavenly Friend,
O defend us to the end.
- 4 Thine for ever :— Saviour, keep

Safe alone beneath Thy care,

Lead me like a trusting child,
Lest I falter, lest I stray
From the homeward, heavenly way.
- 3 Thou, my Light, my Life, my All !
Now I hear Thy loving call :
"Come, my child, nor longer fear,

 Sweetest hymns of love and

 Of His worth, by all the treasure
 Of thy most ecstatic lays!

2 Of all wonders that can thrill thee,
 And with adoration fill thee,
 What than this can greater be,
 That Himself to thee He giveth?—
 He that eateth ever liveth,—
 For the Bread of Life is He.

 Who this heavenly table spread.
 On this day so glad and holy,
 To each hungering spirit lowly
 Giveth He the living Bread.

 Heavenly love is hither sending,
 Pilgrim lips on earth to feed.
 So the paschal lamb was given,
 So the manna came from heaven,

I have chosen you and ordained you. John xv: 16.

- 1 Lord, pour Thy spirit from on high,
And Thine ordained servants bless;
Graces and gifts to each supply,
And clothe Thy priests with righteousness.
- 2 Within Thy temple when they stand,
To teach the truth as taught by Thee,
Saviour, like stars in Thy right hand,
Let all Thy Church's pastors be.
- 3 Wisdom, and zeal, and love impart,
Firmness and meekness from above,
To bear Thy people in their heart,
And love the souls whom Thou dost love.
- 4 To love, and pray, and never faint,
By day and night their guard to keep,
To warn the sinner, cheer the saint,
To feed Thy lambs, and tend Thy sheep.

Let us come before his face with thanksgiving. Ps. xcv: 2.

1 Now thank we all our God,
With heart, and hands, and voices,

Who wondrous things hath done,
In whom His world rejoices.

Who from our mothers' arms
Hath blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love,
And still is ours to-day.

2 O may this bounteous God
Through all our life be near us,
With ever joyful hearts
And blessed peace to cheer us;

And keep us in His grace,
And guide us when perplexed,
And free us from all ills
In this world and the next.

3 All praise and thanks to God,
The Father, now be given,
The Saviour, King, and Lord
Of all in earth and heaven,
The one eternal God,
Whom earth and heaven adore;
For thus it was, is now,
And shall be evermore.

Deut. xxvi: 11.

vation;

The greatness of His name;

2 When, in distress, to Him we cried,
He heard our sad complaining;
O trust in Him, whate'er betide,
His love is all sustaining;
Triumphant songs of praise

To Him our hearts shall raise;
Now every voice shall say,
"O praise our God away;"
Let all His saints adore Him!

3 Rejoice to-day with one accord,
Sing out with exultation;

thereof. Levit. xxv: 10.

Let all that breathe partake;
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

- 1 At Thy feet, our God and Father,
Who hast blest us all our days
We with grateful hearts would gather,
And begin the year with praise—
Praise for light so brightly shining
On our steps from heaven above ;
Praise for mercies daily twining
Round us golden cords of love.

Sure of being safely guided,

Every burden will be lighter,

Through the City's open gate. DOX. VIII,

471 The Lord hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad. Ps. cxxvi: 3.

- 1 From glory unto glory! Be this our joyous song;
As on the King's own highway, we bravely march along.
From glory unto glory! O word of stirring cheer,
As dawns the solemn brightness of another glad New Year.
- 2 From glory unto glory! What great things He hath done,
What wonders He hath shown us, what triumphs He hath won!
From glory unto glory! What mighty blessings crown
The lives for which our Lord hath laid His own so freely down!
- 3 The fulness of His blessing encompasseth our way;
The fulness of His promises crowns every brightening day;
The fulness of His glory is beaming from above,
While more and more we learn to know the fulness of His love.
- 4 And closer yet and closer the golden bonds shall be,
Uniting all who love our Lord in pure sincerity;
And wider yet and wider shall the circling glory glow,
As more and more are taught of God that mighty love to know.

5 O let our adoration for all that He hath done
 Peal out beyond the stars of God, while voice and life are one ;
 And let our consecration be real, deep and true :
 O even now our hearts shall bow, and joyful vows renew.

6 Now onward, ever onward, from strength to strength we go,
 While grace for grace abundantly shall from His fulness flow,
 To glory's full fruition, from glory's foretaste here,
 Until His very presence crown our happiest New Year.

 Deut. viii : 2.

 Faithful through another year,
 Hear our song of thankfulness ;
 Jesus, our Redeemer, hear.

 In the coming year shall tread
 With Thy rod and staff, O God,
 Comfort Thou his dying bed.

 Rock of strength, be Thou our stay ;
 In the pathless wilderness
 Be our true and living way.

 Keep us evermore Thine own ;
 Help us trials to endure
 That shall fit us for the crown.

473 We will not hide them from their children, shewing to the generation to come the praises of the Lord, and his strength, and the wonderful works that he hath done. Ps. lxxviii: 4.

My King, my God of love :
My work and joy shall be the same,
In brighter worlds above.
- 2 Great is the Lord, His power unknown ;
O let His praise be great :
I'll sing the honors of Thy throne,
Thy works of grace repeat.
- 3 Thy love shall dwell upon my tongue ;
And while my lips rejoice,
The men who hear my sacred song
Shall join their cheerful voice.
- 4 Fathers to sons shall tell Thy name,
And children learn Thy ways ;
Ages to come Thy truth proclaim,
And nations sound Thy praise. Dox. IV.

474 I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and that they may teach them their children. Deut. iv: 10.

Which God performed of old ;
Which in our younger years we saw,
And which our fathers told.
- 2 He bids us make His glories known,
His works of power and grace ;
And we'll convey His wonders down
Through every rising race.
- 3 Our lips shall tell them to our sons,
And they again to theirs,
That generations yet unborn
May teach them to their heirs.
- 4 Thus shall they learn, in God alone
Their hope securely stands,
That they may ne'er forget His works,
But practise His commands. Dox. IV.

With light and shadows strewn ;
We wander oft, and think it Thine,
When walking in our own.

3 Yet pleasant is the work for Thee,
And pleasant is the way ;
But, Lord, the world is dark, and we
Are prone to go astray.

4 O send us light to do Thy work,
More light, more wisdom give ;
Then shall we work Thy work indeed,
While on Thine earth we live.

5 The work is Thine, not ours, O Lord,
It is Thy race we run ;
Give light, and then may all we do
Be well and truly done. Dox. IV.

478 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem ; they shall prosper that love thee. Ps. cxii : 6.

- 1 O 'twas a joyful sound to hear
Our tribes devoutly say,
Up, Israel ! to the temple haste,
And keep your festal day.
- 2 At Salem's courts we must appear
With our assembled powers
In strong and beauteous order ranged,
Like her united towers.
- 3 O ever pray for Salem's peace ;
For they shall prosp'rous be,
Thou holy city of our God,
Who bear true love to Thee.
- 4 May peace within thy sacred walls
A constant guest be found ;
With plenty and prosperity
Thy palaces be crown'd.
- 5 For my dear brethren's sake, and friends
No less than brethren dear,
I'll pray, May peace in Salem's towers
A constant guest appear.
- 6 But most of all I'll seek thy good,
And ever wish thee well,
For Sion and the temple's sake,
Where God vouchsafes to dwell. Dox. IV.

Speak unto the children of Israel that they go forward. Exod. xiv : 15.

1 Forward! be our watchword,
 Steps and voices joined;
 Seek the things before us,
 Not a look behind;
 Burns the fiery pillar
 At our army's head;
 Who shall dream of shrinking,
 By Jehovah led?
 Forward through the desert,

Through the toil and fight:
 Jordan flows before us,
 Zion beams with light.

2 Glories upon glories
 Hath our God prepared,
 By the souls that love Him
 One day to be shared:
 Eye hath not beheld them,
 Ear hath never heard;

 Thought or speech a word :
 Forward, marching eastward,
 Where the heaven is bright,
 Till the veil be lifted,
 Till our faith be sight.

 Rise the city towers,
 Where our God abideth ;

That fair home is ours ;
 Flash the walls with jasper,
 Shine the streets with gold ;
 Flows the gladdening river
 Shedding joys untold.
 Thither, onward thither,
 In Jehovah's might :
 Pilgrims, to your country,
 Forward into light.

I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies. Ps. cxix : 14.

Hearken to our praises, O Thou God of love !
Is there grief or sadness ? Thine it cannot be !
Is our sky be-clouded ? Clouds are not from Thee !
Cho. On our way rejoicing as we homeward move,
Harken to our praises, O Thou God of love !
- 2 If with honest-hearted love for God and man,
Day by day Thou find us doing what we can,
Thou who giv'st the seed-time wilt give large increase,
Crown the head with blessings, fill the heart with peace. Cho.
- 3 On our way rejoicing gladly let us go ;
Conquered hath our Leader, vanished is our foe !
Christ without, our safety ; Christ within, our joy ;
Who, if we be faithful, can our hope destroy ? Cho.

484 Be strong and of good courage, for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest. Josh. i: 9.

1 Onward, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the Cross of Jesus
Going on before.

Christ, the Royal Master,
Leads against the foe,
Forward into battle
See, His banners go.

Cho. Onward, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the Cross of Jesus

2 Like a mighty army
Moves the Church of God;
Brothers, we are treading
Where the Saints have trod;
We are not divided,
All one body we,

One in hope and doctrine,
One in charity. Cho.

3 Crowns and thrones may perish,
Kingdoms rise and wane,
But the Church of Jesus
Constant will remain;
Gates of hell can never
'Gainst that Church prevail;
We have Christ's own promise,
And that cannot fail. Cho.

4 Onward then, ye people,
Join our happy throng,
Blend with ours your voices,
In the triumph song—
Glory, laud and honour,
Unto Christ the King,
This through countless ages
Men and angels sing. Cho.

Our Heaven, our All! |

490 He took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them and blessed them. Mark x: 16.

- 1 I think when I read that sweet story of old,
 When Jesus was here among men,
 How He called little children as lambs to His fold,
 I should like to have been with them then.
- 2 I wish that His hands had been placed on my head,
 That His arm had been thrown around me,
 And that I might have seen His kind look when He said,
 Let the little ones come unto Me.
- 3 Yet still to His footstool in prayer I may go,
 And ask for a share in His love;
 And if I thus earnestly seek Him below,
 I shall see Him and hear Him above—
- 4 In that beautiful place He has gone to prepare
 For all the redeemed and forgiven;
 And many dear children shall be with Him there,
 For of such is the kingdom of heaven.

Let the weak say, I am strong. Joel iii: 10.

- 1 We are but little children weak,
Nor born in any high estate;
What can we do for Jesus' sake,
Who is so high and good and great?
- 2 When deep within our swelling hearts
The thoughts of pride and anger rise,
When bitter words are on our tongues
And tears of passion in our eyes ;
- 3 Then we may stay the angry blow,
Then we may check the hasty word,
Give gentle answers back again,
And fight a battle for our Lord.
- 4 With smiles of peace, and looks of love,
Light in our dwellings we may make,
Bid kind good-humor brighten there,
And do all still for Jesus' sake.
- 5 There's not a child so small and weak
But has his little cross to take,
His little work of love and praise
That he may do for Jesus' sake.

Suffer the little children to come unto me. Mark x: 14.

- 1 I love to hear the story how the Lord from heaven came
And did not fear to visit men in all their sin and shame;
But touched the sick and made them well, the blind, and they did see,
And said of little children "Suffer them to come to Me."
- 2 I love to think of Jesus as my gentle Shepherd Lord
Who leads in heavenly pastures those who love to hear His Word:
And when I am in sorrow, and sore trouble makes me fear,
I hear Him say: "Be not afraid, My child, for I am near!"
- 3 I love to speak to Him alone in word of song and prayer
In darkest night and roughest way, for He is with me there;
And so He guides me that each day I may not fail to see
The way to heaven, that where He is, there also I may be.

Suffer the little children to come unto me. Luke xviii : 16

(Tune 498, using slurs.)

- 1 I love to hear the story
Which angel voices tell,
How once the King of glory
Came down on earth to dwell.
I am both weak and sinful,
But this I surely know,
The Lord come down to save me,
Because He loved me so.
- 2 I'm glad my blessed Saviour
Was once a child like me,
So gentle and obedient
As we should also be.
- And if I try to follow
His footsteps here below,
He never will forsake me,
Because He loves me so.
- 3 To tell His love and mercy
My sweetest songs I'll raise;
And though I cannot see Him,
I know He hears my praise;
For He Himself has promised
That even I may go
To sing among His angels,
Because He loves me so.

- 2 I thank Thee, Lord and Father mild,
And all Thine angels too,

Thy holy will to do.

And all Thy laws to heed,
That into heav'n I may be brought,

| the shrine. | The Lord to Hannah's son revealed. |

- 3 O give me Samuel's ear,
The open ear, O Lord,
Alive and quick to hear
Each whisper of Thy word !
Like him to answer at Thy call,
And to obey Thee first of all.
- 4 O give me Samuel's heart,
A lowly heart, that waits
Where in Thy house Thou art,
Or watches at Thy gates!
- By day and night, a heart that still Moves at the breathing of Thy will.
- 5 O give me Samuel's mind,
A sweet, un murmuring faith,
Obedient and resigned
To Thee in life and death !
That I may read with child-like
eyes
Truths that are hidden from the wise.

As I have loved you. John xv : 12.

- 1 Saviour ! teach me day by day,
Love's sweet lesson to obey ;
Sweeter lesson cannot be,
Loving Him who first loved me.
- 2 With a child's glad heart of love,
At Thy bidding may I move ;
Prompt to serve and follow Thee,
Loving Him who first loved me.
- 3 Teach me all Thy steps to trace,
Strong to follow in Thy grace ;
- Learning how to love from Thee ;
Loving Him who first loved me.
- 4 Love in loving finds employ,
In obedience all her joy ;
Ever new that joy will be,
Loving Him who first loved me.
- 5 Thus may I rejoice to show
That I feel the love I owe ;
Singing, till the face I see,
Of His love who first loved me.

The children singing in the temple. Matt. xxi : 15.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 With gladsome hearts we come
 Within our holy home,
 Our Saviour's Name to sing.
 O well His House we love !
 O joy all joys above,
 To praise the children's King! | 3 O may we, while we live,
 Such willing service give,
 A holy offering !
 And still Thy glory show
 By deeds of love below,
 To praise the children's King. |
| 2 The angels sing on high
 Thy glory through the sky,
 And then to earth they wing ;
 To guard us while we sleep,
 And, as their watch they keep,
 To praise the children's King. | 4 O Light of Light, to Thee
 Let earth and sky and sea
 Eternal homage bring ;
 And grant us through Thy love,
 Before Thy throne above,
 To praise the children's King. |

508

He leadeth me beside the still waters. Ps. xxiii : 2.

- 1 All things beautiful and fair,
Earth and sky and balmy air,
Sunny field and shady grove,
Gently whisper, God is love.
- 2 Every tree and flower we pass,
Every tuft of waving grass,
Every sparrow, every dove
Seems to whisper, God is love.
- 3 Little streams that glide along,
Verdant, mossy banks among,
Shadowing forth the clouds above,
Softly murmur, God is love.
- 4 He who dwelleth high in heaven
Unto us hath all things given ;
May we, as through life we move
Ever feel that God is love.

509

Thou, God, seest me. Gen. xvi: 13.

- 1 In our work, and in our play,
Jesus, be Thou ever near;
Guarding, guiding all the day,
Keeping in Thy holy fear.
- 2 Thou didst toil, O royal Child,
In the far-off Holy Land,
Blessing labor undefiled,
Pure and honest, of the hand.
- 3 Thou wilt bless our play-hour too,
If we ask Thy succor strong;
Watch o'er all we say or do,
Hold us back from guilt and wrong.
- 4 O! how happy thus to spend
Work and playtime in His sight,
Who that day which shall not end
Gives to those who do the right.

510

If any man will follow me, let him deny himself and take up his cross. Matt. xvi : 24.

- 1 He who would valiant be
'Gainst all disaster,
Let him in constancy
Follow the Master.
There's no discouragement
Shall make him once relent
His first avowed intent
To be a pilgrim.
- 2 Who so beset him round
With dismal stories,
Do but themselves confound—
His strength the more is.

No foes shall stay his might,
Though he with giants fight:
He will make good his right
To be a pilgrim.

- 3 Since, Lord, thou dost defend
Us with thy Spirit,
We know we at the end
Shall life inherit.
Then fancies flee away!
I'll fear not what men say,
I'll labor night and day
To be a pilgrim.

511

And was subject to them. Luke ii: 51.

- 1 Behold a little Child,
Laid in a manger bed ;
The wintry blasts blow wild
Around His infant head.
But who is this so lowly laid ?
'Tis He by whom the worlds were made.
- 2 Where Joseph plies his trade,
Lo! Jesus labors too ;
The hands that all things made
An earthly craft pursue,
That weary men in Him may rest,
And faithful toil through Him be blest.
- 3 Lord ! once Thyself a boy,
Our childhood guard and guide ;
Be Thou its light and joy,
And still with us abide,
That Thy dear love, so great and free,
May draw us evermore to Thee.

He shall save his people from their sins. Matt. i : 21.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 Child Jesus comes from heavenly height | 2 Take courage, soul in grief cast down, |
| To save us from sin's keeping ; | Forget the bitter dealing : |
| On manger straw, in darksome night, | A Child is born in David's town |
| The Blessed One lies sleeping. | To touch all souls with healing. |
| The star smiles down, the angels greet, | Then let children seek the Child, |
| The oxen kiss the Baby's feet : | Like Him be meek and undefiled, |
| Alleluia, Alleluia, Child Jesus ! | Alleluia, Alleluia, Child Jesus ! |

513 And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flocks by night. Luke ii : 8.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 While shepherds watched their flocks by night,
All seated on the ground,
The angel of the Lord came down,
And glory shone around.
"Fear not" said he, (for mighty dread
Had seized their troubled mind);
"Glad tidings of great joy I bring
To you and all mankind." | The heavenly Babe you there shall find
To human view displayed,
All meanly wrapped in swathing bands,
And in a manger laid." |
| 2 "To you in David's town this day
Is born of David's line
The Saviour, who is Christ the Lord ;
And this shall be the sign : | 3 Thus spake the angel ; and forthwith
Appeared a shining throng
Of angels, praising God, and thus Address'd their joyful song :
"All glory be to God on high,
And to the earth be peace ;
Good-will henceforth from heaven to men
Begin, and never cease !" |

Unto us a child is born. Isa. ix: 6.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 Once in royal David's city
 Stood a lowly cattle shed,
 Where a mother laid her baby
 In a manger for His bed;
 Mary was that mother mild,
 Jesus Christ, that little child. 2 He came down to earth from heaven
 Who is God and Lord of all,
 And His shelter was a stable,
 And His cradle was a stall;
 With the poor, the mean, and lowly,
 Lived on earth our Saviour holy. 3 And, thro' all His wondrous childhood,
 He would honor and obey,
 Love and watch the lowly maiden,
 In whose gentle arms He lay; | Christian children all must be
 Mild, obedient, good as He. 4 For He is our childhood's pattern,
 Day by day like us He grew,
 He was little, weak, and helpless,
 Tears and smiles like us He knew;
 And He feeleth for our sadness,
 And He shareth in our gladness. 5 And our eyes at last shall see Him,
 Through His own redeeming
 love,
 For that Child so dear and gentle
 Is our Lord in Heaven above;
 And He leads His children on
 To the place where He is gone. |

515 Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes lying in a manger. Luke ii : 12.

1 "O how shall I keep my Christ- mas?" My heart whispered softly to me, For I had been reading the story Of the Lord's nativity ; And slowly and clearly before me The words like pictures rise, And the scenes appear in the beauty Of the starry Syrian skies.	2 O cradled He was in a manger ! For lowly and poor was He, Whose throne is the splendors of heav'n, Whose pow'r is infinity ; And He bore His cross to save us, To save us from death and sin, And He trod all alone the wine- press, To make us pure and clean.
--	--

- 3 In glory the hosts of the angels
Came singing His song of praise,
And filling the heav'ns with their music
In those wonderful old days :
Singing "Glory to God in the highest!"
And "Peace upon Earth," and then
The mighty chorus of voices
Pealed forth "Good Will to Men."
- 4 "O how shall I keep my Christmas?"
As they keep it in heav'n above;
O keep it with peace and thanksgiving,
And kindest deeds of love;
And share with the poor and needy
The joys which the Lord gives
thee;
And thy heart shall keep with the angels
The Lord's Nativity.

516

For unto you is born this day a Saviour. Luke ii: 11.

- 1 A Child this day is born,
A Child of high renown;
Most worthy of a sceptre,
A sceptre and a crown.
Glad tidings to all men,
Glad tidings sing we may,
Because the King of kings
Was born on Christmas day.
- 'Twas by an angel unto them
That night revealed and told.
Glad tidings, etc.
- 3 They praised the Lord, our God
And our celestial King:
All glory be in Paradise,
This heavenly host do sing.
Glad tidings, etc.
- 2 These tidings shepherds heard,
Whilst watching o'er their fold;

517

The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light. Is. ix: 2.

- 1 All this night bright angels sing ;
 Never was such caroling.
 Hark ! a voice which loudly cries :
 " Mortals, mortals, wake and rise.
 Lo ! to gladness
 Turns your sadness,
 From the earth is ris'n a Sun,
 Shines all night, though day be done.

- 2 Wake, O earth, wake, everything !
 Wake, and hear the joy I bring ;
 Wake and joy, for all this night
 Heaven and every twinkling light,
 All amazing,
 Still stand gazing :
 Angels, powers, and all that be,
 Wake and joy this Sun to see ! "

- 3 Hail ! O Sun, O blessèd Light !
 Sent into this world by night :
 Let Thy rays and heavenly pow'rs
 Shine in these dark souls of ours.
 For most duly,
 Thou art truly
 God and man we do confess —
 Hail, O Sun of righteousness !

520 They presented unto him gifts, gold, and frankincense, and myrrh. Matt. ii: 11.

1 Waken, Christian children,
Up, and let us sing,
With glad hearts and voices,
Of our newborn King.
Up! 'tis meet to welcome
With a joyous lay
Christ, the King of Glory,
Born for us to-day.

2 In a manger lowly
Sleeps the heavenly Child,
O'er Him fondly bendeth
Mary, Mother mild.
Far above that stable,
Up in heaven so high,
One bright star outshineth,
Watching silently.

3 Fear not, then, to enter,
Though we cannot bring
Gold, or myrrh, or incense,
Fitting for a King.
Gifts He asketh richer,
Offerings costlier still,
Yet may Christian children
Bring them if they will.

4 Brighter than all jewels
Shines the modest eye;
Best of gifts, He loveth
Infant purity.
Haste we, then, to welcome
With a joyous lay
Christ, the King of Glory,
Born for us to-day.

Behold I bring you tidings of great joy. Luke ii : 10.

- 1 Once again, O blessed time,
Thankful hearts embrace thee;
If we lost thy festal chime,
||: What could e'er replace thee?: ||
Change will darken many a day,
Many a bond dissever;
Many a joy shall pass away,
||: But the "Great Joy" never.: ||
- 2 Once again the holy night
Breathes its blessing tender;
Once again the manger light
||: Sheds its gentle splendor; : ||
O could tongues by angels taught
Speak our exultation
In the virgin's Child that brought
||: All mankind salvation! : ||
- 3 Welcome! Thou to souls athirst,
Fount of endless pleasure;
Gates of hell may do their worst
||: While we clasp our treasure: : ||
Welcome, though an age like this Puts Thy name on trial,
And the truth that makes our bliss
||: Pleads against denial. : ||
- 4 Yea, if others stand apart,
We will press the nearer;
Yea, O best all-loving Heart,
||: We will hold Thee dearer; : ||
Faithful lips shall answer thus
To all faithless scorning,
"Jesus Christ is God with us,
||: Born on Christmas morning." : ||
- 5 So we yield Thee all we can,
Worship, thanks, and blessing;
Thee True God, and Thee True
Man,
||: On our knees confessing; : ||
While Thy birthday morn we greet
With our best devotion,
Bathe us, O most true and sweet!
||: In Thy mercy's ocean. : ||
- 6 Thou that once, 'mid stable cold,
Wast in babe-clothes lying,
Thou whose altar-veils enfold
||: Power and life undying; : ||
Thou whose love bestows a worth
On each poor endeavor,
Have Thou joy of this Thy birth
||: In our praise forever! : ||

And thou, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah. Matt. ii : 6.

- 1 O little town of Bethlehem !
 How still we see thee lie,
 Above thy deep and dreamless sleep,
 The silent stars go by.
 Yet in thy dark streets shineth
 The everlasting Light ;
 The hopes and fears of all the years
 ||: Are met in thee to-night. :||

- 2 For Christ is born of Mary,
 And, gathered all above,
 While mortals sleep the angels keep
 Their watch of wondering love.
 O morning stars, together
 Proclaim the holy birth !
 And praises sing to God the King,
 ||: And peace to men on earth. :||

- 3 How silently, how silently,
 The wondrous gift is given,
 So God imparts to human hearts
 The blessings of His heaven.
 No ear may hear His coming,
 But in this world of sin,
 Where meek souls will receive Him still,
 ||: The dear Christ enters in. :||

- 4 O holy child of Bethlehem !
 Descend to us, we pray ;
 Cast out our sins and enter in,
 Be born in us to-day.
 We hear the Christmas angels
 The great, glad tidings tell ;
 O come to us, abide with us,
 ||: Our Lord Emmanuel ! :||

523

Glory to God in the highest. Luke ii: 14.

- 1 Clear upon the night-air sounding,
 Sweetly echoing o'er the plain,
 Fell the angel-voice, announcing,
 "Christ is born in Bethlehem."
 Clearer, sweeter, swelled the chorus,
 From the angel host around,
 "Glory, glory in the highest,
 And on earth good will abound."
 As the angels sang we sing,
 Glory to the new-born King,
 And our song we'll never cease,
 ||: Glory to the Prince of Peace! :||

- 2 Prophets told the wondrous story
 Of the future King and Lord;
 Who from upper realms of glory
 Should descend, our Light and Word.
 But they knew not all His brightness
 Nor the fulness of His grace,—
 Could not join the heavenly chorus,
 Nor the song of triumph raise.
 As the angels sang we sing,
 Glory to our God and King,
 And our song we'll never cease,
 ||: Glory to the Prince of Peace! :||

1 Come, children, with singing,
 With sweet voices ringing,
Come kneel to the Babe that in Bethlehem lies,
 While angels a-choir,
 With pinions of fire,
Are filling with music the list'ning skies.

2 Repeat the dear story
 How, veiling His glory,
The Hope of the Ages came down to the earth,
 Oh, worship Him lowly,
 The lofty and holy!
Our Star of the Morning shone out at His birth.

3 See Mary enfold Him,
 While shepherds behold Him,
And sages are bent at His beautiful feet.
 Come, haste to adore Him,
 And, bowing before Him,
The Lord who redeems you in reverence greet.

4 This wonderful Stranger,
 His couch is a manger,
His cradle is made with the cattle in stall;
 Yet God of creation,
 In blest incarnation,
He stoops to our nature to ransom us all.

5 Rock, bells, in the steeple,
 Shout loudly, good people,
And, children, oh, merrily, merrily sing!
 O'er land and o'er ocean,
 With joyful commotion,
Send forth the glad tidings that Jesus is King!

He will swallow up death in victory. Isa. xxv : 8.

- 1 "Welcome, happy morning !" age to age shall say :
Hell to-day is vanquished ; heaven is won to-day ;
Lo! the Dead is living, God forevermore !
Him their true Creator all His works adore.
"Welcome, happy morning," age to age shall say.
- 2 Earth with joy confesses, clothing her for spring,
All good gifts returned with her returning King;
Bloom in every meadow, leaves on every bough,
Speak His sorrow ended, hail His triumph now.
Hell to-day is vanquished, heaven is won to-day.
- 3 Months in due succession, days of lengthening light,
Hours and passing moments praise Thee in their flight ;
Brightness of the morning, sky, and fields, and sea,
Vanquisher of darkness, bring their praise to Thee.
"Welcome, happy morning," age to age shall say.
- 4 Maker and Redeemer, life and health of all,
Thou from heaven beholding human nature's fall,
Able to restore us, Thou the only One,
Manhood to deliver, manhood didst put on.
Hell to-day is vanquished ; heaven is won to-day.
- 5 Loose the souls long prisoned, bound with Satan's chain ;
All that now is fallen raise to life again ;
Show Thy face in brightness, bid the nations see ;
Bring again our daylight : day returns with Thee.
"Welcome, happy morning," age to age shall say.

The Lord is risen indeed. Luke xxiv: 34.

- 1 Let the whole creation sing
 Joyous carols to our King;
 Your voices raise
 In songs of praise
 On this glád day.
 All praise to Him is given,
 For the hope He gives of heav'n,
 For life and love that come to us
 This Easter morn.
 Gone the night!
 The world is filled with light,
 For He hath risen indeed,
 And we no more shall mourn.
 He rose, He rose,
 In triumph o'er our foes,
 For us the Lord of life arose
 This Easter morn. (D.C. first ten lines.)
- 2 Now a nobler song of love
 Let us sing to Him above
 Whose gladsome light
 Dispels the night
 On this glád day.
 Let every heart and voice
 In this happy hour rejoice,
 The earth now stirs with gladness;
 Death is no more King.
 Gone the night! etc.

As it began to dawn. Matt. xxviii: 1.

- 1 O sons and daughters, let us sing!
The King of heaven, the glorious King,
O'er death to-day rose triumphing.
Alleluia!
- 2 That Sunday morn, at break of day,
The faithful women went their way
To seek the tomb where Jesus lay.
Alleluia!
- 3 An angel clad in white they see,
Who sat and spake unto the three,
"Your Lord doth go to Galilee."
Alleluia!

- 4 That night the apostles met in fear;
Amid them came their Lord most dear,
And said, "My peace be on all here."
Alleluia !

- 5 When Thomas first the tidings heard,
He doubted if it were the Lord,
Until he came and spake this word:
Alleluia !

- 6 "My pierced side, O Thomas, see;
My hands, my feet I show to thee;
Nor faithless, but believing be."
Alleluia !

- 7 No longer Thomas then denied;
He saw the feet, the hands, the side;
"Thou art my Lord and God," he cried.
Alleluia !

- 8 How blest are they who have not seen
And yet whose faith has constant been,
For they eternal life shall win.
Alleluia !

- 9 On this most holy day of days,
To God your hearts and voices raise
In laud, and jubilee, and praise.
Alleluia !

DOXOLOGY.

Glory and praises ever be,
O Jesus Christ, our Lord, to Thee,
Reigning on high eternally.

534 He hath broken the gates of brass, and cut the bars of iron in sunder. Ps. cvii : 16.

- 1 Lift your glad voices in triumph on high,
For Jesus hath risen, and man shall not die,
Vain were the terrors that gathered around Him,
And vain the dominion of death and the grave ;
He burst from the fetters of darkness that bound Him,
Resplendent in glory to live and to save.

Refrain. Loud lift your voices in triumph on high
For Jesus hath risen, and man shall not die.

- 2 Glory to God in full anthems of joy;
The being He gave us death cannot destroy.
Sad were the life we must part with tomorrow,
If tears were our birth-right and death were our end.
But Jesus hath cheered the dark valley of sorrow,
And bade us, immortal, to heaven ascend.

Refrain. Loud lift, etc.

And I beheld many angels. Rev. v : II.

1 Ten thousand times ten thousand
 In sparkling raiment bright,
 The armies of the ransomed saints
 Throng up the steeps of light :
 'Tis finished, all is finished,
 Their fight with death and sin :
 Fling open wide the golden gates,
 And let the victors in.

2 What rush of alleluias
 Fills all the earth and sky ;
 What ringing of a thousand harps
 Bespeaks the triumph nigh.
 O day, for which Creation

And all its tribes were made ;
 O joy, for all our former woes
 A thousand fold repaid.

3 O then what raptured greetings
 On heaven's happy shore ;
 What knitting severed friendships up,
 Where partings are no more !
 Then eyes with joy shall sparkle,
 That brimmed with tears of late :
 Orphans no longer fatherless,
 Nor widows desolate.

He that goeth forth and weepeth. Ps. cxxvi: 6.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 O happy band of pilgrims,
If onward ye will tread
With Jesus as your fellow,
To Jesus as your Head! | 5 What are they but forerunners
To lead you to his sight?
What are they save the effluence
Of uncreated light? |
| 2 O happy if ye labor
As Jesus did for men;
O happy if ye hunger
As Jesus hungered then! | 6 The trials that beset you,
The sorrows ye endure,
The manifold temptations
That death alone can cure, |
| 3 The Cross that Jesus carried
He carried as your due;
The Crown that Jesus weareth
He weareth it for you. | 7 What are they but his jewels
Of right celestial worth?
What are they but the ladder
Set up to heaven on earth? |
| 4 The faith by which ye see him,
The hope in which ye yearn,
The love that through all troubles
To Him alone will turn, | 8 O happy band of pilgrims,
Look upward to the skies,
Where such a light affliction
Shall win you such a prize! |

In my Father's house are many mansions. John xiv: 2.

- 1 As, when the weary traveller gains
The height of some commanding hill,
His heart revives, if o'er the plains
He sees his home, though distant still;
- 2 Thus when the Christian pilgrim views
By faith his mansion in the skies,
The sight his fainting strength renews,
And wings his speed to reach the prize.
- 3 The thought of home his spirit cheers ;
No more he grieves for troubles past ;
Nor any future trial fears
So he may safe arrive at last.
- 4 Jesus, on Thee our hopes we stay,
To lead us on to Thine abode ;
Assured Thy love will far o'erpay
The hardest labors of the road. Dox. II.

Hear my prayer, O Lord, and let my cry come unto thee. Ps. cii : 1

- 1 Nearer, O God, to Thee !
Hear Thou our prayer ;
E'en though a heavy cross
Fainting we bear,
Still all our prayer shall be,
Nearer, O God, to Thee,
|| : Nearer to Thee ! ||
- 2 If, where they led Thee, Lord,
We too are borne,
Planting our steps in Thine,
Weary and worn ;
There even let us be
Nearer, O God, to Thee,
|| : Nearer to Thee ! : ||
- 3 If Thou the cup of pain
Givest to drink,
Let not the trembling lip
From the draught shrink ;

- So by our woes to be
Nearer, O God, to Thee,
|| : Nearer to Thee ! ||
- 4 Though the great battle rage
Hotly around,
Still where our Captain fights
Let us be found ;
Thro' toils and strife to be
Nearer, O God, to Thee,
|| : Nearer to Thee ! : ||
- 5 When through death's shining gate
To Thee we come,
Oh ! for a dwelling-place,
In Thy bright home !
Through all eternity
Nearer, O God, to Thee,
|| : Nearer to Thee ! : ||

The sun gone down,
Darkness be over me,
My rest a stone;

Steps unto heaven;
All that Thou sendest me

Lord, save us ; we perish. Matt. viii : 25.

- 1 When through the torn sail the wild tempest is streaming,
When o'er the dark wave the red lightning is gleaming,
Nor hope lends a ray the poor seaman to cherish,
We fly to our Saviour :—"Save, Lord, or we perish."
- 2 O Jesus, once rocked on the breast of the billow,
Aroused by the shriek of despair from Thy pillow,
Now seated in glory, the mariner cherish,
Who cries in his anguish, "Save, Lord, or we perish."
- 3 And O, when the whirlwind of passion is raging,
When sin in our hearts its wild warfare is waging,
Then send down Thy grace, Thy redeemed to cherish ;
Rebuke the destroyer : "Save, Lord, or we perish."

541

In my Father's house are many mansions. John xiv: 2.

- 1 Thou Lord, who here hast made my life so pleasant,
Leave not its tenant when its walls decay;
O Love divine, O Helper ever present,
Be Thou my strength and stay!
- 2 Be near me when all else is from me drifting,
Earth, sky, home's picture, days of shade and shine,
And kindly faces to my own uplifting
The love which answers mine.
- 3 I have but Thee, O Father! Let Thy Spirit
Be with me then to comfort and uphold;
No gate of pearl, no branch of palm, I merit,
Nor street of shining gold.
- 4 Suffice it if, my good and ill unreckoned,
And all forgiven through Thy abounding grace,
I find myself by hands familiar beckoned
Unto my fitting place.
- 5 Some humble door among Thy many mansions,
Some sheltering shade where sin and striving cease,
And flows forever through heaven's green expansions
The river of Thy peace.
- 6 There from the music round about me stealing,
I fain would learn the new and holy song,
And find at last, beneath Thy trees of healing,
The life for which I long.

To whisper, "Peace, be still !" |

| 6 If duty calls from threatened strife
To guard our native shore,
And shot and shell are answering

And thro' the world make peace. |

8 When tempest-tost in seas of doubt Hearts sink, and cheeks grow pale, May we, within the Church, Thine ark, Secure outside the gale.	10 Then may Thy Word the compass prove To steer our course afar, Thy hope our anchor lest we drift, Thy love, our polar star.

9 And may our anchor, grappling still Fast moored to that firm Rock, By being held of Thee, hold on And brave the tempest shock.	11 Across this troubled tide of life Thyself our Pilot be, Until we reach that better land, The land that knows no sea.

543 The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose. Isa. xxxv; 1.

1 Lo! for us the wilds are glad, All in cheerful green arrayed; Opening sweets they all disclose, Bud and blossom as the rose.	3 Lo! abundantly they bloom Lebanon is hither come. Carmel's stores the heavens dispense, Sharon's fertile excellence.
2 Hark! the wastes have found a voice; Lonely deserts now rejoice, Gladsome alleluias sing To the great, Almighty King.	4 May these barren wastes of ours Bloom, and put forth fruits and flowers; Flowers of wisdom, fruits of love, Gifts imparted from above. Dox. VI.

544

Have faith and doubt not. Matt. xxi : 21.

- 1 What within me and without
Hourly on my spirit weighs,
Burdening heart and soul with doubt,
Darkening all my weary days.
- 2 In it I behold Thy will,
God, who givest rest and peace ;
And my heart is calm and still,
Waiting till Thou send release.
- 3 Yea, on Thee, my God, I rest,
Letting life float calmly on,
For I know the last is best,
When the crown of joy is won.
- 4 In Thy might all things I bear,
In Thy love find bitter sweet,
And, with all my grief and care,
Sit in patience at Thy feet.
- 5 Let Thy mercy's wings be spread
O'er me—keep me close to Thee ;
In the peace Thy love doth shed
Let me dwell eternally.
- 6 Be my all ; in all I do,
Let me only seek Thy will ;
Where the heart to Thee is true,
All is peaceful, calm, and still. Dox. VI.

545 He that taketh not his cross and followeth after me, is not worthy of me. Matt. x: 38

- 1 Lord, as we to Thy mercy flee
And plead to be forgiven,
So let Thy life our pattern be,
And form our souls for heaven.
- 2 Help us, through good report and ill,
Our daily cross to bear;
Like Thee, to do our Father's will,
Our brethren's griefs to share.
- 3 Let grace our selfishness expel,
Our earthliness refine;
And kindness in our bosoms dwell,
Both free and true like Thine.
- 4 If joy shall at Thy bidding fly,
And grief's dark day come on,
We in our turn would meekly cry,
"Father, Thy will be done."
- 5 Kept peaceful in the midst of strife,
Forgiving and forgiven;
O may we lead the pilgrim's life,
And follow Thee to heaven.

546 Thou shalt fear the Lord thy God ; him shalt thou serve, and to him shalt thou cleave.
Deut. x : 20.

- 1 O Holy Saviour ! Friend unseen,
The faint, the weak on Thee may lean :
Help me, throughout life's changing scene,
In faith to cling to Thee !
- 2 Without a murmur I dismiss
My former dreams of earthly bliss ;
My joy, my recompense be this,
Each hour to cling to Thee !
- 3 Oft when I seem to tread alone
Life's dreary waste, with thorns o'ergrown,
A voice of love, in gentlest tone,
Whispers , " Still cling to me ! "
- 4 Though faith and hope awhile be tried,
I ask not, need not, aught beside ;
So safe, so calm, so satisfied,
The soul that clings to Thee !
- 5 Blest is my lot, whate'er befall ;
What can disturb me, who appal,
While, as my strength, my rock, my all,
Saviour, I cling to Thee ?

As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world. John ix: 5.

1 O Thou, our God and Father,
 Whose majesty and might
 Do fill the heaven with glory,
 Eternal Light of light;
 O'er this our home of darkness
 Thy rays are streaming now;
 The shadows flee before Thee,
 The world's true Light art
 Thou.

2 Yet, Lord, we see but darkly:—
 O heavenly Light, arise,
 Dispel these mists that shroud us,
 And hide Thee from our eyes!

We long to track the footprints
 That Thou Thyself hast trod;
 We long to see the pathway
 That leads to Thee our God.

3 O Jesus, shine around us
 With radiance of Thy grace;
 O Jesus, turn upon us
 The brightness of Thy face.
 We need no star to guide us,
 As on our way we press,
 If Thou Thy light vouchsafest,
 O Sun of Righteousness!

For a small moment have I forsaken thee, but with great mercies will I gather thee. Isa. liv: 7.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 Almighty God, I call to Thee,
By sore temptation shaken.
Incline Thy gracious ear to me,
And leave me not forsaken,
For who that feels the power within,
Of past remorse and present sin,
Can stand, O Lord, before
Thee? | 3 And though I travail all the night,
And travail all the morrow,
My trust is in Jehovah's might,
My triumph in my sorrow;
Forgetting not that Thou of old
Did'st Israel, though weak, uphold,
When weakest then most loving. |
| 2 On Thee alone my stay I place,
All human help rejecting,
Relying on Thy sovereign grace,
Thy sovereign aid expecting.
I rest upon Thy sacred word:
Thou wilt repel him not, O Lord,
Who to Thy mercy fleeth. | 4 What tho' my sinfulness be great,
Redeeming love is greater;
What though all hell should lie in wait,
Supreme is my Creator;
And He my rock and fortress is,
And when most helpless, most
I'm His,
My Strength and my Redeemer. |

Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.

Habakkuk ii: 2.

- | | | | |
|---|--|---|--|
| 1 | There is a book, who runs may read,
Which heavenly truth imparts;
And all the lore its scholars need,
Pure eyes and Christian hearts. | | That crown His holy hill:
The saints, like stars, around His seat
Perform their courses still. |
| 2 | The works of God above, below,
Within us and around,
Are pages in that book to show
How God Himself is found. | 6 | The dew of heaven is like Thy grace,
It steals in silence down;
But where it lights, the favored
place,
By richest fruits is known. |
| 3 | The glorious sky embracing all
Is like the Maker's love;
Wherewith encompassed, great and small
In peace and order move. | 7 | One Name above all glorious names,
With its ten thousand tongues,
The everlasting sea proclaims,
Echoing angelic songs. |
| 4 | The moon above, the Church below,
A wondrous race they run;
But all their radiance, all their glow,
Each borrows of its sun. | 8 | Thou, who hast given me eyes to see
And love this sight so fair,
Give me a heart to find out Thee,
And read Thee everywhere. |

The mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed ; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, saith the Lord that hath mercy on thee. Isa. liv : 10.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 O comfort to the weary !
 O balm to the distressed !
 To lean, when life is dreary,
 Upon the Saviour's breast :
 Amid its cares and sorrows,
 To feel Him always nigh ;
 While earth a radiance borrows
 From hopes beyond the sky. | 3 O Saviour meek and lowly,
 Our never-failing Friend !
 Teach us to trust Thee wholly,
 And on Thy grace depend :
 In mercy watching o'er us,
 Whene'er our feet may stray,
 With gentle love restore us,
 And lead us in Thy way. |
| 2 O sweetness passing measure,
 To taste the Saviour's love :
 And know our choicest treasure
 Is safe with Him above !
 To prove His care, how tender !
 His Providence, how wise !
 Our Guardian and Defender,
 Whose goodness never dies. | 4 When sorrows, Lord ! o'ertake us,
 Thy promises are sure :
 Thou never wilt forsake us,
 Thy mercies still endure.
 Soon may we stand before Thee,
 And see Thee face to face,
 Where saints with joy adore Thee
 And ever sing Thy praise. |

551

Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the Lord.

Jer. xxiii: 24.

- 1 On mountains and in valleys
Where'er we go is God;
The cottage and the palace
Alike are His abode.
With watchful eye abiding
Upon us with delight,
Our souls, in Him confiding,
He keeps both day and night.
- 2 Above me and beside me,
My God is ever near,
To watch, protect, and guide me,
Whatever ills appear.
Though other friends may fail me;
In sorrow's dark abode,
Though death itself assail me,
I'm ever safe with God.

552

Lord, to whom shall we go? Thou hast the words of eternal life. John vi: 68.

- 1 Teach me to do the thing that pleaseth Thee ;
O Thou, my God, in whom I live and move ;
Oh, let Thy loving Spirit lead me forth
Into the ways of righteousness and love.
- 2 Thy love the law and impulse of my soul,
Thine arm the refuge whither I may flee ;
Thy loving Spirit mercy's sweet control
To make me liker, draw me nearer Thee.
- 3 My highest hope to be where, Lord, Thou art,
To lose myself in Thee my richest gain,
To do Thy will the habit of my heart,
To grieve Thy Spirit my severest pain.
- 4 Thy smile my sunshine, all my peace from thence,
That peace which only self-love can destroy :
Thy joy my sorrow at the least offence,
My sorrow that I am not more Thy joy.

553

Sing unto the Lord . . . talk ye of all his wondrous works. Ps. cv : 2.

- 1 I sing the almighty power of God,
That made the mountains rise ;
That spread the flowing seas abroad,
And built the lofty skies.
- 2 I sing the wisdom that ordained
The sun to rule the day ;
The moon shines full at His command,
And all the stars obey.
- 3 I sing the goodness of the Lord,
That filled the earth with food :
He formed the creatures with His word,
And then pronounced them good.
- 4 Lord, how Thy wonders are displayed
Where'er I turn mine eye—
If I survey the ground I tread,
Or gaze upon the sky.
- 5 His hand is my perpetual guard ;
He keeps me with His eye ;
Why should I then forget the Lord,
Who is forever nigh ?

(FIRST TUNE.)

Rejoice with me : for I have found my sheep which was lost. Luke xv: 6.

- 1 There were ninety and nine that safely lay
 In the shelter of the fold,
 But one was out on the hills away,
 Far off from the gates of gold —
 Away on the mountains wild and bare,
 ||: Away from the tender Shepherd's care.:||

- 2 " Lord, Thou hast here Thy ninety and nine ;
 Are they not enough for Thee ?"
 But the Shepherd made answer : " This of mine
 Has wandered away from me,
 And, although the road be rough and steep
 ||: I go to the desert to find My sheep.:||

- 3 But none of the ransomed ever knew
 How deep were the waters cross'd ;
 Nor how dark was the night that the Lord pass'd through
 Ere He found His sheep that was lost.
 Out in the desert He heard its cry —
 ||: Sick and helpless, and ready to die.:||

- 4 But all through the mountains, thunder-riven,
 And up from the rocky steep,
 There arose a glad cry to the gate of heaven,
 " Rejoice ! I have found My sheep !"
 And the angels echoed around the throne,
 ||: " Rejoice ! for the Lord brings back His own !":||

He bowed the heavens also and came down 2 Sam. xxii: 10.

- 1 Holy Love, from heav'n descended,
 Let us feel Thy kindling flame!
 Thou hast earth and heaven blended,
 Love, that out of heaven came.
 Thou hast thrown a smile of beauty
 Over meadow, hill and grove,
 Thou hast quickened us to duty,
 Thou hast warmed our hearts to love.
- 2 Holy Love, from heaven descended,
 Let us feel Thy kindling flame!
 Thou hast earth and heaven
 blended,
 Love that out of heaven came.
- Thine the gift of smiling flowers,
 Thine the lofty mountain pine;
 Thine the fruit-tree's golden shower,
 Thine the close entwining vine.
- 3 Stay Thou with us, and replenish
 Still our hearts with warmest
 love;
 Discord and dissension banish,
 Loving Spirit from above.
 Holy Love, from heaven descended,
 Let us feel Thy kindling flame!
 Thou hast earth and heaven blended,
 Love that out of heaven came.

I had fainted unless I had believed to see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living. Ps. xxvii: 13.

- 1 Father! in Thy mysterious presence kneeling,
Fain would our souls receive Thy kindling love;
For we are weak, and need some deep revealing
Of trust, and strength, and calmness from above.
- 2 Lord! we have wandered forth through doubt and sorrow,
And Thou hast made each step an onward one;
And we will trust in each unknown to-morrow
Thou wilt sustain us till its work is done.
- 3 In the heart's depths, a peace serene and holy Lingers; and when pain seems to have her will,
Or we despair, oh! may that peace rise slowly,
Stronger than agony, and we be still.
- 4 Now, Father! now in Thine own presence kneeling,
Our spirits yearn to feel Thy kindling love;
O make us strong; we need Thy deep revealing
Of trust, and strength, and calmness from above.

Only be thou strong and very courageous. Josh. 1: 7.

- 1 Father, hear the prayer we offer ;
Not for ease that prayer shall be ;
But for strength that we may ever
Live our lives courageously.
- 2 Not for ever in green pastures
Do we ask our way to be ;
But the steep and rugged pathway
May we tread rejoicingly.
- 3 Not for ever by still waters
Would we idly rest and stay ;
But would smite the living fountains
From the rocks along our way.
- 4 Be our strength in hours of weakness,
In our wanderings be our Guide ;
Through endeavor, failure, danger,
Father, be Thou at our side. Dox. IX.

I trust in the mercy of God forever. Ps. lii: 8.

- 1 From every stormy wind that blows,
From every swelling tide of woes,
There is a calm, a sure retreat;
'Tis found beneath the mercy-seat.
- 2 There is a place where Jesus sheds
The oil of gladness on our heads;
A place than all beside more sweet;
It is the cleansing mercy-seat.
- 3 There is a spot where spirits blend,
Where friend holds fellowship with friend;
Though sundered far, by faith they meet
Around one common mercy-seat.
- 4 There, there, on eagles' wings we soar,
And time and sense seem all no more;
And heaven comes down, our souls to greet,
And glory crowns the mercy-seat.

And ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem. Is. lxi : 13.

- 1 O what their joy and their glory must be,
Those heav'nly Sabbaths the blessèd ones see !
Crown for the valiant ; to weary ones rest ;
God shall be all, and in all ever blest.
- 2 Truly "Jerusalem" name we that shore,
Vision of peace that brings joy evermore !
Wish and contentment can be severed ne'er,
Nor the thing prayed for come short of the prayer.
- 3 We, where no trouble distraction can bring,
Safely the anthems of Sion shall sing ;
While for Thy grace, Lord, their voices of praise
Thy blessèd people shall evermore raise.

- 4 Now in the meanwhile, with hearts raised on high,
We for that country must yearn and must sigh,
Seeking Jerusalem, dear native land,
Through our long exile on Babylon's strand.
- 5 Low before Him with our praises we fall,
Of whom, and in whom, and through whom are all ;
Whose Love is the Father, whose Wisdom the Son ;
Whose Spirit the Life wherein lives every one.

562

Thou hast with thine arm redeemed thy people. Ps. lxxvii : 15.

- 1 O Jesus, Saviour of the lost,
My Rock and Hiding-place,
By storms of sin and sorrow toss'd,
I seek Thy sheltering grace.
- 2 Forgive me guilty, Lord, I cry :
Pursued by foes, I come ;
O save me tempted, or I die ;
A wand'rer, take me home.
- 3 There safe in Thine almighty arms,
Let storms come on amain,
No more I fear their dread alarms
Where Thou, O Lord, dost reign. Dox. I.

Surely he hath borne our griefs and carried our sorrows. Is. liii: 4.

- 1 When the heart is sad within
With the sense of all its sin,
When the spirit sinks with fear,
Jesus, Holy Saviour ! hear.
- 2 When our hearts are bowed with woe,
When our bitter tears o'erflow,
When we mourn the lost, the dear,
Jesus, Holy Saviour ! hear.
- 3 Thou our throbbing flesh hast worn,
Thou our mortal griefs hast borne,
Thou hast shed the human tear,
Jesus, Holy Saviour, hear.
- 4 Thou hast bowed the dying head,
Thou Thy precious blood hast shed,
Thou, whom grateful hearts revere,
Jesus, Holy Saviour ! hear.
- 5 Thou art now our mighty God,
Ruling all with sceptre-rod ;
Thou to help art ever near,
Jesus, Holy Saviour ! hear.

564

Thou hast given a banner to them that fear thee ; that it may be displayed because of thy truth. Ps. lx : 4.

- 1 Fling out the banner ! let it float
 Skyward and seaward, high and wide,—
The sun that lights its shining folds,
 The Cross on which the Saviour died.
- 2 Fling out the banner ! heathen lands
 Shall see from far the glorious sight,
And nations, crowding to be born,
 Baptize their spirits in its light.
- 3 Fling out the banner ! sin-sick souls
 That sink and perish in the strife,
Shall touch in faith its radiant hem,
 And spring immortal into life.
- 4 Fling out the banner ! wide and high,
 Seaward and skyward let it shine ;
Nor skill, nor might, nor merit ours :
 We conquer only in that sign.

Behold I have set the land before you: go in and possess the land which the Lord sware unto your fathers to give them. Deut. i: 8.

- 1 My days are gliding swiftly by ;
And I, a pilgrim stranger,
Would not detain them as they fly,
Those hours of toil and danger.
For, oh ! we stand on Jordan's strand ;
Our friends are passing over ;
And, just before, the shining shore
We may almost discover.
- 2 We'll gird our loins, my brethren dear,
Our distant home discerning :
Our waiting Lord has left us word,
Let every lamp be burning.
For, oh ! we stand, etc.

- 3 Should coming days be cold and dark,
 We need not cease our singing :
 That perfect rest nought can molest,
 Where golden harps are ringing.
 For, oh ! we stand, etc.
- 4 Let sorrow's rudest tempest blow,
 Each cord on earth to sever :
 Our King says, Come, and there's our home,
 For ever, oh ! for ever.
 For, oh ! we stand, etc.

566 The holy city New Jerusalem coming down from God out of heaven. Rev. xxi : 2

- 1 Jerusalem, thou City bright
 From heav'n to earth descending,
 How wondrously their holy light
 Thy precious stones are blending.
 O City fair, O City blest,
 All joy to mortals bringing,
 Who would not raise his voice in praise
 And thy dear name be singing !
- 2 O Gates of pearl, O Streets of gold,
 O River ever flowing
 Where leads the Shepherd to the fold
 The flock their Saviour knowing.
 O City Fair, O City blest, etc.
- 3 O Living Stream, O heav'nly Gleam
 New earth and heav'n creating :
 Shine far and wide, O saving Beam,
 Man's wearied soul elating.
 O City fair, O City blest, etc.
- 4 Shine, holy Light, within our hearts
 All evil shade dispelling,
 That we ne'er from Thy way depart,
 Which leads to that blest dwelling.
 O City fair, O City blest, etc.

So he bringeth them unto their desired haven. Ps. cvii: 30.

- 1 Out on an ocean all boundless we ride :
 We're homeward bound.
 Tossed on the waves of a rough, restless tide,
 We're homeward bound.
 Far from the safe, quiet harbor we rode,
 Seeking our Father's celestial abode,
 Promise of which on us each He bestowed :
 We're homeward bound.
- 2 Wildly the storm sweeps us on as it roars :
 We're homeward bound.
 Look! yonder lie the bright heavenly shores :
 We're homeward bound.
 Steady, O pilot ! stand firm at the wheel ;
 Steady, we soon shall outweather the gale ;
 Oh, how we fly 'neath the taut, creaking sail :
 We're homeward bound !
- 3 Into the harbor of heaven now we glide :
 We're home at last.
 Softly we drift on its bright silver tide :
 We're home at last.
 Glory to God ! all our dangers are o'er ;
 We stand secure on the glorified shore.
 Glory to God ! we will shout evermore :
 We're home at last.

To him shalt thou cleave. Deut. x : 20.

1 As helpless as a child who clings
Fast to his father's arm,
And casts his weakness on the strength

That keeps him safe from harm;
So I, my Father, cling to Thee,
And, every passing hour,
Would link my earthly feebleness
To Thine Almighty power.

2 As trustful as a child who looks
Up in his mother's face,
And all his little griefs and fears
Forgets in her embrace;
So I to Thee, my Saviour, look,

And in Thy face Divine,
Can read the love that will sustain
As weak a faith as mine.

3 As loving as a child who sits
Close by his parent's knee,
And knows no want while it can have

That sweet society;
So, sitting at Thy feet, my heart
Would all its love outpour,
And pray that Thou wouldst teach me, Lord,
To love Thee more and more.

Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord. Ps. cl: 6.

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 1 Let all the world in every corner | 2 Let all the world in every corner |
| sing, | sing, |
| My God and King! | My God and King! |
| The heavens are not too high, | The Church with psalms must |
| His praise may thither fly; | shout, |
| The earth is not too low, | No door can keep them out; |
| His praises there may grow. | But above all, the heart |
| Let all the world in every corner | Must bear the longest part. |
| sing, | Let all the world in every corner |
| My God and King! | sing, |
| | My God and King! |

591 Fear thou not ; for I am with thee : be not dismayed ; for I am thy God. Isa. xli : 10.

1 I've found a Friend ; O such a Friend !

He loved me ere I knew Him ;
He drew me with the cords of love,
And thus He bound me to Him ;

And round my heart still closely twine

Those ties which naught can sever,

For I am His, and He is mine,
For ever and for ever.

2 I've found a Friend ; O such a Friend !

He lived and died to save me ;
And not alone the gift of life,
But His own self He gave me.

Naught that I have mine own
I'll call,

I'll hold it for the Giver ;
My heart, my strength, my life,
my all,
Are His, and His for ever.

3 I've found a Friend ; O such a Friend,

So kind and true and tender !
So wise a Counsellor and Guide,
So mighty a Defender !

From Him, my Lord, who loves me, tell

What power my soul shall sever ?

Shall life or death, shall earth or hell ?

No : I am His for ever.

From the man' of de- | ceit · and in- | iqui- | ty.
- 3 For Thou' art the | God · of my | strength :
Why' | dost thou | cast me | off ?
- 4 Why' | go I | mourning,
Because' of the op- | pression | of the | enemy ?
- 5 O send' | out Thy | light,
And' Thy | truth ;— | let them | lead me :
- 6 Let them bring me' unto Thy | holy | hill,
And' | to Thy | taber- | nacles.
- 7 Then will I go' unto the | altar of | God ;
Unto God' the | gladness | of my | joy :
- 8 And' | I will | praise Thee
Upon' the | harp, O | God, my | God.
- 9 Why art thou bowed down', | O my | soul ?
And why art thou' dis- | quiet- | ed with- | in me ?
- 10 Hope in God, for I' | yet shall | praise Him ;
Who is the health' of my | counte- · nance | and my | God. Amen.

John vi: 33. Rev. xxii: 17.

- 1 The bread of God is He' that cometh | down from | heaven,
And giveth' | life un- | to the | world.

- 2 He that cometh to Me^e shall | never | hunger,
And he that believeth^e on | Me shall | never | thirst.
- 3 This is the bread that cometh^e | down from | heaven,
That one^e may | eat there- | of, and not | die.
- 4 I am the living bread^e that came | down from | heaven:
If any one eat^e of this | bread, he shall | live for | ever.
- 5 And the bread that I will give^e | is my | flesh,
Which I^e will | give · for the | life · of the | world.
- 6 And the Spirit^e and the | Bride say, | Come:
And let him^e that | heareth | say,— | Come:
- 7 And let him^e that | thirsteth | come:
And let him that willet^e take | water of | life— | freely. Amen.

The Angelic Alleluia. Rev. xix: 6.

[At the Close of the Communion.]

- 1 Al^ele- | lu- | ia:
For the Lord^e | God om- | nipo- · tent | reigneth.
- 2 Let us^e be | glad, and re- | joice,
And give^e the | glory | unto | Him:
- 3 For the marriage^e of the | Lamb is | come;
And^e His | Wife hath | made her · self | ready.
- 4 And to her was granted that she^e should | be ar- | rayed
In^e fine | linen | bright and | clean:
- 5 For^e the | fine— | linen
Is^e the | righteous- | ness of | saints.
- 6 Blessed^e are | they · that are | callèd
Unto the marriage^e | supper | of the | Lamb.
- Dox. Amen: Blessing^e, and | glory, and | wisdom,
